

Women's News

Area Teachers To Be Guests At Workshop

Home economics teachers from the local area have been invited to go back to school next Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12 to attend an electric appliance homemaking workshop in Medford sponsored by the Oregon chapter of the Electrical Women's Roundtable.

The workshop will be held at Pacific Power and Light company's service center in Medford. Hosts for the sessions are Mrs. Geane Kinsner, Medford, Polly Pacific home economist for PP and L in the Copco division, and Mrs. Grace Phipps, PP and L home economist from Portland.

Designed to acquaint home economics teachers with the latest trends in homemaking, the two-day program will feature demonstrations on the use and care of electric ranges, laundry equipment, portable appliances, electric dish washers and freezing and canning equipment.

Faculty members for the workshop are home economists for Pacific Power, extension service specialists and manufacturer representatives. Miss Bernice Strawn, extension service home management specialist from Oregon State university, will attend from Corvallis.

Invitations have been sent to home economics teachers from throughout southern Oregon and northern California.

Gold Hill Lodge Past Noble Grands To Buy New Stove

GOLD HILL — An electric range for the kitchen in the Odd Fellows hall is the current project of the Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge. At the first fall meeting members voted to sponsor fund raising events during the coming year, and proceeds will be used towards the purchase of the stove. Mrs. Earl Moore, president conducted the business meeting held in the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith.

Members voted to start a new treasure chest.

The club has donated $43 to the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah building fund project. It is planned that the kitchen will be relocated along with the lodge rooms on the first floor level of the old brick building.

The next meeting of the Past Noble Grands club will be held in the home of Mrs. Daniel Stewart Thursday, October 24 at 2 p.m.

Y Slim, Trim Program Opens This Evening

Mrs. Ruth Gerety, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, reminds employed women that the fall "Slim and Trim" program begins tonight from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The evening program will be conducted each Thursday night and will include work on exercise machines, volleyball and swimming. Qualified instructors will be available to assist with the various programs. Mrs. Gerety indicated that since a series of evening swimming classes for women has just been completed, no instruction has been planned in this new program. Women may participate in recreational swimming or the "Swim and Stay Fit" 50-mile swim.

The Medford YMCA is currently conducting a one-week open house for women and Mrs. Gerety extended an invitation to all women interested in this program to attend the first session as guests of the YMCA.

Meeting Slated For Fifty Plus

More than 60 members and visitors, some guests from Ashland and White City, attended last week's luncheon and program for Medford Fifty Plus club, in St. Mark's Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue.

The Friday, October 11, meeting is set for 12:30 p.m., in the same hall and those who attend should take sack lunches. Coffee will be provided. All interested persons are invited.

Club Begins 56th Year

Wednesday Study club now in its 56th year, held the first meeting of the 1963-64 season, October 2. It was a luncheon in the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. L. K. Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel, the only active charter member of the club, was presented an orchid corsage for her many years of service.

Miss Annette Gray was guest speaker for the program and chose for reviewing, "The Chinese Ginger Jars," authored by Myra Scoval, a housewife, also a nurse, of Mechanicville, N.Y. The story covers the achievements and adventures of Mrs. Scoval and her physician husband. They lived through dangerous times, experiencing floods, famine, the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese invasion and many other hardships during their stay in China as medical missionaries.

Miss Gray stated that after 21 years of service to the Chinese people and many noteworthy accomplishments in the field of medicine, the Scovals were finally forced to leave China by the Communists.

Oregonians To Take Part In Ceremony

WASHINGTON D. C. — Oregon's Senator Maurice B. Neuberger and Congresswoman Edith Green will participate in Friday's White House ceremony when the formal report of the Commission on the Status of Women is presented to President Kennedy.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Mr. Winn Draws a long slim line with inky black in a sleeveless skimmer... Wear it with a glamorous white bow with its young bow softly tied 16.95

Others in Wool and Velvet.

