

Medford Rated 1st In Poll; Phoenix Keeps Top A-2 Spot

PORTLAND (UPI)—Medford moved back to the top of the A-1 football list in the Journal coaches' poll today. The Southern Oregon powerhouse, defending state champion, polled 75 of a possible 80 points to 72 points for second place. Roseburg is last week's leader. Medford is 3-1 for the season, losing to Boise. Roseburg is 4-0.

Others in the top 10 included in order: Grants Pass, Pendleton, Grant, North Salem, Cottage Grove, Central Catholic, Parkrose and Beaverton. Also getting votes were Jefferson, St. Helens, Marshfield, Lincoln and Wy'east.

Phoenix headed the A-2 poll with 74 of a possible 80 points. Others, in order, were Vale, North Catholic, Bandon, Seaside, Brookings, Yamhill-Carlton, Central, and Siuslaw and Gold Beach tied for ninth.

Ragsdale Slated To Fill QB Slot for Indians Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Handy man Dick Ragsdale, who does everything except whistle at the girls for the Stanford football team, had a new job today — another new one, that is.

Ragsdale (former Medford High standout), was named by coach John Ralston as one of the men who will handle the quarterbacking chores for the Indians Saturday night.

The need for a new quarterback came when Clark Weaver, the No. 1 signal caller, suffered pulled ligaments in his leg in the 10-0 loss to U.C.A. on Saturday and was lost to the team for the season.

"There are three sophomores who will see action against Rice: Mike Connelly, Dick Berg and Don Cook," said Ralston. "We'll probably start either Connelly or Ragsdale.

Busy Back

"We decided that we'll have to have Ragsdale there to steady the boys, who may be nervous. He was our freshman quarterback two years ago and saw 12 or 13 minutes as a signal caller last year."

Ralston then admitted that Ragsdale wasn't going to get much rest.

When Dick, a 180-pound junior from Oregon, isn't playing quarterback, he's the No. 1 left halfback. And when he is left on the offensive team, he plays in the defensive secondary.

"It's going to be tough on him, but it looks like he'll be on the field most of the time," said Ralston.

It's back to the proving grounds for other major West Coast college football teams this week as all Big Six teams participate in non-conference competition.

Saturday's Schedule

Southern California meets Notre Dame, California gets Duke, UCLA goes against Syracuse, Washington tackles Oregon State and Washington State plays San Jose State.

In games involving other major Western teams, Oregon plays Idaho and University of Pacific battles Fresno State.

Meanwhile, UCLA rests at the top of the Big Six standings with a 1-0 record after winning 10-9 over Stanford on Saturday. The Bruins don't play another Big Six contest until Nov. 2, so they can't be in any worse position than a tie for the lead up to that time.

Key Interception

Coch Bill Barnes' outfit won from Stanford with a pass interception in the last quarter by Bobby Richardson, who raced 40 yards to the Stanford five to set up the come-from-behind score.

Southern California returned to the victory ranks with a 13-10 win over Michigan State on Friday night. This was accomplished in the last quarter, too, with sophomore Mike Garrett going 72 yards for one score and quarterback Pete Beathard passing 16 yards to All-American end Hal Bedsole for the other.

Oregon State, only unbeaten major team in the West, won over Baylor, 22-15, when Gordon Queen passed nine yards to end Dan Espinal for a touchdown with only 27 seconds to play remaining in the game.

Oregon scored 35 points in the first half for a 35-0 win over what was supposed to be a good West Virginia team.

Third Straight Loss

Washington dropped its third consecutive tilt when Iowa scored a 17-7 triumph, but Washington State scored its first victory when Clarence Williams raced 75 yards for a touchdown that stood up in a 7-2 victory over Arizona State.

California's Jim Blakey raced the opening kickoff back

WON'T STAND PAT—Los Angeles Dodger Manager Walter Alton took a peaceful stroll Monday around the stadium which the day before had been the wild scene of the Dodgers' fourth and final win over the New York Yankees in the world series. Meanwhile, General Manager E. J. (Buzze) Bavasi said the Dodger sweep of the series will not lull the team into standing pat. He indicated that rather than look for trades, however, the management would try to gain strength by bringing up some of its younger players from the minors. (UPI)

39 Records Fall During Series Tilts

LOS ANGELES, (UPI)—Seventeen individual records and 22 club records were set during the 1963 World Series.

Sandy Koufax of the victorious Dodgers established the most prominent marks—most strikeouts by a pitcher in one game (15) and most strikeouts in one series (23).

Whitey Ford of the Yankees broke seven records—including most series games lost (7). He also won the most series games (10).

