

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Alfred Coke (Knackstedt photo)

Newlyweds Now Home After Trip to Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Alfred Coke are living at 542 Oak street, Ashland, following their wedding trip to San Francisco, Carson City and Reno. Their wedding took place September 29 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in Mountain View Wedding chapel, Ashland. The bride, the former Miss Nancy Jane Lusk is a daughter of Mrs. Daisy Lusk, 510 North Bartlett street, Medford, and Leslie E. Lusk, Ashland.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Robert Coke, Valley View, Ashland, and the late Mr. Coke. The Rev. E. E. Crawford, minister of the Church of Nazarene, officiated for the double ring rites attended by about 100 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by L. J. Cox, wore a ballerina length satin gown with lace bodice and jeweled sweetheart neckline. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried an orchid and stephanotis bouquet.

Sister is Attendant Mrs. Calvin Pfaff, Ashland, a sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a lavender chiffon frock and her bouquet was a nosegay of white carnations.

Mrs. Robert E. Davis, Sacramento, Calif., a sister of the bride, lighted the candles. Her sheath dress was in lavender brocade and her nosegay was of white carnations.

Jill Pfaff, Ashland, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and the rings were carried by Daniel Eugene Davis, Sacramento, a nephew of the bride.

Mr. Pfaff, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Rodney Fuller and Ted Kinney, both Ashland, seated the guests.

Mrs. C. M. Litwiller was organist and Mrs. Lucille Mackay sang.

Baskets of lavender, yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the chapel.

The bride's mother wore a pink and gold knit suit with gold hat and brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a beige afternoon frock with navy blue accessories. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

The bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories for the wedding trip.

Grandparents Attend

Among the guests were grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peebler, Phoenix, Ore. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coke, and Mrs. Gertrude Dugan, Corning, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Davis and daughter, Becky, Grants Pass; Weldon Heard, Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis and sons, Sacramento.

The bride and bridegroom are Ashland high school graduates. The bridegroom is employed by Standard Oil company, Medford.

Visit Son

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wood, Van Nuys, Calif., are visiting their son, F. B. Liddell, 712 South Newtown street. The Woods will also visit other relatives and friends in the valley. The couple recently attended the national Townsend convention in Chicago, the tenth annual convention in which they have taken part since 1948.

Reception Is Given By Daughters

New members of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Mary, were honored recently at a reception at the Knights of Columbus hall, Black Oak drive. The entire court attended 8:15 a.m. mass then went to breakfast at the hall with Wilson Edinger as chairman.

New members include Mrs. E. H. Slight, Mrs. Bernard Stromberg, Miss Grace Stuhr, Mrs. Alma Andrews, Mrs. Marcella Sertac, Mrs. Thomas Brauner, Mrs. Edward Dandurand, Mrs. Alma Farra, Miss Dorothy Salarmeau, Mrs. Mariann Glidden, Mrs. Claude Hall Jr., Mrs. Patrick McMullen, Mrs. M. J. Olsen, Mrs. Donald Rippey, Mrs. Wallace Ross and Mrs. Paul Sakraida.

Miss Anne Erwert, Mt. Angel, district deputy, spoke as did Mrs. Elmer Ness, Medford, state secretary.

Twenty-one members of the court in Klamath Falls attended and invited Court St. Mary to their reception for new members in Klamath Falls October 28.

A party for members and their husbands is planned at the local hall October 19. At a recent meeting of the court, Edward Branchfield, Medford lawyer and Jackson county state representative, spoke on the tax referendum which will be voted on Tuesday, October 15.

Refreshments were served.

Security Club Masquerade Event Slated

A Security Benefit club masquerade party and dance has been announced for Friday, October 18 in the Pythian building. Dancing will be conducted from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight and lunch will be served at 10 p.m. A nominal charge will be made and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Name cards for members are available, with James Grissom in charge of this project, officers announce. Mrs. Pearl Spackman and Mrs. Walter Krug are assisting.

The club meets in the same building each Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., with luncheon at noon.

Twin Sister, Brother Attend Pair

When Miss Marcene Rae Eaden, Portland, because the bride of the Rev. Ned Stuart Landers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landers, 840 Marshall avenue, September 28 in Barton, Ore., the twin sister of the bride and the bridegroom's twin brother were in the wedding party.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Eaden, Oregon City. Mr. Landers is minister of the Conservative

Baptist church in Crescent, Ore. More than 350 relatives and friends attended the double ring rites at Barton Community Baptist church. The Rev. Donald R. Baker, Milwaukie, officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites. Miss Nancy Thompson played two harp selections. Mrs. Wilford Bristlin was organist and accompanied the two soloists, Miss Sonja Miller and the Rev. Robert Compton.

Wears Lace The bride wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with scalloped neckline, long sleeves and gathered skirt. The neckline was accented with pearls and sequins and the back of the skirt formed a tiered chapel train. Her veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white split carnations and pink rosebuds. She also carried a white Mexican lace handkerchief which the bridegroom's mother had carried at her wedding.