Open FRIDAY NIGHT, 5:30-9:00 for the "CASCADE FUN NIGHT"

"Only The Look Is Expensive"

Calendar

Thursday: 7:30 p.m.—Weatonka council, Degree of Pocahontas, Redman hall, Apple street; 8:15 p.m. card party. 7:30 p.m.—Lincoln PTA, school cafeteria. 7:30 p.m.—Altrusa club of Medford, Rogue River lodge. 7:30 p.m.—Jefferson Parent Teacher association, school gym. 8 p.m.—Past Noble Grands club, Girls Community club. 8 p.m.—Rea m e s chapter, OES, Medford Masonic temple. 8 p.m.—Jackson County Medical Assistants, Girls Community club. Friday: 12:30 p.m.—Fifty Plus club, St. Mark's Guild hall. 1:30 p.m.—Past Presidents club of Eagle auxiliary, home of Mrs. Jess Wagner, 112 Cottage street.

Artists Bidden To Enter Rental-Sales Paintings

Rogue Valley artists are reminded that they are invited to submit their work for the rental-sales gallery of the Rogue Valley Art association. Works of art may be in any media. Paintings should be framed or matted and delivered to the basement meeting room of the Public library of Medford and Jackson county, Monday, October 14 between 1 and 4 p.m.; Tuesday, October 15 between 5 and 7 p.m.; or Wednesday, October 16 between 1 and 4 p.m. A limit of four works for each artist has been set.

The work will be judged Thursday, October 17. Artists will be notified immediately following judging whether their work has been accepted or rejected. Rejected work may be claimed during regular hours at the Rogue Valley Art association gallery at 220 West Main street.

Accepted work will be on exhibition for the general public for two weeks following the November 4 opening and reception for the association membership.

Dunsmuir Pair To Be Callers; Classes Open

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones, Dunsmuir, Calif., will do the calling for the Buckles and Bows Square Dance club session Saturday, October 12 in Country square, Colver road, Talent. The dance will open at 8:30 p.m., and all interested square dancers and callers are invited.

The Jones calling team is well known in this area from Southern Oregon Square-up events, and square dance jamborees held in the vicinity.

The Buckles and Bows club is sponsoring beginners' classes for anyone interested in learning modern square dancing. Lessons will begin Monday, October 14 from 8 to 10 p.m., in the Country square.

The first two lessons will be given without charge and no obligation to continue it is stated. The instructor will be Floyd Workman. More information may be obtained from calling the Workman home, 535-1150.

Club Begins 56th Year

Wednesday Study club now in its 56th year, held the first meeting of the 1963-64 season, October 2. It was a luncheon in the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. L. K. Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel, the only active charter member of the club, was presented an orchid corsage for her many years of service.

Miss Annette Gray was guest speaker for the program and chose for reviewing, "The Chinese Ginger Jars," authored by Myra Scoval, a housewife, also a nurse, of Mechanicville, N.Y. The story covers the achievements and adventures of Mrs. Scoval and her physician husband. They lived through dangerous times, experiencing floods, famine, the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese invasion and many other hardships during their stay in China as medical missionaries.

Miss Gray stated that after 21 years of service to the Chinese people and many noteworthy accomplishments in the field of medicine, the Scovals were finally forced to leave China by the Communists.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

UN Trip To Be Topic Of Delegate

The public is invited to view slides to be shown Sunday, October 13 by Miss Monte Belle Cummings, Grants Pass, Jackson and Josephine county United Nations Pilgrimage delegate sponsored by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

The slides, to be shown at 2 p.m., will concern the pilgrimage and Miss Cummings will comment on the trip. The event will be held in the Medford IOOF building, 221 West Sixth street.

Refreshments will be served. Plans for the showing were made by Olive Rebekah lodge women at their October 7 meeting, when Omicron chapter, Theta Rho Girls, presented entertainment.

Mrs. Ethel Mills, Pendleton, and Mrs. Beatrice Graber, Tillamook, were guests.

Secretaries Plan Event

A no-host luncheon for secretaries of this area has been scheduled for Saturday, October 12 at 1 p.m., in Bard's Inn motel, Helman and North Main streets, Ashland. Purpose of the luncheon is to form plans for the organization of a chapter to the National Secretaries association, International.

All interested secretaries employed in the Rogue valley are invited to attend. Reservations should be made by calling Mrs. Ralph Wood, 482-3196.

Regional Meeting Set By OAE Secretaries

ASHLAND—Some 50 members of the Oregon Association of Educational Secretaries are expected to be in Ashland, Saturday, October 12 to attend a regional meeting in Ashland Junior High school.

