AAUW Oregon Division Supports Tax Measure

The Oregon division of the American Association of University Women has gone on record in favor of Ballot Measure 1, the tax referral legislation to be voted on October 15.

The action was taken recently at the first meeting of the state legislature committee composed of women from throughout the state. Chairman of the committee is Mrs. William D. Hagenstein, Portland.

The motion passed stated: "We support Ballot Measure 1 in order to continue essential state functions until a more equitable tax measure will be developed."

This position is a continuation of the Oregon division's long-standing legislative principles, policies and procedures which were reaffirmed at the state AAUW convention in Gearheart in April.

Makes Statement

Mrs. Willard M. Sanzenbacher, Lake Oswego, division president, in closing the meeting stated: "The Oregon division of AAUW urges its members to act as responsible citizens and vote 'yes' at the election Oct. 15. Our organization supports the position that adequate financial support is basic to good government. This has been clearly demonstrated by AAUW branches throughout the years. We pledge that pertinent information concerning taxation issues and the positions taken toward them by Oregonian legislators will be made available to AAUW branches throughout the state so that AAUW members may be thoroughly informed about them before the next general election."

At the Wednesday meeting of the Medford branch, AAUW, Dr. Harry Danielson spoke on "Emotional Dynamics of the Family."

The Medford psychiatrist reviewed the new idea of treatment of the family as a unit, instead of only a single individual. He also mentioned common patterns in marital discord and read excerpts from the book "The Neurotics Notebook."

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Ben Jensen. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Stong, 2120 Woodlawn drive.

Fall workshops throughout the state were announced. Dr. Jean Lauber, Moscow, Idaho, national implementation chairman, will be the principal speaker at the sessions.

Accompanying her will be Mrs. Sanzenbacher and Dr. Betty Lou Dunlop, Ashland, state vice president and program director, who will preside at each event.

The meetings were set for Thursday, October 10, at Pendleton and Baker; Friday, October 11, in La Grande and Hermiston, and Saturday, October 12, at The Dalles and Monmouth. AAUW members are to attend the workshop closest to their branch.

Jack Edson, Medford architect, is one of the Rogue valley professional men who purchased patrons' tickets for the coming concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra. Mr. Edson bought his ticket from Mrs. Jeff Lee, member of the Organization of Associated Commuters at Southern Oregon college, sponsors of the concert. Two performances will be given, one at 3:45 p.m. and the second at 8:15 p.m., both at Hedrick Junior High school. The afternoon performance, primarily for students, will be a shortened version of the evening event. Following the evening concert a reception will be held at Rogue Valley Country club in honor of the orchestra members; it is being sponsored by the Peter Britt Music and Arts association.

Civic-Minded Residents Aid Symphony Orchestra

Civic and music-minded Rogue valley residents are supporting the appearance in Medford of the Portland Symphony orchestra. The orchestra will play two concerts here Wednesday, October 16, at Hedrick Junior High school.

At 3:45 p.m. a program designed primarily for students will be presented, and at 8:15 p.m. the full-length program will be given. Tickets are on sale at Mann's and Purucker's stores in Medford, and at the Student Affairs office, Southern Oregon college, Ashland.

The Organization of Associated Commuters of the college is sponsoring the concert, with the assistance of various valley residents. Some are buying patrons tickets at $10 for two persons, and other help is being given.

The Peter Britt Music and Arts association has planned a reception at Rogue Valley Country club following the concert in the evening. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Reservations are to be made with the chairman, Mrs. John Lusk, at 772-8635. Other music patrons are serving as dinner hosts for members of the 70-piece orchestra.

Randy Clark, Central Point, president of the Commuters' club, and Harold Friend, Ashland, are co-chairmen in charge of concert arrangements. It is pointed out that primarily the concert is being given in order to promote the Portland Symphony orchestra as an all-state cultural asset. Profits derived from the venture will go to the club's scholarship fund. Dr. Alvin Fellers of the SOC faculty is club advisor.

The Medford concerts will be part of a six-day tour. On the program will be Handel's "Water Music Suite," Benjamin Britten's "Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Purcell, and "Symphony No. 4 in F Minor" by Tchaikovsky. Jacques Singer is conductor.
