

7:00 P.M. Mr. Robert Taylor (left) and Mr. Robert Ciabani (right) find a few moments to discuss one of the world-famous artist's newest paintings, while waiting for the guests to arrive at the preview benefit.

9:00 P.M. As an interested guests look on, Mrs. Wes Pearson models one of nine fashion ensembles provided for the benefit by cooperating merchants for the Dean & Taylor event.

7:30 P.M. Mrs. William Clark (left), Mrs. Warren Bishop (right), and Mrs. William Dawkins (seated) make final makeup touches a few minutes before the fur and formal wear fashion show.

Thank You For Joining Us!

Our Guests:

who, by attending our 1964 Pontiac Car Showing last Wednesday evening, made possible the contribution of $414 to the Junior Service League sponsored Hard of Hearing Kindergarten.

Our Fashion Models:

Mrs. Russell Acheson, Mrs. Warren Bishop, Mrs. William Clark, Mrs. William Dawkins, Mrs. Charles Gustafson, Mrs. Frank Hopewell, Mrs. Wes Pearson, Mrs. Dorris Reed, and Miss Susan Watrude.

Our Business Friends Who Contributed:

Alber's Feed and Seed, Brainerd's, Burelson's and Burelson's Shoe Salon, De-Na Beauty Salon, Fontaine's Framing Studio, Furs by Samuel, Jean Hart, Laurine's Carpet House, Lusk Music Company, Mann's Department Store, Moore's Patio & Toy Shop, North's Chuckwagon, Rath's, Rogue Valley Country Club, Stanley's Restaurant, Trowbridge and Flynn, Winnie's Style Salon and Wiggery.

For three hours, more than seven hundred guests thronged the Dean & Taylor Pontiac showroom to enjoy watching an art exhibit, fashion show and new car preview.

8:30 P.M. Host Bob Taylor opens the show, introducing guests of honor, Robert Ciabani and William Fontaine. (Below) Mrs. Charles Gustafson models while Mrs. E. Sickles moderates and John Lusk provides background music.

10:30 P.M. Host Robert Taylor, Mrs. John Collins, Mayor James Dunlevy, and Robert Ciabani exchange smiles over the success of the car show benefit which brought contributions of $414, later presented to the JSL Hard of Hearing kindergarten.

wide track town 2177 south DEAN & TAYLOR 99

