Weitman-Carter Rites Held in Meeker Chapel

Miss Kathryn Nancy Carter, 229 North Bartlett street, became the bride of Kenneth Eugene Weitman, Eagle Point in 8 o'clock evening rites September 25. The Rev. George Roseberry performed the ceremony in Meeker chapel of the First Methodist church, Medford. Family members attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay G. Carter, San Jose, Calif., and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Weitman, live on Rogue River drive, Eagle Point.

The bride's white cotton brocade dress was long length and made with street sleeves. Her short veil was held by a white circlet, and she carried pink rosebuds on a white Bible.

Mistletoe Club Luncheon Plan

A covered dish luncheon for Mistletoe club, Royal Neighbors of America lodge will be served at 12 noon, Wednesday, October 9, in Girls Community club.

Mrs. Fred Ayde will be committee chairman, assisted by Mrs. Elsa Walker and Mrs. Ruby Hicks. A business meeting will be conducted.

In Ashland

ASHLAND—Recent visitors in Ashland at the K. Nelson Damon home, 73 Church street, have been their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Portouw and three sons from Tucson, Ariz. They were also guests of Mrs. Portouw's sister and family, the Robert Richardsons, 185 North Pioneer street.

ASHLAND—Everett Bailey has returned from Vallejo, Calif., where he had traveled to attend the forty-eighth wedding anniversary observance for his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dilsman. The event was held September 27.

Educator Chosen 'Beep of Week'

National Business Women's week will be observed in the Rogue valley starting today by the Medford Business and Professional Women's club. Activities will continue throughout the week, ending October 12.

Each year the Medford club selects an outstanding member, who has also been identified with other activities, to be honored as "Beep of the Week."

Chosen as "Beep" this year is Miss Gladys Durrand, elementary school supervisor for School District 549C.

Theme for the week is "Responsibility of Full Partnership." Miss Lucille Lenox is general chairwoman. The organization is the largest group in the world devoted entirely to the affairs and welfare of business and professional women.

The Medford club is the only women's club in the area which is a member of the Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Durrand has been active in the BPW club here since she moved to Medford in 1958 from Coos Bay. She has served as first vice president and president of the local club and as chairman of several committees. She is currently a director and chairman of the personal development committee.

She is presently president of the Oregon Association of School Supervisors, state chairman of the service committee of Delta Kappa Gamma, national teachers honorary society; as a member of the Oregon Education association and National Education association she is on the representation council of OEA; is on the Christian education board of First Presbyterian church; is past president of Rho chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, Medford, and Soroptimist and Toastmistress club, Coos Bay and was the first commander of the Pacific Women's American Legion post, Coos Bay.

Her hobbies include all outdoor activities such as gardening and camping, antiques, and she is currently collecting rocks for an outdoor fireplace for her property on the Rogue river near Shady Cove. She is also an amateur photographer.

Miss Durrand is a native Oregonian, having attended schools in Coos Bay. Her mother, Mrs. James Durrand, now lives in Pasadena, Calif. The Beep is a graduate of Oregon College of Education, Monmouth and completed graduate study for her master of arts degree at the University of Oregon.

She began her teaching career in a one room rural school at Merchants Beach, about ten miles north of Bandon. The ten pupils at the school were from three families, and the teacher boarded with a family in the area. Since that time she has taught all grades and an elementary principal in Coos Bay prior to coming to Medford to assume duties as elementary school supervisor of the district's 14 schools.

During part of her time in Coos Bay, superintendent of schools there was Dr. Leonard B. Mayfield, now superintendent of District 549C.

During the past two years she has been one of the local educators active in the Oregon Program, and under its auspices has traveled throughout the country observing new methods in teaching.

War Career
During World War II Miss Durrand enlisted in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps as a private, advancing to captain prior to her discharge. The majority of the war she served as administrative officer with the Medical Corps. She was on recruiting duty in Michigan and in May, 1945 she was assigned to a hospital in Paris. From there she was transferred to Heidelberg, Germany, where she wrote the Seventh Army Medical history and first met Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Miss Durrand was later with the War Crime group in Hiedelberg and Wiesbaden, and on several occasions visited the trials then under way at Nurnberg. Prior to returning to the United States she traveled in Italy, Switzerland, Germany, France, Holland, and Denmark. Breakfast Today

Miss Durrand will be honored at special events throughout the week. This morning at 9 o'clock she will be honored at a breakfast at Stanley's Restaurant, 510 North Riverside avenue. This afternoon she will be among the Medford club members who plan to attend the tea in Ashland honoring that club's Beep, from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Louise Meyers, 800 Clarence lane.

The next public recognition will be Monday noon at the Medford Chamber of Commerce Roundtable luncheon at North's Chuck Wagon.

Wednesday she will be interviewed on KMED-TV at 10 a.m. and on KMED radio that afternoon. Thursday, October 10, at 9 a.m. Business and Professional Women's club members are invited to attend the Chamber of Commerce kaffeeklatsch at the Medford hotel. The broadcast of this informal gathering of business and professional people will be on Saturday, October 12, at 10:45 a.m. over radio station KMED.

Teacher To Talk
Mrs. Justin Smith, social studies teacher at Medford High school, will speak at the Friendship dinner Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at North's Chuck Wagon. Special invitations have been extended to women's organizations of the community and all interested women are welcome.

Reservations should be made not later than Monday by telephoning Miss Voda Brower, 773-5039; Miss Lenox, 772-5994 or Mrs. C. H. Redmond, 773-1371.

