

Newlyweds Honored At Talent

TALENT—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Reeves, whose marriage was an event of September 20 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, were guests of relatives in Talent last week while visiting here on their wedding trip. The bride is the former Miss Cassie Cutbush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cutbush, 101 East Main street, Talent.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reeves, Wenatchee, Wash., and the newlyweds will make their home in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Milan Simmonds, also of Wenatchee, attended the couple.

During their visit the bride was honored at a bridal shower given in the home of Mrs. William Sommer, Wagneer Creek. Hostesses with Mrs. Sommer were Miss Linda Sommer and Mrs. Everett Culver.

A wedding cake made by Mrs. Leon Lockwood was served for refreshments.

Among the guests were the bride's mother, the Mesdames Cletus Moore, Ray Moore, Archie Estes, Dean Sommer, Lockwood, Don Meadows and Walter Emerson, and the Misses Judy Stewart, Priscilla Hoover, Sally Strong and Mary Sue Emerson.

In Portland

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charlotte Froman, 261 West Hersey street, is spending several weeks in Portland visiting at the home of her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sheridan.

Family Anniversaries Key to Marriage Date

ASHLAND—Miss Patricia Alice Thompson and Clifford Raymond Thomson Jr., chose to be married on a date near to the 51st wedding anniversaries of the grandparents of both. Their marriage was an event of September 22 in Ashland First Congregational church.

The bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thomson, Paradise, Calif., observed their 51st wedding anniversary on September 23 and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weidman, Central Point, celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary September 24. All were here for the rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Frank C. Thompson, 351 Morton street, Ashland, and the late Mr. Thompson. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thomson, Winston, Ore., who attended the ceremony.

The Rev. Paul Otte officiated for the rites at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Brother Escorts Bride

Frank Marshall Thompson, Corvallis, a brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. Alencon lace trimmed the neckline of the bride's bouquet taffeta gown which was styled with a train and a bow accented the back waistline. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a Swedish crown of pearls and her flowers were white spider chrysanthemums with white roses and ivy.

Mrs. D. Gary Deatherage, Ashland, was matron of honor for her sister. The Misses Carol Singmaster, Seattle, and Evelyn Oveason, Wallowa, Ore., were the bridesmaids. Miss Nancy Kiser, a cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

The attendants' gowns were of royal blue corduroy with long sleeves and belted skirts. Their headpieces were soft bows of matching material and their nosegays were of gold chrysanthemums. The candlelighter's frock matched the others in style and was in a light blue shade and her headpiece was of the same material.

Steven Thomson, Paradise, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Fred Myers, Seattle, a half brother of the bridegroom, and Norman Fones Jr., Portland, were ushers.

Miss Margaret Ramsey was organist and Miss Leanne Allen, soloist.

Flowers Decorate Church
Baskets of chrysanthemums, dahlias and gladioli with autumn leaves decorated the church and white bows marked the family pews.

Some 150 guests attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's mother in the church rooms. Miss LaVonne Whillock cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Jeanne Hill poured punch. Miss Dolores Meyer served the coffee and Miss Ethel Redbird registered the guests.

At the gift table was Miss Sally Kenyon. White and gold were used for the decorations.

The bride's mother was dressed in a royal blue sheath frock with pale blue ostrich feather hat and the bridegroom's mother chose an apricot colored sheath dress with black accessories. Both had yellow chrysanthemum corsages.

Others from out of town were Mrs. Frank Marshall Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Edwards, Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford King, Albany; Mrs. Fones and Mrs. Norman Fones Sr., Portland; Mrs. Fred Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Myers, half-brothers and sisters-in-law of the bridegroom, all Winston.

Live in Corvallis

For the wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue wool suit with red accessories.

The couple is living at 300 North Twenty-fifth street Corvallis, and both will continue studies as seniors at Oregon State university.

The bride attended Ashland high school and Southern Oregon college, where she studied during the summer. The bridegroom, who attended Douglas High school, is completing six months active duty with the Oregon National Guard at Ft. Ord, Calif.

Newlyweds Return From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell L. Fariss Jr., are making their home at 3410 North Pacific highway, following their return from a wedding trip to the coast. The bride is the former Sharron J. Lyon, 340 1/2 North Central avenue.

The wedding was held September 20 at the First Presbyterian church with Dr. D. Kirkland West officiating. The double ring rites were held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening and attended by 200 guests.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Lyon, 2904 Lapine avenue, Central Point. Mr. Fariss' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell L. Fariss, 2870 Crater Lake highway, Medford.

The bride wore a floor length gown of peau de tulle fashioned with fitted bodice, elbow length sleeves and slim skirt. A bell shaped overskirt was held by a flat bow in front and her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl crown. Her jewelry was a necklace with a single pearl drop, a gift from the bridegroom. Her flowers were yellow rosebuds and white shatterd spider chrysanthemums.

Father Escorts Bride
Mr. Lyon escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Pamela Lyon, Central Point, was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Fariss, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Tamara Croucher, Central Point, her cousins. They wore sheath frocks in persimmon colored peau de tulle with white feather headdresses which held short veils. Their accessories were white and they carried yellow gladioli with persimmon colored centers.

Flower girl was Kim Fariss, sister of the bridegroom, and ring bearers were Brett Fariss and Richard Lyon, brothers of the bridegroom and bride, respectively. The flower girl wore a frock of white nylon accented with persimmon.

Gordon Pathmann served as best man and seating the guests were Gene Harvey and Ralph Simon, Talent.

White and yellow gladioli decorated the church for the wedding and white bows marked the pew ends. Maynard Hadley sang.

Reception Given
Following the wedding a reception was held at the church. Serving were Mrs. Gordon Pathmann, Mrs. Charles McGonagle and Mrs. Monroe McGonagle, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Raymond Williams, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lyon chose a black nylon dress over white taffeta printed with black roses. Mrs. Fariss wore a lime green suit with green and gold accessories.

For traveling the bride wore a brown sheath dress with black accessories and yellow rosebud corsage. The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. The bride is employed at Rogue Valley hospital as a ward clerk. Mr. Fariss is employed by City Sanitation service as an equipment operator.

Prior to her wedding, Miss Lyon was honored at a bridal shower given by Miss Sandra Fariss, Mrs. Pathmann and Mrs. Roy Junge. The evening prior to the wedding the parents of the bridegroom were hosts for a rehearsal dinner attended by members of the wedding party. Both events were held in the recreation room of the Linger Longer Mobile Manor.
