Catholic Ceremony Held

An event of September 28 at Sacred Heart Catholic church was the nuptial mass and marriage ceremony of Miss Kathleen Mary Newcomb and Thomas Carrol Turner. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradley Newcomb, 516 Dakota avenue. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Neil Turner, 513 Alder street, Central Point.

The Rev. Gilbert Lulay officiated at the 10:30 o'clock morning mass and wedding attended by 200 relatives and friends. The bride wore a floor length gown of nylon organza over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves, scoop neckline and full gathered skirt which formed a chapel train. The neckline was embellished with pearls and iridescent sequins and the skirt was caught up in the front by organza roses. Her veil of silk illusion was elbow length and fell from a tiered queen's crown of lace, pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid. Mr. Newcomb escorted his daughter to the altar.