Miss Sandra Mitchell, secretary in the offices of the Ashland superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Linda Tippett, Medford, a secretary at Walker Elementary school, Ashland, are co-chairmen. All Ashland school secretaries will be hostesses for the event.

Delegates to register in advance are from Klamath Falls, Portland, Salem, Coquille, Glide and local areas.

Mrs. Mary Christlieb, assistant dean of women at Southern Oregon college will be main speaker during the morning session.

Standard marching-band and dance-band drums have enjoyed good sales in recent years, rising from a 1959 unit total of 120,000 to 168,000 in 1962.

Tax Referral To Be Hoover PTA Subject

Hoover Parent-Teacher association will open this year's series of programs with a subject of interest to parents of children in Oregon schools and the state's taxpayers, "Current Tax Legislation," officers of the unit have announced.

Edward Branchfield, Jackson county state representative, will speak on the Oregon state income tax referral measure at the first fall unit meeting Friday, October 11 at 2:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

A question and answer period will be conducted.

All interested parents and particularly parents of first grade students, are invited. Coffee will be served from 2:15 p.m. Care will be provided for preschool age children.

Mrs. Robert Sleeter, president, will introduce her officers and executive board for the 1963-64 school year.

Public Invited To Card Party

Weatonka Council, Degree of Pocahontas lodge will hold the first in a series of public card parties, Friday, October 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Redman hall on Apple street. Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

Refreshments will be served. The regular meeting of the council will be held at 7:30 p.m.

To Meet

PHOENIX — A program on horticulture and propagation of plants will be given by Mrs. O. V. Poe at a meeting of the Phoenix Garden club set for Friday, October 11 at 1 p.m. The session will be held in Phoenix Community club. All interested women are invited.

More than two million new musical instruments were sold during 1962, the National Music Conference reports.

Area Teachers To Be Guests At Workshop

Home economics teachers from the local area have been invited to go back to school next Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12 to attend an electric appliance homemaking workshop in Medford sponsored by the Oregon chapter of the Electrical Women's Roundtable.

The workshop will be held at Pacific Power and Light company's service center in Medford. Hosts for the sessions are Mrs. Geane Kinsner, Medford, Polly Pacific home economist for PP and L in the Copco division, and Mrs. Grace Phipps, PP and L home economist from Portland.

Designed to acquaint home economics teachers with the latest trends in homemaking, the two-day program will feature demonstrations on the use and care of electric ranges, laundry equipment, portable appliances, electric dish washers and freezing and canning equipment.

Faculty members for the workshop are home economists for Pacific Power, extension service specialists and manufacturer representatives. Miss Bernice Strawn, extension service home management specialist from Oregon State university, will attend from Corvallis.

Invitations have been sent to home economics teachers from throughout southern Oregon and northern California.

Gold Hill Lodge Past Noble Grands To Buy New Stove

GOLD HILL — An electric range for the kitchen in the Odd Fellows hall is the current project of the Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge. At the first fall meeting members voted to sponsor fund raising events during the coming year, and proceeds will be used towards the purchase of the stove. Mrs. Earl Moore, president conducted the business meeting held in the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith.

Members voted to start a new treasure chest.

The club has donated $43 to the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah building fund project. It is planned that the kitchen will be relocated along with the lodge rooms on the first floor level of the old brick building.

The next meeting of the Past Noble Grands club will be held in the home of Mrs. Daniel Stewart Thursday, October 24 at 2 p.m.

Y Slim, Trim Program Opens This Evening

Mrs. Ruth Gerety, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, reminds employed women that the fall "Slim and Trim" program begins tonight from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The evening program will be conducted each Thursday night and will include work on exercise machines, volleyball and swimming. Qualified instructors will be available to assist with the various programs. Mrs. Gerety indicated that since a series of evening swimming classes for women has just been completed, no instruction has been planned in this new program. Women may participate in recreational swimming or the "Swim and Stay Fit" 50-mile swim.

The Medford YMCA is currently conducting a one-week open house for women and Mrs. Gerety extended an invitation to all women interested in this program to attend the first session as guests of the YMCA.

Meeting Slated For Fifty Plus

More than 60 members and visitors, some guests from Ashland and White City, attended last week's luncheon and program for Medford Fifty Plus club, in St. Mark's Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue.

The Friday, October 11, meeting is set for 12:30 p.m., in the same hall and those who attend should take sack lunches. Coffee will be provided. All interested persons are invited.