Koufax Unanimous Choice for UPI Majors' All-Stars

By FRID DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodger's 25-game winner and World Series pitching hero, was the only unanimous selection today on the United Press International's 1963 major league All-Star team.

The 27-year-old left-hander, who beat the New York Yankees twice in the World Series after a season during which he struck

Grants Pass Sophs Defeat Eagle Point JV

EAGLE POINT—Grants Pass sophomores defeated Eagle Point's JV footballs 13 to 7 in a game played here last night.

Grants Pass scored in the second period when Mark Thompson blocked a punt and Ron Hart fell on it in the end zone.

The Caveman team scored again as the fourth period was opening. Chris Wood threw a pass to Bob Gettle for the TD, the play covering 35 yards. Steve Warf kicked the extra point.

Eagle Point then took over the ball and made a sustained drive to score. Dan Wood ran from the 4. Dan Colcleaser kicked the extra point.

Roseburg Wins Canyonville Run

CANYONVILLE—Roseburg with a low score of 40 points won the varsity race on Saturday in the Pilot Invitational cross country meet of Canyonville Bible academy.

Other scores in order were Pleasant Hill 45, CBA 81, McKenzie 85, Rogue River 106 and Philomath 171.

Mike Crunican, Roseburg, was individual first over the 2.25 miles with a course record time of 12:05.

Rogue River placings were Ron Hallicka fourth, Ron Ross 22nd, Richard Ross 25th, Bob Fabrick 27th and Larry Ford 28th. The Chiefs Ron Waite ran 40th but was not involved in his own team's scoring. Hallicka's 12:56 tied the old course record.

Roseburg also won the jayvee run.

Prothro Wary Of Huskies

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon State coach Tommy Prothro warns his squad that winless Washington will be "high" for Saturday's Beaver-Husky battle at Seattle.

Oregon State has rolled up 10 straight wins since dropping a 14-13 decision to Washington last season. The Beavers edged Baylor 22-15 with a last-second touchdown in a Saturday thriller.

Prothro sent his Beavers through a closed-gate practice session Monday.

New System For Rose Bowl Tickets Told

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Big Six announced Monday it has adopted a new system to handle the sale of tickets to the Rose Bowl football game.

Those desiring tickets to the next Rose Bowl game should drop a post card, with their name and address on it, to "Rose Bowl, Bin 1800, Pasadena, Calif." Prior to the game, 1,750 post cards will be drawn from the bin, and winners will be informed that they can purchase two tickets.

Portland (UPI)—Charles Walker of Portland has been elected president of the Oregon association of the Amateur Athletic union.

Crater at Medford High, St. Mary's at Phoenix In 'Big' Games of Week

Rivalries between the closest neighbors in their respective conferences provide prep football "big games" in this vicinity on Friday and Saturday nights.

In the Friday evening Class A-1 skirmish Crater high will be at Medford. St. Mary's vies at Phoenix on Saturday in the Class A-2 scuffle.

The Medford-Crater fracas is the Southern Oregon conference opener for both schools. Phoenix and St. Mary's will contend in the third Rogue league game for each.

Klamath Falls goes to Grants Pass on Friday for another Southern Oregon loop opener. Ashland has the league bye and entertains Yreka.

Lakewick at E P

Rogue league angles included Lakewick at Eagle Point, Henley at Illinois Valley and Rogue River versus Sacred Heart at Klamath Falls all on Friday. Subdistrict I-B4 leader Prospect goes to Camas Valley on Friday.

Yreka junior varsity also is playing at Ashland Friday evening. Grants Pass jayvees go to Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Ninth grade games on Friday will be Ashland at North Grants Pass, Crater versus McLoughlin in Medford and South Grants Pass against Hedrick in Medford. Savage ninth goes to Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Oregon Guards May Be Out

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Guards Ancer Haggerty and Don Cadanoso were today considered doubtful participants for Oregon in Saturday's game against Idaho.

Haggerty suffered a bruised knee and Cadanoso a deep leg gash as the Ducks blitzed West Virginia 35-0 in their best game of the season Saturday.

Guards Dale Wilson and Mark Richards, also banged up in the West Virginia game, probably will be ready for the Idaho contest.

Coach Len Casanova sent his team through a short workout in full gear Monday.

DOG RACING ENDS

PORTLAND (UPI)—The curtain rang down on dog racing at the Multnomah Kennel Club's track just east of here Monday night with a crowd of 17,826 turning out. The betting handle for the night was $505,496, a record.

Stable To Fight Turner

NEW YORK (UPI)—Aggressive Jose Stable of Cuba and unbeaten Dick Turner of Philadelphia are slated for a nationally televised welterweight contenders' fight Friday night at Philadelphia's Blue Horizon Arena.

