The Comets marched 56 yards on their second opportunity with the ball and turned a deflected pass into their second score. Both touchdowns were in the second quarter...

Phil Taylor smashed two yards for the Bulldog tally in a 12-play drive which saw six first downs recorded.

McLoughlin made no other serious scoring bid, but the Fireballs came close to putting over three more touchdowns.

Crater had a 211 to 163 edge in net scrimmage yards with completely a ground attack. Mac had 145 yards on the ground and 18 through the air.

"We were real pleased with the overall performance of the squad," said Bill Piche, Comet coach. "It was a hard fought game," observed Bob Radcliffe, tutor of the Bulldogs.

The Comets TD drive took 10 plays a holding penalty wrecked the extra point run. A pass followed but was incomplete. Crater offensive threat was in the combined running of Twedell, Frohreich and Steve Ryerson. Taylor was the main weapon of the Medford club.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Top Ranked Teams Shocked By Upsets, Texas Drops Sooners

By United Press International The nation's top 10 college football teams, reeling under a staggering wave of upsets, virtually collapsed Saturday with only two teams — Texas and Wisconsin — scoring victories among the select group.

Texas set the pace for the entire day when the Longhorns, No. 2 in the nation, throttled top-ranked Oklahoma's potent rushing offense for a surprisingly decisive 26-7 victory. The Texas line, led by tackle Scott Appleton, didn't permit the Sooners to cross midfield until midway through the third period and by that time quarterback Duke Carlisle had directed the Longhorns to a 21-0 lead.

Texas gamed marked by meager use of the forward pass. The Longhorns completed only one of three, but that was good for a fourth quarter touchdown. Oklahoma's ball-control tactics were completely stopped by Texas, which entered the game a 3-point underdog.

Alabama, the nation's third-ranked team, fell before Florida, 10-6. The Gators, listless in three previous contests, were 8-point underdogs to the Crimson Tide but Florida quickly demonstrated superiority with a first period field goal by Bob Lyle. Dick Kirk provided the victory margin with a 41-yard scoring sprint in the fourth quarter as Alabama suffered only its second defeat in three years.

Illinois, for many years a Big Ten also-ran, rallied for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to take a momentary lead but Dick VanRaaphorst booted a 49-yard field goal to give seventh-ranked Ohio State a 20-20 tie. VanRaaphorst's three-point-er, a Big Ten record, was his second of the day.

In the east's top contest, Army bounced eighth-ranked Penn State from the ranks of the unbeaten with a 10-7 win that marked the Cadets' third consecutive upset defeat of the Nittany Lions. Army overpowered Penn State for 220 yards on the ground and Dick Heydt provided the victory margin with a 32-yard field goal.

Hard-luck Notre Dame, which had lost both its previous games in the fourth quarter, turned on ninth-ranked Southern California for a final-period field goal by Ken Ivan to dump the Trojans, 17-14.

Terry Isaacson fired a 38-yard touchdown pass to end Fritz Greenlee to lift the Air Force to a 17-13 upset of Nebraska, the No. 10 team in the country. Isaacson's winning toss occurred with fewer than three minutes remaining on the clock.

Fifth-ranked Wisconsin restored some measure of balance to the scrambled football picture with a 38-20 rout of tough Purdue in the Big Ten opener for both teams. Junior quarterback Harold Brandt completed 14 of 22 passes as the Badgers took a big step toward their second consecutive conference championship.

Sixth-ranked Navy was upset by Southern Methodist, 32-28, Friday night while Pittsburgh, No. 4, was idle.

Upsets, however, were not restricted to the top 10. Winless Washington finally became untracked and routed previously undefeated Oregon State, 34-7. Kansas, an 11-point favorite fell before Iowa State, 17-14. Michigan battled 8-point favorite Michigan State to a 7-7 tie and California deadlocked heavily-favored Duke, 22-22. Tommy Myers hurled two last-quarter touchdown passes to lead Northwestern over Minnesota, 15-0, in the nationally televised game and Iowa mauled Indiana, 37-28, in another Big Ten clash.

Yale furnished the Ivy league surprise of the day when the Elis upended Columbia, 19-7. Princeton and Dartmouth scored victories to remain in a first-place tie. The Tigers ripped Pennsylvania, 34-0, on the power running of Cosmo Jacavazzi and Dartmouth survived a fourth period rally to top Brown, 14-7. Harvard bottled up Cornell's Gary Wood to defeat the Big Red, 21-14, in the only other Ivy contest.

Berry Passes Riddle Idaho, Ducks Post Third Win, 41-21

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Quarterback Bob Berry riddled Idaho's defenses with his sharp passing Saturday as Oregon rolled to its third straight football victory, 41-21.

Berry completed 9 of 11 passes for 186 yards, including long scoring strikes of 39 yards to end Rich Schwab and 57 yards to halfback Mel Renfro.

Oregon, playing before a crowd of 19,200 that included New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, broke the game open in the second quarter after the underdog Idaho team fought to first quarter 7-7 standoff.