Club Begins 56th Year

Wednesday Study club now in its 56th year, held the first meeting of the 1963-64 season, October 2. It was a luncheon in the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. L. K. Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel, the only active charter member of the club, was presented an orchid corsage for her many years of service.

Miss Annette Gray was guest speaker for the program and chose for reviewing, "The Chinese Ginger Jars," authored by Myra Scoval, a housewife, also a nurse, of Mechanicville, N.Y. The story covers the achievements and adventures of Mrs. Scoval and her physician husband. They lived through dangerous times, experiencing floods, famine, the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese invasion and many other hardships during their stay in China as medical missionaries.

Miss Gray stated that after 21 years of service to the Chinese people and many noteworthy accomplishments in the field of medicine, the Scovals were finally forced to leave China by the Communists.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Oregonians To Take Part In Ceremony

WASHINGTON D. C. — Oregon's Senator Maurice B. Neuberger and Congresswoman Edith Green will participate in Friday's White House ceremony when the formal report of the Commission on the Status of Women is presented to President Kennedy.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Tax Referral To Be Hoover PTA Subject

Hoover Parent-Teacher association will open this year's series of programs with a subject of interest to parents of children in Oregon schools and the state's taxpayers, "Current Tax Legislation," officers of the unit have announced.

Edward Branchfield, Jackson county state representative, will speak on the Oregon state income tax referral measure at the first fall unit meeting Friday, October 11 at 2:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

A question and answer period will be conducted.

All interested parents and particularly parents of first grade students, are invited. Coffee will be served from 2:15 p.m. Care will be provided for preschool age children.

Mrs. Robert Sleeter, president, will introduce her officers and executive board for the 1963-64 school year.

Public Invited To Card Party

Weatonka Council, Degree of Pocahontas lodge will hold the first in a series of public card parties, Friday, October 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Redman hall on Apple street. Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

Refreshments will be served. The regular meeting of the council will be held at 7:30 p.m.

To Meet

PHOENIX — A program on horticulture and propagation of plants will be given by Mrs. O. V. Poe at a meeting of the Phoenix Garden club set for Friday, October 11 at 1 p.m. The session will be held in Phoenix Community club. All interested women are invited.

More than two million new musical instruments were sold during 1962, the National Music Conference reports.

Area Teachers To Be Guests At Workshop

Home economics teachers from the local area have been invited to go back to school next Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12 to attend an electric appliance homemaking workshop in Medford sponsored by the Oregon chapter of the Electrical Women's Roundtable.

The workshop will be held at Pacific Power and Light company's service center in Medford. Hosts for the sessions are Mrs. Geane Kinsner, Medford, Polly Pacific home economist for PP and L in the Copco division, and Mrs. Grace Phipps, PP and L home economist from Portland.

Designed to acquaint home economics teachers with the latest trends in homemaking, the two-day program will feature demonstrations on the use and care of electric ranges, laundry equipment, portable appliances, electric dish washers and freezing and canning equipment.

Faculty members for the workshop are home economists for Pacific Power, extension service specialists and manufacturer representatives. Miss Bernice Strawn, extension service home management specialist from Oregon State university, will attend from Corvallis.

Invitations have been sent to home economics teachers from throughout southern Oregon and northern California.

Gold Hill Lodge Past Noble Grands To Buy New Stove

GOLD HILL — An electric range for the kitchen in the Odd Fellows hall is the current project of the Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge. At the first fall meeting members voted to sponsor fund raising events during the coming year, and proceeds will be used towards the purchase of the stove. Mrs. Earl Moore, president conducted the business meeting held in the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith.

Members voted to start a new treasure chest.

The club has donated $43 to the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah building fund project. It is planned that the kitchen will be relocated along with the lodge rooms on the first floor level of the old brick building.

The next meeting of the Past Noble Grands club will be held in the home of Mrs. Daniel Stewart Thursday, October 24 at 2 p.m.

Y Slim, Trim Program Opens This Evening

Mrs. Ruth Gerety, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, reminds employed women that the fall "Slim and Trim" program begins tonight from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The evening program will be conducted each Thursday night and will include work on exercise machines, volleyball and swimming. Qualified instructors will be available to assist with the various programs. Mrs. Gerety indicated that since a series of evening swimming classes for women has just been completed, no instruction has been planned in this new program. Women may participate in recreational swimming or the "Swim and Stay Fit" 50-mile swim.