Their 10-rounder shapes up as the feature bout on the week's boxing schedule, which includes comeback fights by England's wealthy Terry Downes, former co-holder of the world middleweight crown, and by former top heavyweight contender Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore.

Bookie Downes comes out of a brief retirement to campaign as a light heavyweight in a bout with Germany's Rudolph Nehring at London's Albert Hall Tuesday night.

Machen, who scored his first comeback victory on a kayo over Miami's Ollie Wilson on Sept. 18, meets Alonzo Johnson of Rankin, Pa., at Santa Monica, Calif., Saturday night.

For Friday's TV fight at Philadelphia, third ranking welterweight contender Stable is favored at 8-5 over seventh ranked Turner. Turner seeks his 20th victory and 12th knockout in 21 bouts, which includes a draw. Stable's 21-2-1 record includes six knockouts.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday: London, Terry Downes vs. Rudolph Nehring. New York, Sunnyside — Domingo Ortiz vs. Bob Cassidy. Fresno, Calif. — Isaac Logart vs. Gabe Terronez.

Wednesday: Teaneck, N.J. — Jose Torres vs. Don Fuller.

Thursday: Los Angeles, Olympic — Raul Rojas vs. Lalo Laranga and Adolph Brutt vs. Art Hayward.

Friday: Philadelphia, Blue Horizon — Dick Turner vs. Jose Stable, TV.

Saturday: Santa Monica, Calif. — Eddie Machen vs. Alonzo Johnson.

Medford JV Slips By Cavemen

GRANTS PASS — Scoring on a 70-yard kickoff return by Ron Schwinner, the Medford Jayvees overcame Grants Pass JV here last night by a score of 7 to 6.

All the scoring took place within 15 seconds of playing time in the second quarter.

Grants Pass scored first when Bob Steimer took a pass from Pat Duchien in a play that covered 34 yards. The point after touchdown was empty.

Then when Grants Pass kicked off to Medford, Schwinner took the ball and went all the way. Both teams threatened often but were unable to do any more scoring.

Medford coach Frank Roelandt was pleased with the team's performance. He singled out quarterback Bruce Bertrand for praise.

Ashland Sophs Edge Crater JV

ASHLAND—The Ashland sophomores overcame Crater's JV football team here last night 18 to 6.

Ashland jumped off to a 6 to 0 half-time lead by scoring in the second quarter when Terry Clark scooped up a Crater fumble and went 15 yards for the TD.

Crater knotted the count in the third period on a 60-yard drive, reaching paydirt when Darrell Kiger ran from about seven yards out.

But Ashland came back later in the period as Jim Voth scored from the 4 after a 50-yard drive. Voth scored again in the final period going 10 yards around right end.

Montreal Plays At Boston In NHL Opener

BOSTON (UPI)—Boston's last place Bruins, dreaming of escape from the National Hockey league cellar they have occupied for three years, open the NHL season tonight by hosting the Montreal Canadiens.

The Bruins, who haven't gained the Stanley Cup playoffs for four years, will present an only slightly-revamped lineup for the 1963-64 season, their 39th in the 47-year-old league.

The Canadiens, on the other hand, have undergone drastic surgery after finishing their last season — their first title failure in six years.

Chief change in the Montreal lineup will be Gump Worsley, long-time New York net-minder, who was traded for the veteran Jacques Plante.

All other clubs will be in action before the end of the week. The Chicago Black Hawks host the New York Rangers on Wednesday night and then move to Detroit the following night to help the Red Wings get started. The defending champion Toronto Maple Leafs are the last team to break away, entertaining the Bruins on Saturday night. That same evening the Canadiens will be at home to New York.

Five Perfect Scores Fired

Five men had perfect 25 scores Sunday in 16-yard trapshooting at Medford Gun club.

They were Dick Phair, Harry Cawker, Percy Bearden, Henry Niedermeyer and Charles Bendel.

Breaking 24 of 25 clay pigeons were Jack Walker, Bendel and Loyd Langston.

Niedermeyer cracked 23 of 25 at skeet and Langston 22.

Floyd Young topped skeet shooting with 20 of 25. John Deaver and Hugh McGinty busted 19 apiece.

Because of the opening of pheasant season, the club will not be open on Oct. 13. There will be shooting on Oct. 20.

FIGHTS

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—Tony Dolye, 193, Draper, Utah, knocked out Jim Baker, 185, Chicago (4); Don Smith, 230, Salt Lake City, knocked out Sonny Hett, Spokane, Wash. (5).
