

These seven young Rogue valley women are among the 14 new and transfer members announced last week by Medford Junior Service League. Pictured are (front row, left to right) Mrs. John Ness, Mrs. Arthur Ekerson, Mrs. John Cooney and Mrs. James Armon, Ashland; and (back row, left to right) Mrs. F. H. Bogard, Mrs. William Singler and Mrs. David Engleson. Mrs. Ekerson was Sandra Nichols before her marriage and Mrs. Cooney is the former Eleanor McCabe. The Junior Service League's main project is operation of a kindergarten for children with speech and hearing difficulties.

Relatives, Friends Here For Bagwell-Hewitt Rites

A number of relatives and friends of Miss Rosalie Hewitt and Edward Bagwell are in Medford this week end to attend the couple's wedding which is set for today at 3 p.m., in Friends church. Miss Hewitt is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, 295 De Barr avenue and the bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bagwell, Roseburg. Among the bride's relatives and friends here are Barbara and Brad Hewitt, San Jose, Calif., who will serve as flower girl and ring bearer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Willows, Calif., an uncle and aunt, Mrs. Bertha Hewitt, an aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Rugey, cousins, all Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Christianson, Eugene. Mrs. Christianson is to attend the bride. The bridegroom's parents entertained last evening in the home of the bride's parents, following the wedding rehearsal.

Medford Junior Service league honored founders, new members and transfer members at the annual Founders' luncheon Thursday at Rogue Valley Country club. Included among the new members and transfers are (left to right, front row) Mrs. Dom Provost Jr., Ashland, Mrs. Richard Sault, Mrs. Robert Lindstrom, Mrs. James P. Shoemaker, and Mrs. Jack Dumas, and (back row, left to right) Mrs. Robert Buck, a transfer from Portland, and Mrs. John Parker, a transfer from Eugene. Mrs. Provost is the former Joyce Bearden, and Mrs. Shoemaker is the former Tanya Trowbridge.

Two Groups To Sponsor Speaker

Leonard Meeker, Washington, D.C., deputy legal adviser for the department of state and former legal adviser for United Nations affairs, will speak at several events in the Rogue valley October 25. At noon he will speak at a luncheon under the auspices of the Ashland Soroptimist club at the Mark Antony hotel. From 2 until 3 p.m. he will speak at an assembly at Southern Oregon college. A meeting sponsored by the Jackson County unit, United Nations association, and the Medford League of Women Voters will be held that evening at Chuck's Wagon in Medford. Dinner will begin at 6 p.m., followed by the talk from 7 to 8 and a question and answer period. Chairman of the event is Roy Neal, Ashland. Questions for Mr. Meeker are being encouraged in advance of his arrival. They may be sent to Mrs. Odgen Kellogg, Sardinia Creek road, Gold Hill, or Mrs. Neal, 310 Bridge street, Ashland. Earlier in the day Mr. Meeker will appear on valley radio and television.

November Date Is Announced

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Lou Bohl to John Casey, has been announced by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Grace Bohl, 38 North Oakdale avenue, Medford. Mr. Casey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Casey, Phoenix, Ariz. The wedding has been planned for November 29 in First Church of the Nazarene, Stockton, Calif. Miss Bohl was graduated from Medford High school and Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa, Ida., where she received a degree in home economics. She also attended Oregon state university, where she obtained her teaching certificate. She has been a homemaking instructor at Manteca, Calif., Union High school, for the past two years. The bridegroom-elect is an English instructor at Franklin High school, Stockton. He received his masters degree in education administration from Arizona State college in Tempe, Ariz. He has served two years in the Army.

One-Man Art Show Opens In Gallery at Ashland

ASHLAND—A one-man show beginning Tuesday evening, October 15, and continuing for a month in the gallery of Frames etc., 1951 Highway 66, is to feature the work of Jack Teeters, southern Oregon artist. Mr. Teeters will have no exhibition watercolors, easel oil, drawings and sculpture. Unique among his designs are wood-carvings from driftwood and native Oregon myrtlewood. In such pieces he follows the character of the wood with interesting results. His versatility has won recognition in many art exhibits, among them the statewide show of 1961 in which he won honorable mention, the Shakespearean Art exhibit where he was awarded first place in sculpture, and numerous other juried exhibits. Mr. Teeters was active in organizing the Rogue Valley Art association and is one of the Southern Oregon artists whose works have been sent to Medford's Sister City, Alba, Italy. The Tuesday evening reception at Frames etc from 8 to 10 o'clock is open to the public.

Judith Ann Gebhard

Holiday Rites Set For Couple

CENTRAL POINT—Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Gebhard, 5098 Gebhard road, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Judith Ann Gebhard, to John T. Burns Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Burns, 45 Mace road, Medford. Miss Gebhard is a 1963 graduate of Crater High school. Her fiancé is a 1963 graduate of the University of Oregon and is attending the University of Oregon Dental school in Portland. The wedding date has been set for December 21.