The Medford YMCA is currently conducting a one-week open house for women and Mrs. Gerety extended an invitation to all women interested in this program to attend the first session as guests of the YMCA.

Meeting Slated For Fifty Plus

More than 60 members and visitors, some guests from Ashland and White City, attended last week's luncheon and program for Medford Fifty Plus club, in St. Mark's Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue.

The Friday, October 11, meeting is set for 12:30 p.m., in the same hall and those who attend should take sack lunches. Coffee will be provided. All interested persons are invited.

Club Begins 56th Year

Wednesday Study club now in its 56th year, held the first meeting of the 1963-64 season, October 2. It was a luncheon in the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. L. K. Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel, the only active charter member of the club, was presented an orchid corsage for her many years of service.

Miss Annette Gray was guest speaker for the program and chose for reviewing, "The Chinese Ginger Jars," authored by Myra Scoval, a housewife, also a nurse, of Mechanicville, N.Y. The story covers the achievements and adventures of Mrs. Scoval and her physician husband. They lived through dangerous times, experiencing floods, famine, the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese invasion and many other hardships during their stay in China as medical missionaries.

Miss Gray stated that after 21 years of service to the Chinese people and many noteworthy accomplishments in the field of medicine, the Scovals were finally forced to leave China by the Communists.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Oregonians To Take Part In Ceremony

WASHINGTON D. C. — Oregon's Senator Maurice B. Neuberger and Congresswoman Edith Green will participate in Friday's White House ceremony when the formal report of the Commission on the Status of Women is presented to President Kennedy.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Regional Meeting Set By OAE Secretaries

ASHLAND—Some 50 members of the Oregon Association of Educational Secretaries are expected to be in Ashland, Saturday, October 12 to attend a regional meeting in Ashland Junior High school.

Miss Sandra Mitchell, secretary in the offices of the Ashland superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Linda Tippett, Medford, a secretary at Walker Elementary school, Ashland, are co-chairmen. All Ashland school secretaries will be hostesses for the event.

Delegates to register in advance are from Klamath Falls, Portland, Salem, Coquille, Glide and local areas.

Mrs. Mary Christlieb, assistant dean of women at Southern Oregon college will be main speaker during the morning session.

Standard marching-band and dance-band drums have enjoyed good sales in recent years, rising from a 1959 unit total of 120,000 to 168,000 in 1962.

Tax Referral To Be Hoover PTA Subject

Hoover Parent-Teacher association will open this year's series of programs with a subject of interest to parents of children in Oregon schools and the state's taxpayers, "Current Tax Legislation," officers of the unit have announced.

Edward Branchfield, Jackson county state representative, will speak on the Oregon state income tax referral measure at the first fall unit meeting Friday, October 11 at 2:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

A question and answer period will be conducted.

All interested parents and particularly parents of first grade students, are invited. Coffee will be served from 2:15 p.m. Care will be provided for preschool age children.

Mrs. Robert Sleeter, president, will introduce her officers and executive board for the 1963-64 school year.

Public Invited To Card Party

Weatonka Council, Degree of Pocahontas lodge will hold the first in a series of public card parties, Friday, October 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Redman hall on Apple street. Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

Refreshments will be served. The regular meeting of the council will be held at 7:30 p.m.

To Meet

PHOENIX — A program on horticulture and propagation of plants will be given by Mrs. O. V. Poe at a meeting of the Phoenix Garden club set for Friday, October 11 at 1 p.m. The session will be held in Phoenix Community club. All interested women are invited.

More than two million new musical instruments were sold during 1962, the National Music Conference reports.

Area Teachers To Be Guests At Workshop

Home economics teachers from the local area have been invited to go back to school next Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12 to attend an electric appliance homemaking workshop in Medford sponsored by the Oregon chapter of the Electrical Women's Roundtable.

The workshop will be held at Pacific Power and Light company's service center in Medford. Hosts for the sessions are Mrs. Geane Kinsner, Medford, Polly Pacific home economist for PP and L in the Copco division, and Mrs. Grace Phipps, PP and L home economist from Portland.

Designed to acquaint home economics teachers with the latest trends in homemaking, the two-day program will feature demonstrations on the use and care of electric ranges, laundry equipment, portable appliances, electric dish washers and freezing and canning equipment.