Wednesday evening several members of the Medford club will attend the dinner of the Ashland club at Bard's Inn. Mrs. Phyllis Pesenti, Medford, will speak.

Former Beeps include Mrs. George Watson, Miss Laura York, Miss Voda Brower, Miss Peggyann Hutchinson, Mrs. Florence Lance, Miss Lucille Lenox, the late Mrs. Bertha Haskins, and Mrs. F. R. Faulkner.

Relief Society Bids Non-Members
First Ward Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints invite non-members to attend their next session Wednesday, October 9 at 10 a.m., in the ward meeting house, corner of Monroe and Ivy streets.

Mrs. Wilson P. Lauritzen will give the theology lesson entitled, "The Law of Forgiveness." Testimony will be given. Child care will be provided.

Relatives Visit At Shelley Home
HORN BROOK — Frank Shelley, Sunnyvale, Calif., is spending the week here with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Shelley. A week-end guest of the Shelley was her brother, Charles Pitts, Emoryville, Calif.

Hights Spend Week in Reno
HORN BROOK — Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hight, owner-operators of Hight's market, returned Sunday from a week's trip to Reno, Nev.

Lodge Head Is Guest In Medford

Olive Rebekah lodge women have announced their next meeting for October 7 in the Medford Odd Fellows hall.

Committee members are Mrs. Riley Applegate, Mrs. Beatrice Houghton, Miss Deloris Berry and Mrs. James Hoskins.

A large attendance was reported for the joint meeting of Olive and Ruth Rebekah lodges held recently for the official visit of the state assembly president, Mrs. Barbra Bagley, Springfield.

Mrs. Edna Van Nurden, mother of the lodge officer, and Mrs. Byrle Drury, state past president, Coburg, accompanied her.

Other visitors were members from Etza lodge, Grants Pass; Mt. Pitt lodge, Central Point; Amethyst lodge, Gold Hill, and members from Pendleton, Ore., and Arkansas.

Artistic tableau was given as an addendum by the host lodges when the visiting president was presented a corsage. Taking part were Mrs. Kindred Thomas, Mrs. Ernest Hinkle, Mrs. Walter Couch and Mrs. Alvin Shepherd, Ruth Rebekahs, and Mrs. Lyle Pickell, Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. Henry Guss and Mrs. Harry Bryant, Olive Rebekahs.

Past Noble Grands' club of Olive Rebekah lodge will meet Thursday, October 10, at 8 p.m. at Girls Community club. Those attending are asked to answer roll call with an anecdote or joke. Entertainment will be provided and Mrs. Esther Coleman will preside. The refreshment committee will be Mesdames Margery Pearson, Dollie Love and Laura Wicker.

Homemakers will be attracted to the rummage booth, which will be decorated in a Scotch motif. Clothing for children and adults has been mended, washed and ironed, or dry-cleaned. New items of apparel and jewelry have been donated by valley merchants, and will be offered at bargain prices, league members state.

Household items and bric-a-brac will be displayed in an old-fashioned country store. The variety of merchandise — attic treasures, yardage, quilts, small appliances, books — will lend authenticity to the setting.

Shanty Town Booth
Second-hand furniture and appliances in disrepair will be sold in a shanty town booth.

Vases and bright flower pots will be arranged on white painted ladders at the Dutch flower stand. Plants, bulbs and dried flower arrangements will be for sale with other gardening accessories.

Early Christmas shoppers will find gifts for everyone at the sewing and crafts booth, the knitting booth and the Christmas booth. Christmas candles and decorations will be plentiful, and the Junior Service league card for the benefit of the kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children will be displayed. Dozens of hand-knit items will be for sale in the Italian knitting booth, including sweaters, caps, mittens, booties and socks.

The sewing and crafts committee has made a variety of gift items, some for children and some for household use. Schoolbook bags, skirts and shirts are suggested for children's gifts, and place mats.

Original art works, donated by artists of southern Oregon, will attract people with esthetic interests to the art booth. Lyle

Harrell, a Jacksonville artist, will be available to sketch anyone who wishes to pose.

Medford's sister city, Alba, Italy, has provided many Italian items to add to the international theme of the benefit.

Children will be amused in kiddieland while their parents shop. Games of skill, miniature rides, a puppet show and real live burros are expected to add to the fun.

The co-chairmen of the International flea market, Mrs. Ronald Ricketts and Mrs. James Shaw, have not announced the entertainment to be offered, but the continental theme will be emphasized.

Proceeds will be used for community benefit and for the maintenance of the kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children which is sponsored by the league.

Ashland Minister Speaks for Group
The Rev. Albert Nickodemus of Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, will speak for a meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary league Thursday, October 10, at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Medford. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Kenneth Bowser, Christian growth chairman, is program chairman and Mrs. Ida Henning is chairman of the organization.

Ten Booths, Two Restaurants Planned for Big Flea Market

Racks of clothing, booths filled with hand-made gifts, and freshly-baked pastries, hot out of the oven, are a few of the saleable items the Junior Service league will offer at the International Flea Market at the Armory on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, October 25, 26, and 27.

Ten booths, two restaurants and kiddieland, the children's game and ride section, will compete for the attention of customers, and entertainment is being planned to appeal to everyone.

Homemakers will be attracted to the rummage booth, which will be decorated in a Scotch motif. Clothing for children and adults has been mended, washed and ironed, or dry-cleaned.
