Couple to Live in Texas

Lt. and Mrs. Ted Edward DeFord left for their new home in Wichita Falls, Tex., following their marriage and the wedding reception September 27 in Medford First Presbyterian church. The bride, who was Miss Gretchen Valerie Meier before her marriage is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hanns Meier, 545 Lorz lane.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted DeFord, 2533 Sandy terrace.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the 8 o'clock double ring ceremony witnessed by some 200 guests.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of lace and silk organza over peau de soie. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and square neckline. The slim skirt was designed with a flared chapel train accented with lace appliques. The bouffant shoulder length veil was held by a crown of pearls and lace and she carried a bouquet of white orchids with white roses. Her pearl necklace was a gift from a cousin in Singapore.

Frocks Are Rose

Miss Kathi Uridel was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were the Misses Jeri Myers, Menlo Park, Calif., Shirley Donahoo, Teresa Six, Teresa Thomas, and Joy Guidry, a cousin of the bride.

The attendants' gowns and headpieces with veils were rose colored. Their frocks were of peau de soie with jackets, and back panels trimmed with white rose appliques covered with rose colored organza. Single satin Dior roses held their net veils and they carried white spider chrysanthemum nosegays, which matched their white slippers.

Jannice Guidry and Carol Mitchell, who lighted the candles, wore frocks of gold brocade and their wristlets were of white chrysanthemums. Both are cousins of the bride.

Douglas Meier, Whidby Island, Wash., a brother of the bride, was best man. Duane Tresham, a cousin of the bridegroom, LeRoy Clay, James Thomas, Marc Prentice, a cousin of the bride, and Roy Schroeder were ushers.

White gladioli with white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The reception, given by the bride's parents in the church Fellowship hall, was attended by about 100 guests. The reception table was decorated with pink chrysanthemums and miniature white daisies.

The bride's mother was gowned in cocoa brown chifon and her corsage was a green orchid. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue crepe frock. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Several classmates of the bride from the University of Oregon were among the guests, including the Misses Mary Ann Vukasin, Barbara Powell, Frances Huntington, Linda Lee, Christa Christesen and Barbara Earl.

Others from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holzgang, aunt and uncle of the bride, Bonneville, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tresham, cousins of the bridegroom, Arcata, Calif.

The couple planned to travel by way of San Francisco, and Dallas, Texas, en route to Wichita Falls, where the bridegroom, a second lieutenant in the Air Force is stationed at the Officers Training school. The bride wore a white knit sheath dress with floral embroidery, a blue mohair coat and accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom are Medford high school graduates and attended the University of Oregon, where the bridegroom was graduated.

Mrs. Jack Six and daughter, Theresa and Mrs. Arthur Uridel and daughter, Kathi, were hostesses for a linen and kitchen shower which honored the bride before her wedding. Also hostesses for a shower were Mrs. George Millian and Mrs. Richard Niedermeyer.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

SHADY COVE — Miss Shirley Louise Andre became the bride of Joe Ben Zehner Jr., in 9 o'clock evening rites read October 2 in the Shady Cove home in which the newly wedded couple will live. The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Andre Sr., Williams lane, Shady Cove, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ben Zehner, Route 4, Box 430 1/2, Medford.

For her wedding the bride wore a royal blue suit with black accessories and her corsage was of pink tea roses. Her father gave her in marriage.

The bride was unattended and Frank Bahr, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Twelve guests witnessed the ceremony.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom made the first cut of the wedding cake and Mrs. Kenneth Burnett continued the serving. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Frank Bahr, a sister of the bridegroom and Miss Joan Burnett had charge of the bride's book.

Hogue-Baucom Rites Held

Miss Diana Dale Baucom and Raymond Lance Hogue were wed in 4 o'clock afternoon rites September 28 in Medford First Methodist church. The Rev. Gerald Nelson performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Baucom, 2168 Crestbrook road, are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hogue, 2209 Hillcrest road.

Miss Diane Bush served as the bride's honor attendant and Mrs. Max Gillespie was bridesmatron.

Lisa Vance, a niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

Mr. Baucom escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride's floor length gown of peau d'ange and lace over taffeta was styled with basque bodice and Sabrina neckline outlined in pearls and iridescent sequins. The full skirt was tiered with lace ruffles and the three-quarter length overskirt of bouquet taffeta was picked up at the sides with self material bows. The lace edged overskirt was trimmed with lace appliques. Her tiered veil of hand-drawn silk illusion was held by a queen's crown of Alencon lace and pearls with an inner crown of crystals and pearl drops. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

Attendants Wear Pink

The attendants wore sheath dresses in identical style, of azalea pink peau de twille. The bodices were in princess design and the detachable overskirts were made with controlled fullness. Single self-fabric roses trimmed the front waistlines. Their single rose headpieces held float veils, and their bouquets were of white chrysanthemums centered with pink carnations.

The flower girl's frock was of white organza with a pale pink sash and her basket was filled with colored chrysanthemums.

Larry Little served as best man, and Robert Campbell and Charles Riley Baucom Jr., a brother of the bride, were the ushers.

White chrysanthemums with pink stock decorated the church.

Maynard Hadley was soloist. Miss Randa Lecker, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Debbie Hogue, sister of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Reception Held

About 200 guests were at the ceremony and some 150 attended the reception given by the bride's parents in the church rooms.

Mrs. Richard Vance, a sister of the bridegroom, served the coffee and Miss Donna Smith served the cake. Miss Carol Lamb poured the punch and Miss Clarissa Hogue, a sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book. Miss Lana Wright was at the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a beige satin brocade sheath dress with matching jacket and cocoa brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a costume of turquoise blue satin brocade with matching velvet hat and accessories.

The couple traveled to the Oregon beaches for their wedding trip. The bride wore a beige sheath dress with cranberry red accessories.

The couple is living at Park Terrace apartments, Medford.

The bride is a student at Medford High school. The bridegroom attended the same school and Southern Oregon college. He is employed at Medford corporation.
