Newest Knit 4-H NEWS

Desert Pegasus
Annual awards were presented at a potluck supper and 4-H meeting sponsored by the Eagle Point Desert Pegasus Horse Club recently. The event was held in the Eagle Point Community center.

After the informal dinner Dale West thanked Mr. Dunn for his work and presented him with a gift. Jenny Olson congratulated Mrs. Dunn for her help and gave her a gift. Delmar Robertson thanked Mr. and Mrs. Krambeal for their help during the past year and Eddie Baker thanked the parents of the members for their part in 4-H activities.

Mrs. Dunn presented awards to outstanding members. Leslie Krambeal received a trophy for earning the most points at 4-H events in this county. Dale West, Sue and Don Weisheimer, Kathy and Philip McGuire, Eddie Baker, Jenny Olson, Alice, Leslie and Gina Krambeal received awards for perfect attendance. Alice Krambeal was honored as the member who made the most improvement during the year. Dunn then explained the requirements for being a Gold Seal club. He pointed out that we have received awards for the past six years.

A dance was held after the meeting was adjourned. June Soffel was welcomed to the club. Visitors attending were the Elmer Baker family, Mrs. Keith Krambeal and family, the Edward Robertson family, Mr. and Mrs. James West, Leonard Moeck, Gordon Peck, Mrs. William Soffel, Mrs. William Weisheimer, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Robertson, and Elaine Meyer.
