

Oregon Staters Nip Baylor With Last-Minute Counter

By GORDON RICE
PORTLAND (UPI) — Quarterback Gordon Queen lost a passing battle with Baylor's Don Trull Saturday night, but he won the war with a last-minute touchdown pass that gave Oregon State a 22-15 football victory.

Queen, who completed 11 of 22 passes for 191 yards, hit Danny Espalino for 12, Doug McDougal for 19 and 13, and finally Espalino again for 9 and the touchdown. Espalino, the smallest man on the field at 5-8 and 167, grabbed the ball on the five, fumbled it on the two, and then fell on it in the end zone.

LeRoy Whittle's 26-yard scoring run and a Queen-to-Burke conversion pass gave Oregon State an 8-0 lead in the first quarter. Fullback Bruce Williams tallied on a one-yard plunge after an 80-yard drive in the second period to make it 15-0.

Trull took one play to get that score back. He hit Lawrence Elkins on an 80-yard scoring play to make it 15-6 and Tom Davies booted a 28-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in the half.

Trull got the equalizer on the third-quarter drive and that set the stage for Queen's last-minute heroics.

"His poise was very good and his play selection was excellent," Prothro said of his quarterback.

Queen, who completed 11 of 22 passes for 191 yards, hit Danny Espalino for 12, Doug McDougal for 19 and 13, and finally Espalino again for 9 and the touchdown.

Trull, perhaps the best professional prospect in the country, picked the OSU defenses apart with 16 completions in 28 attempts for 246 yards, but a defensive maneuver concocted by Beaver coach Tommy Prothro undid him.

Trull passed the Bears back from a 15-0 deficit to tie the score early in the third quarter. The Bears marched 68 yards with the second-half kickoff for the tying points, scored on a one-yard plunge by Trull.

The Bears moved into touchdown territory again in the fourth period, when Prothro's strategy of luring Trull into throwing into the flat instead of down the middle paid off.

Another opportunity opens for scatter-gunners this coming week when the state-wide waterfowl season gets underway. According to the game commission, the midweek opening is set for 1 p.m. on Tuesday, October 8.

The bag and possession limit may include no more than two wood ducks — which is an increase over the one wood duck allowed last year. Only one hooded merganser is allowed in the daily bag, two in possession.

Sophomore Tim Osmer, playing in place of the injured Jim Sinyard, picked off a Trull pass on the Beaver two and returned it 59 yards.

Shooting time for Oct. 12 will be at 8 a.m. to correspond to the opening of the general upland game bird season, but the remainder of the shooting days through the season, ending on Jan. 5, gunners can start banging away at one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The goose limit is set for three birds per day, and gunners may have six for a two-day limit or in possession. The day's bag may be increased to six birds, providing three are snow geese.

Defense "invited" Pass
"We set our defenses to invite that sideline pass," assistant coach Jerry Long said. "If he'd thrown up the middle he couldn't have helped but score."

State-wide bag limit for ducks is four per day, eight in possession. Gunners are reminded there is no open season on redheads and canvasback ducks.

Gene Mingo set an AFL record of five field goals in the Broncos' upset victory over the Chargers before 18,428 fans at Denver. Mingo's kicks travelled 37, 41, 26, 13 and 21 yards.

Trail At Half
Mingo's three third-period field goals enabled the Broncos to overcome a 20-17 halftime deficit and move ahead, 26-20.

John McCormick hit Lionel Taylor with a 49-yard scoring pass; Don Stone ran 39 yards from scrimmage and Austin Gonsoulin raced 49 yards with an intercepted pass for three quick touchdowns that sent the Chargers down to their first defeat in four games.

Len Dawson passed for all four of the Chiefs touchdowns in the victory over the Oilers before a crowd of 27,801 at Kansas City. Dawson passed 14 and four yards to Fred Arbanas, 69 yards to Chris Buford and eight yards to Frank Jackson.

Garrett Picked
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Halfback Mike Garrett, a sophomore speedster built like a fire plug, was named the AAUW's "Back of the Week" today for leading the Trojans of Southern California to a come-from-behind 13-10 victory over Michigan State.

