

Reception At Church Honors Medford Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brooks, 208 North Peach street, observed their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, September 22, with a reception at the fellowship hall of First Christian church, Medford.

The event was planned by the couple's three children, Arthur Brooks, Klamath Falls, and Lane Brooks, Empire, and their wives, and Mrs. Roland Franzman, Inglewood, Calif., and Mr. Franzman.

Mrs. Brooks wore a three piece blue brocade dress for the reception and a white orchid corsage, a gift from her children.

The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums in fall shades, gold candles, white bells, gold leaves, colored cat-tails, asters, gladioli, fall leaves and the number 50 in gold. Mrs. Arthur Brooks did the decorations and Mrs. Franzman made and decorated the anniversary cake, which was encircled with green and white carnations.

Mrs. Franzman cut and served the cake and Mrs. Lane Brooks poured coffee. The Misses Jeralynn Brooks, Klamath Falls, and Carolyn Brooks, Empire, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Sandra Brooks, Empire, was in charge of the guest book, Grandchildren Play.

The couple's grandchildren, Mrs. Edward Gillette, Martha, Linda and Robbie Franzman, all Inglewood, Calif., played an instrumental arrangement of "Anniversary Waltz" accompanied by Mrs. Nathan Woodworth, Gled, Wash., cousin of Mr. Brooks. Miss Jeralynn Brooks, another granddaughter, played two piano selections and Mrs. Woodworth played the background music during the afternoon.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Layton, Mrs. William Canfield, Seattle, Wash., cousins and aunt of Mr. Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Franzman and children, Cheryl, Richard, and Tom; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Franzman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Huffman and daughters, Heidi and Lori, and Geri Gillette, all Inglewood, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Barrow and Mr. and Mrs. S. Johnston, Glendale, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, and son Tim, Winston; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stephens and son Brent, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wickersham, Mrs. Gordon Grow, and son Steven, W. C. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gill and children, Larry, Debbie and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Chamberlain and daughters, all Klamath Falls; and Mrs. Maynard Paup and son Greg, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were married September 24, 1913, at the First Christian church in Wenatche, Wash. They moved to Oregon in 1928, first living in Klamath Falls before moving to Medford in 1938 when Mr. Brooks retired from the Great Northern Railroad.

Mrs. Brooks, a native of England, came to the United States in her late teens.

Couple Goes Fishing In Klamath River

HORN BROOK - Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark of Roseville, Calif., are spending a week here fishing the Klamath river. They are guests of Mrs. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elmore. Mrs. Clark spent here childhood in Hornbrook.

Mrs. T. H. Gerety (at left) was honored at a dinner given last week at the Ashland Country club by members of the Rogue council, Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Gerety recently resigned her position as executive director. Mrs. Richard Westfield, Ashland, council president, is pictured presenting Mrs. Gerety a corsage from the personnel committee of the council.

Camp Fire Girl! Head Honored

Mrs. T. H. Gerety, executive director of the Rogue council, Camp Fire Girls, for the past seven years was honored October 1 at a testimonial dinner given in the Ashland Country club. She recently resigned from the position but will continue as a leader of a Horizon CFB club.

About 35 guests attended the event and Mrs. Gerety was presented a silver tray and silver candlestick holders by members of the board, committee members and CFG leaders. N. H. Gladfelter, Medford, chairman of the council camping committee, made the presentation.

Speakers included Mrs. Richard Westfield, Ashland, council president; Mrs. Elmo Stevenson, Ashland, who was council president at the time Mrs. Gerety accepted the position; Mrs. J. P. Rowan, Medford, a former president; Mrs. Pierre Roberts, Ashland, present vice president and Henry Enders, Ashland, a past president, and council member for 30 years.

Flowers in fall shades and autumn leaves decorated the tables and baskets of dried flower arrangements marked each table place.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brooks, 208 North Peach street, honored the couple at a reception September 22 which observed their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were married in Wenatche, Wash., and have lived in Medford since 1928. (Landis photo)

National Park Pictures To Be Shown at Center

Colored pictures of four national parks will be shown Monday, October 7, during the meeting of the Arm Chair Travelers at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. A. Slothers, 165 Gresham street, Ashland, will show the pictures of Yellowstone, Grand Canyon, Bryce and Zion National parks.

More than 36 persons attended the showing last Monday when Mrs. Leroy Thompkins, Talent, showed her bird pictures.

Some 59 seniors used the center during the day with the two other classes, Spanish in the morning, and knitting in the afternoon.

Class Changed

Starting this week the Spanish class will meet Wednesday, October 9, during the morning, continuing on this schedule except for the first Wednesday in the month when the Evergreen Craftsmen committees use the center. The Spanish class will meet from 10 a.m. until noon.

The change was necessary due to the instructor, Mrs. Alecia Carter, being unable to continue teaching Mondays.

The knitting class is growing. It was reported. The classes are held from 3 to 5 p.m. with Mrs. Edward Barnet as teacher and Mrs. Mildred Price, hostess.

Tuesday, October 8, the copper tooling class will reconvene after the summer vacation. It meets from 10 a.m. until noon. A teacher for the class, who can also offer leather tooling, will be available soon, it was stated, but until then the group will meet as a workshop. Mrs. Hermine Beucema will be hostess.

The oil painting class meets Tuesdays from 1 to 4 p.m.

The art class, under the direction of Mrs. Nettie Williams, worked on perspective in both color and line last week. Mrs. Sadie Coghill, a former class member, brought some of her drawings at the request of Mrs. Williams, to illustrate the talk.

During the afternoon Mrs. Beucema served refreshments. Mrs. Agnes Sowers, Gold Hill, will be the hostess on Tuesday.

Thursday mornings have been reserved for the shuffleboard teams, but the beginning date has not been announced.

The Senior Center orchestra practices each Thursday afternoon.

Seniors who would like to learn or refresh up their contract bridge, may join the bridge group each Saturday afternoon.

The Singing Seniors will meet at the center on Sunday afternoons as soon as a song leader is secured.

Before sewing plastic material, rub a little talcum on the needle to prevent sticking.