Sojourners Set Card Party Event

Medford Sojourners will hold their semi-annual evening card party for members and husbands Saturday evening, October 26. A potluck dinner will precede the party. Executive board members will be hostesses for the event, to be held in the Girls Community club. Sixty-two women attended the club meeting October 10. The Halloween motif was used for decorations combined with fall flower arrangements. Hostesses were Mrs. I. W. Housechild, Mrs. Arthur Backlund and Mrs. Joseph Kuemin. Mrs. John Nolan was introduced as a guest. Mrs. Virgil Perry, Mrs. Gertrude Roper and Mrs. Loretta Gardner were prospective members. A prize was won by Mrs. Mabel Wright. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Bernice Rice, and Mrs. Zoe Stevens. Canasta was won by Mrs. Grace Todd and Mrs. Carrie Walter and pinocle prizes were taken by Mrs. Pat Retzer and Mrs. Hannah Cyrus.

Thespian Troupe Plays For Season Are Listed

Plays to be given this season by Medford High school Thespian troupe have been announced by the advisor, Mrs. Lenore Zapell, who also will direct the productions. The continuation of a season ticket sale also has been announced. The purchase of a season ticket will entitle the holder to attend a performance of each troupe production in the coming year. This also entitles the ticket holder to a reserved seat upon advanced request at no extra charge. Tickets may be purchased from Thespian members at Room 61 at Medford High school. Proceeds from season ticket sales are used for the Thespian College Scholarship fund. At the present time the recipient of the first scholarship provided by the troupe is enrolled as a freshman at Southern Oregon college. This year's Thespian season will include the following productions, "Inherit the Wind" by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, the controversial dramatization of the famed Scopes "Monkey Trial" of 1925. This will be presented November 21, 22, 23 at 8 p.m. The second production will be a Classic Reader's Theatre presentation on February 6, 7, 8. The advanced Drama class will then stage a Children's Theatre production of Charlotte B. Chorpenning's Rumpelstiltskin, the classic fairy tale about the evil little elf and the beautiful Miller's daughter, to be presented April 3 and 4. The troupe's final production of the season will be an extensive Arena staging of Shakespeare's most delightful comedy, "Twelfth Night," which will be presented May 7, 8, and 9. All productions will be directed by Mrs. Zapell. The reader's presentation and "Twelfth Night" will be presented in the "Theatre 61," or the Arena. "Rumpelstiltskin" and "Inherit the Wind" will be staged in the Medford Senior High School auditorium.

Yreka Women Attend Meet

YREKA—Mrs. Roger Kitta, president of the Yreka Business and Professional Women's club, accompanied by Mrs. James LeBaron, treasurer, and Miss Margaret C. Williams, a member, attended the fall conference of the Northern district, California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, incorporated, held at Richardson Springs, Chico BPOC was the hostess club. Featured speaker was the state president, Mrs. Ruth Church Gupta.

Meeting Slated For Alpha Phis

Alpha Phi Southern Oregon Alumnae club will meet Monday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James D. Coleman, 1648 Woodlawn drive. All alumnae of the sorority are invited to attend. JACKSONVILLE—A daret Past Matrons club women are to meet for a salad luncheon Monday, October 14 at 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Don Shores, 88 Oakgrove road. Mrs. Clare Shores will be cohostess.

Advertisement for 'FURS BY Samuel' featuring services like storage, remodeling, repairs, cleaning, and glazing. Located in the Medford Shopping Center.

Large advertisement for 'SALE! START TODAY TO END DRY SKIN WITH HELENA RUBINSTEIN'S SKIN DEW SET'. Includes product images and pricing for introductory and full sets.

Women Make Tour Abroad

Mrs. John E. Myers, 4425 Hillinger road, returned October 5 from a three week vacation in Greece, Italy, France and England. Mrs. Myers joined her aunt, Mrs. Doris K. Budrow, in Los Angeles and from there flew to London via the polar route. Most of their time was spent in Greece from where they embarked on a short cruise of the Greek islands in the Aegean sea. Leaving Athens they returned to Rome, Paris and London.

Bulb Planting Club Program

Bulbs to be planted for spring flowers, and rock gardens were the program subjects for the Little Garden Club of Medford October 9 when members met in the home of Mrs. Walter Marquess, Anderson Creek road, Talent. The hostess gave the program. Mrs. Gail Stalcup and Mrs. Richard Klimek were guests. Next club meeting will be in the evening, November 13 in the home of Mrs. Herb Vallee, 724 Alder street. The program will be on making Christmas corsages.

Pre-Wedding Event Given

Miss Sharon Urie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Urie, 820 East Main street, was honored at a bridal shower given recently by Miss Marilyn Barker, in her home at 847 South Holly street. Miss Barker was assisted for the event by her mother, Mrs. Ray Barker.

Guests Leave For Tacoma

PHOENIX—Recent houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stancliffe, 115 Third street, Phoenix, were Mrs. Stancliffe's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gary A. Denzer, McChord Air Force base, Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Denzer is a pilot in the Military Air Transport service. The couple was in the valley for 10 days.

Large advertisement for 'Diamond Shipment from South Africa Arrives in MEDFORD on October 16'. Includes a map showing the flight path from Johannesburg to the United States and text about the shipment of unset diamonds.

Advertisement for 'Lawrence's' diamonds, featuring the slogan 'Here Is Your Opportunity To Be The FIRST To Individually Own and Wear A VIRGIN DIAMOND!' and an image of a diamond box.

Advertisement for 'Hallmark SHOP EARLY SHOP IN LEISURE SHOP NOW' featuring Christmas cards and gifts, with a 'Swem's BOOKS • GIFTS • RECORDS' logo at the bottom.