Garrett, who is 5-9 and a powerful 182 pounds, rolled up 118 yards in 10 carries. The Trojans were trailing, 10-0, when he broke over guard and streaked 52 yards to give his team the boost it needed to win.

STEWART CHAMP
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Hugh Stewart, 35-year-old South Pasadena, Calif., tennis star, is the new national junior veterans champion. Stewart gained the title Sunday by defeating defending champion Emery Neale, 42, of Portland, Ore., 6-1 and 8-6.

SOC Red Raiders Down OCE Wolves

ASHLAND — A touchdown punched over the first time that the ball was the foretoken of victory here Saturday night. Southern Oregon's Red Raiders of the Rogue, launching their Oregon Collegiate conference football championship defense, went on to thump the Oregon College Wolves 33 to 0.

The Raiders also touchdowns on long runs on their third and fifth opportunities with the ball. They capitalized on a couple of late game opportunities and repulsed four deep penetrations into their territory to make the outcome a decisive one.

Doug Olsen reached the pay zone on a two-yard run. Denny Ellis romped 40 yards to the goal and Mike Hood rambled for 46. Dave Nord scored on five and three-yard running plays. Olsen kicked three extra points.

SOC had margins of 6 to 0 at the quarter and 19 to 0 at the half. Nord crossed for their markers in the fourth period after a scoreless third.

Threat Per Quarter
OCE made one big threat in each quarter. Each time the Raiders defense rose up and SOC got the ball on downs.

Wolf penetrations reached the 14, 13, 10 and five-yard lines of the Raiders. In the first period SOC took possession on its 15 stripe, in the third OCE was pushed back to the 16 and in the fourth SOC took over on its six.

It was a good omen for the Raiders when Dick Peglow ran the game's opening kickoff back 41 yards to the SOC 48-yard line. Five plays put the Ashlander on the OCE 35. After an aerial incompleti in Bill Bailey cast a screen pass to Olsen. The play gained 33 yards to the two. Olsen slipped into the end zone on the next play.

In the second period SOC got the ball on its own 41 on a Wolf punt. Steve Grimes gained 28 yards to the OCE 31. After Olsen got three yards, Grimes was dropped for a three yard loss and Nord was spilled for minus 10. That put the ball on the 40-yard line. Ellis was sprung by the Raiders on a double reverse and barged across the goal.

Branson Recovers
Third scoring opportunity presented itself when Paul Branson fell on an OCE fumble on the Monmouth team's 46. On the next play Hood took a handoff, slipped over the line of scrimmage then zipped to the touchdown strip. Olsen kicked the extra point.

In the early fourth quarter Ron Baker of the Raiders dropped OCE's Dave Laney for a 17-yard loss but the Wolves six yard line. Clifton Herbison gained back to the 11 on third down and Bruce Carpenter had a punt.

Peglow ran the ball back 22 yards to the OCE 23. Nord made six yards and a Bailey to Ellis pass picked up two. Nord gained five for first down on the 10 and in two more five yard tries, with an incomplete pass in between, had Raider touchdown No. 4. Olsen again had a good conversion thump.

A couple of 15-yard penalties after the SOC kickoff offset OCE's offensive headway. And, instead of kicking, the Wolves ran on fourth down. Don Sheldon reeled off 14 yards but was four yards shy of first down. SOC took possession on the OCE 34.

Nord Scores
Bailey made nine yards and passed to Spike Gordon for 12 yards to the 13 mark. There a 15-yard infraction was called on the Raiders. But, a Jeff Rude pass to Gordon was good for 25 yards to the three. Nord scored on the next play and Olsen added a third in a row conversion.

Unofficial statistics showed the Raiders with a 302 to 205 scrimmage yardage margin. Frank Ellis of the Wolves was the top gainer of the evening with 91 yards on 23 carries. Much of his yardage was in the early going. He was stopped by the Raiders as the game progressed, although he got away once for 27 yards.

Don Sheldon had 57 yards on three packs for OCE. For the Raiders Hood totaled 53 yards in five carries including his 46-yard run. Olsen toted eight times for 38.

In passing SOC's Bill Bailey had eight completions in 15 throws for 81 yards. The Wolves' David Laney had 10 passes caught of 20 heaves for 78. Steve Jackson caught seven for 64.