Berry's two touchdown passes and a 10-yard run by fullback Lu Bain gave the Ducks a 28-7 halftime lead. Bain had scored their first period touchdown on a 9-yard sweep around left end. Halfback Larry Hill got the other two Oregon scores in the second half, one on a 4-yard run and the other on a 35-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

Idaho, behind quarterback Gary Mires, moved 71 yards in 18 plays for its first touchdown. Mires scored it from a yard out.

The Vandals' second half scoring came on a 19-yard pass from reserve quarterback Mike Monahan to halfback Bill Scott and a 1-yard plunge by halfback Rick Naccarato.

The final touchdown came late in the game against Oregon's third and fourth stringers.

South's Eighth Trims Hedrick

South Trims Pass eighth grade defeated Hedrick of Medford 19 to 7 in Friday football. South scored on two passes, Steve Endicott to Bruce Fry, for 50 and 78 yards and on a 25-yard John Hurd run. Pruitt ran an extra point.

For Hedrick Lynn Wood touchdown on 55-yard gallop and Gary Van Laningham ran the bonus.

Jerry Yeend was defensive standout for Hedrick.

Renfro, the Ducks' versatile All-American, switched to quarterback for one series in the third quarter — the first time he has played there since he was in high school.

Renfro moved his team to two first downs and completed his first two passes but a double reverse play on fourth down fell a yard short. Berry came back in for one more offensive series and reserve Jack Sovereign came in.

Renfro tried an extra point after the final Oregon touchdown but it was blocked.

Oregon now has a 3-1 record for the season, having lost its opener to Penn state. Idaho is 2-2.

Huskies Explode for 34-7 Win Over Hapless Beavers

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—Washington's long-dormant offense exploded like typhoon Freda on the first anniversary of the great Pacific Northwest wind storm Saturday and practically blew Oregon State out of the stadium as the Huskies rolled up an easy 34-7 victory over previously unbeaten Beavers.

Oregon State did not score until the last play of the game. Tiny Steve Bramwell set the Husky fireworks off in the second period when he returned Len Prketchuk's punt 92 yards for a touchdown.

The 154-pound halfback bobbed the punt on his own eight-yard line, but scooped up the ball and headed downfield as the crowd of 53,700 roared.

Cleared Track A shattering block by reserve center Fred Frosberg on the Husky 20 cleared the track for Bramwell.

Bramwell was a thorn in OSU's side all afternoon, bringing the crowd to its feet again with one dash of 26 yards and two 14-yard rambles. But he never was able to get loose for another scoring run. Bramwell was not the only Washington hero of the day. Fullback Charlie Browning smashed over for two scores with plunges of four and two yards.

Quarterback Bill Douglas passed 23 yards to Ralph Winters for Washington's fourth touchdown and set up both of Browning's scoring runs with passes to Al Libke, a reserve quarterback who functioned as an end on both plays.

Washington's last score came on a 40-yard pass from Todd Hullin, a signal caller seeing action for the first time, to end Joe Mancuso.

Guard Rick Redman was the standout on Washington's defense. He made 12 tackles, caused one Oregon fumble and punched four times for an average of better than 41 yards.

Swept End Oregon State's second-string quarterback Warren Woodworth kept the Beavers from being shut out when he swept left end for 15 yards to cap a 70-yard scoring drive against a team of Husky benchwarmers.

Washington looked like it was up to its old tricks, which resulted in three consecutive losses this season, when Browning fumbled on Oregon State's nine after the Huskies had moved 61 yards with the opening kickoff, but that was the last time the Huskies looked bad Saturday.

Oregon State's vaunted quarterback, Gordon Queen, was check-mated. He completed five of only 11 passes for 67 yards.

Hedrick 9th Halts South Team 25-6

Hedrick Junior high ninth grade football Hornets literally swarmed over the South Grants Pass Trojans here on Friday afternoon and, with good scoring punch and fine defensive work, stung the Climate city boys 25-6.

Hornet scores came in the first three quarters. They went scoreless in the fourth.

Quarterback Bill Atwood passed for two touchdowns, ran for one TD himself and passed for Hedrick's only conversion. Atwood fired to Tom Jackson for a 65 yard touchdown stab on the third play of the game. He hit Phil Hackworth for the conversion.

John Tomlin scored Hedrick's second TD on an end run good for 23 yards.

Halfway through the second period the Hornets penetrated to the Grants Pass nine yard line. Unable to score by running, Atwood went to the air and once more found Hackworth in the end zone.

Hedrick's last TD was set up by Doug Johanson, who showed fine running ability along with Hackworth. Atwood then plunged over from three yards out for the score.

South's lone touchdown was in the fourth panel with a sustained march good for 47 yards. Backs John Beckwith, Monte Fairchild and Bill Johnston were the main ball packers during this march. Johnston was able to score from three yards out. The GP conversion try failed. Only other GP threat came in the second quarter when they reached the Hornet 25 yard line. Hedrick then put a halt to this drive with fine defensive play.

First downs favored South 10 to seven.

Grade School Football. Doing a good job for the Hornets on defense were Bob Kagy, Bill Parke, Phil Hackworth and Doug Johanson.