Faculty members for the workshop are home economists for Pacific Power, extension service specialists and manufacturer representatives. Miss Bernice Strawn, extension service home management specialist from Oregon State university, will attend from Corvallis.

Invitations have been sent to home economics teachers from throughout southern Oregon and northern California.

Gold Hill Lodge Past Noble Grands To Buy New Stove

GOLD HILL — An electric range for the kitchen in the Odd Fellows hall is the current project of the Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge. At the first fall meeting members voted to sponsor fund raising events during the coming year, and proceeds will be used towards the purchase of the stove. Mrs. Earl Moore, president conducted the business meeting held in the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith.

Members voted to start a new treasure chest.

The club has donated $43 to the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah building fund project. It is planned that the kitchen will be relocated along with the lodge rooms on the first floor level of the old brick building.

The next meeting of the Past Noble Grands club will be held in the home of Mrs. Daniel Stewart Thursday, October 24 at 2 p.m.

Y Slim, Trim Program Opens This Evening

Mrs. Ruth Gerety, women's program director for the Medford YMCA, reminds employed women that the fall "Slim and Trim" program begins tonight from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The evening program will be conducted each Thursday night and will include work on exercise machines, volleyball and swimming. Qualified instructors will be available to assist with the various programs. Mrs. Gerety indicated that since a series of evening swimming classes for women has just been completed, no instruction has been planned in this new program. Women may participate in recreational swimming or the "Swim and Stay Fit" 50-mile swim.

The Medford YMCA is currently conducting a one-week open house for women and Mrs. Gerety extended an invitation to all women interested in this program to attend the first session as guests of the YMCA.

Meeting Slated For Fifty Plus

More than 60 members and visitors, some guests from Ashland and White City, attended last week's luncheon and program for Medford Fifty Plus club, in St. Mark's Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue.

The Friday, October 11, meeting is set for 12:30 p.m., in the same hall and those who attend should take sack lunches. Coffee will be provided. All interested persons are invited.

Club Begins 56th Year

Wednesday Study club now in its 56th year, held the first meeting of the 1963-64 season, October 2. It was a luncheon in the Colony restaurant.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. L. K. Doty, treasurer.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel, the only active charter member of the club, was presented an orchid corsage for her many years of service.

Miss Annette Gray was guest speaker for the program and chose for reviewing, "The Chinese Ginger Jars," authored by Myra Scoval, a housewife, also a nurse, of Mechanicville, N.Y. The story covers the achievements and adventures of Mrs. Scoval and her physician husband. They lived through dangerous times, experiencing floods, famine, the Pearl Harbor attack, the Japanese invasion and many other hardships during their stay in China as medical missionaries.

Miss Gray stated that after 21 years of service to the Chinese people and many noteworthy accomplishments in the field of medicine, the Scovals were finally forced to leave China by the Communists.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

Oregonians To Take Part In Ceremony

WASHINGTON D. C. — Oregon's Senator Maurice B. Neuberger and Congresswoman Edith Green will participate in Friday's White House ceremony when the formal report of the Commission on the Status of Women is presented to President Kennedy.

Both were appointed to the commission by the President on December 14, 1961, and have served with 24 other distinguished Americans including five Cabinet members.

Senator Neuberger also has served as chairman of the Committee on Social Insurance and Taxes and Congresswoman Green has been chairman of the Committee on Civil and Political Rights.

The report culminates a 22-month study of women's activities in American life and formulates a program designed to help women become full partners in American democracy.

Date of the presentation, October 11, marks the 79th birthday anniversary of Eleanor Roosevelt, late chairwoman of the commission.

PHOENIX — A program on horticulture and propagation of plants will be given by Mrs. O. V. Poe at a meeting of the Phoenix Garden club set for Friday, October 11 at 1 p.m. The session will be held in Phoenix Community club. All interested women are invited.

More than two million new musical instruments were sold during 1962, the National Music Conference reports.

Now Open To Serve You... a New ELECTROLOGY OFFICE

Specializing in the PERMANENT REMOVAL OF UNWANTED HAIR

NELDA F. MORRIS, R.E.

Registered Electrologist CONSULTATION WITHOUT OBLIGATION

832 East Main

For Appointment Phone 772-6336