Hill, Bukich Come Off Bench, Spark Eagle, Bear Victories

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer
Take it from the Chicago Bears and Philadelphia Eagles, whether it's football or baseball, there's nothing like having a good man in the bullpen.

Rudy Bukich of the Bears and King Hill of the Eagles, a pair of journeyman quarterbacks who have been knocking around the National Football league, came off the bench Sunday and turned in winning performances as impressive as Bart Starr, Y. A. Tittle, Frank Ryan and Charlie Johnson.

The Bears came from behind to beat the Baltimore Colts, 10-3, Sunday and the Cleveland Browns defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-23, Saturday night to extend their spotless records to 4-0.

Starr, Tittle and Johnson each threw three touchdown passes Sunday to keep the Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals closely in contention with 3-1 records. The Packers drubbed the Los Angeles Rams, 42-10; the Giants whipped the Washington Redskins, 24-14; and the Cards walloped the Minnesota Vikings, 49-14.

Lions Downed 49ers
Hill's passes helped the Eagles score their first victory of the season as they sent the Dallas Cowboys down to their fourth straight defeat, 24-21, and the Detroit Lions ruined the head coaching debut of the San Francisco Forty Niners' Jack Christiansen with a 28-3 shellacking.

The Browns face the Giants next Sunday in an Eastern division showdown, but it looks like there'll be no stopping the Bears for a few weeks. They next travel to the West Coast for successive meetings with the Rams and Forty Niners, neither of whom has won a game.

Bukich, who previously played for Los Angeles and Pittsburgh during his nine-year NFL career, was summoned from the bench late in the third period after the Bears were unable to overcome a 3-0 Baltimore lead with Billy Wade at quarterback.

Bukich completed six straight passes, mixing the first three with some effective Chicago rushing during an 80-yard touchdown drive.

Hill Led Eagles
Hill, another vagabond quarterback playing in his sixth NFL season, replaced injured Sonny Jurgensen and got the Eagles off winging with an 80-yard touchdown hookup with Timmy Brown. Hill also completed a six-yard TD toss to Clarence Peaks and set up a third touchdown and a Philadelphia field goal.

Herb Adderly, Green Bay's two football games involving junior varsity football players are scheduled this evening.

Medford high sophomores go to Grants Pass and the Crater jays travel to Ashland. Games are set for 7 p.m.

Whitemarsh Open Won By Palmer

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Arnold Palmer's victory in the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open should serve as a warning for the British Ryder Cup team.

The Latrobe, Pa., musician proved he was "back on the stick" Sunday when he won $26,000 in the year's richest tournament at the Whitemarsh Valley Country club by a stroke over Lionel Hebert.

Palmer, who will lead the U.S. team against Britain in the Ryder Cup matches at Atlanta next weekend, overcame a double bogey on the 14th hole to finish with a winning aggregate of 281, seven under par.

Hebert, whose third round 65 on Saturday zoomed him into contention, won $13,000 for his second place finish.

Balding, of Markland Wood, Ont., Canada, needed a birdie on the 18th hole to tie the Palmer but finished with a bogey to deadlock with Snead at 283 for third money of $6,750 each.

Linfield Rolls Over Coyotes

By United Press International
Linfield opened defense of its Northwest conference football championship by rolling over College of Idaho 19-0 at Caldwell Saturday night.

It was the Wildcats' 24th straight regular season victory. Lewis and Clark, rated as a threat to end Linfield's domination in the conference this season, walloped Willamette 41-13 at Salem and Pacific edged Whitman 21-20 at Walla Walla.

Linfield meets Lewis and Clark in Portland next Saturday. Defending champion Southern Oregon defeated Oregon College of Education 33-0 at Ashland and Portland State trounced Eastern Oregon 38-0 at Portland in opening Oregon Collegiate conference games.

Oregon Tech topped Grays Harbor Junior college 34-20 at Klamath Falls in a nonconference contest.

PORTLAND BILLS PROS
PORTLAND (UPI) — The Los Angeles Lakers and the San Francisco Warriors will meet in a National Basketball association exhibition game at the Memorial Coliseum here next Friday night.