Mrs. James F. High, Portland, was matron of honor for her twin sister. Other attendants were Mrs. David Whitehead, Portland, and Mrs. Ted Landers, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Alice Ellen Eaden, sister of the bride. They wore flamingo pink chiffon frocks over matching taffeta with matching headresses which held veils. Their bouquets were of white carnations and pink gladioli.

Flower girl was Lorie Bristlin, Oregon City, cousin of the bride. She wore a white brocade satin dress with pink chiffon overskirt. Candlelighters were Andrea Bristlin, Oregon City, another cousin, and Ramona Kuhlman. Their frocks matched the flower girl's.

Brother Best Man The Rev. Ted Landers, Portland, the bridegroom's twin, was best man. Seating the guests were Warren Bottemiller, Milwaukie; Rogers Murray, Tygh Valley, Ore., cousin of the bridegroom; and Randi Bristlin, Oregon City, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship hall at the church.

Mrs. Eaden chose a pink lace dress with briar rose accessories and flowers for her daughter's wedding and reception. Mrs. Landers wore a gold lame dress with beige accessories. Her flowers were talismans roses.

The couple are making their home at Crescent, Ore., following their return from a wedding trip to Canada. For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with beige accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Emanuel Hospital school of nursing. Mr. Landers attended Southern Oregon college and Western Baptist Theological Seminary, Portland.

Among the guests from Medford who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Landers, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. L. Gober, and Tom Eslinger. Former Medford residents included Mrs. Edward Stauffer, Mrs. Tyley Evans, and Richard and Tylene Evans, Prineville, Ore.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ned Stuart Landers (Bruno photo)

World Community Day Observance Is Planned

"Nation Building a Channel to Peace" is theme for this year's World Community day observance for Medford Council of Church Women which will be conducted November 1 in St. Mark's Episcopal church. Mrs. John Hall, Ascension Lutheran church is chairman for the observance and executive board members met during the week to formulate plans.

Yreka Women's Group Opens Fall Season

YREKA — A dinner served recently in the Elks hall opened the fall season for the Lady Elks. Twenty-five members and guests attended. Mrs. Charles Hurley, Mrs. Eric Schoonmaker and Mrs. Gene Cordes were hostesses.

Mrs. Zane Fleishman, president conducted a meeting when plans were made to help serve a city council dinner, to assist with a Roaring Twenties party in November and to arrange the annual Elks Christmas party.

Mrs. John Ravenscroft, Mrs. Ross Bigler, Mrs. John A. Morgan and Mrs. Hugh O'Dell, guests, were introduced by their hostesses.

Lady Elks officers for the 1963-64 season are Mrs. Fleishman, president; Mrs. Edwin Loudon, vice president; Mrs. John A. Clark, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Sunshine chairman.

Yreka Lodge Sets Membership Drive

YREKA — Hope Rebekah lodge women made plans for a membership drive at their recent meeting, the drive to continue for the next six months. A contest will be conducted, the losing group to entertain the winners.

Final plans also were made for a trip by lodge members to Dunsuir, on October 23. The members voted to attend as a group a Rebekah meeting October 3 in Mount Shasta, when the grand assembly president was to make an official visit to the Rebekah lodge there.

Kindergarten Teachers Plan Monday Session

The next fall meeting of the Southern Oregon chapter of the Association for Nursery Education will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Ashby, 830 Bennett street, at 7:30, Monday, October 14.

Miss Gladys Durrand, elementary school supervisor, will be the main speaker. Her topic will be, "What we should and should not do in kindergarten." Dr. Phyllis Butler, a member of Southern Oregon college faculty, will speak on "Standards."

The meeting is open to teachers, directors, and owners of all classifications of schools and organizations that are concerned with the welfare and education of the pre-school child.

Each person attending is to take a sample of crafts to share or any new idea for the Halloween and Thanksgiving seasons.

Central Point Club To Meet

CENTRAL POINT—Past Matrons club for Nevita chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet for their first fall session Wednesday, October 16 at 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Paul Snook, Shady Cove.

A salad luncheon will be served. Mrs. Wyles Berry is to assist Mrs. Snook. Mrs. Juanita McKibben, president, will preside.

Exciting chapters of the best-selling Rambler story ...by Florsheim

To so many women, the Florsheim Rambler is not only a shoe... but a friendly, comfortable way of life! Soft, low-heeled, flexible... slips into one's daily routine as easily as it slips onto your foot.

'16's to '19's

Burelson's Shoe Salon

YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT INVITED!

Main and Bartlett Sts.

Phone 772-6428

Burelson's

Downtown Medford

Burelson's Exclusively! a "look-lively" costume of double-knit ...jacket brass-buttoned, snappily detailed... overblouse plaid, shaped by handmacher

Choose yours from a wonderful collection in sizes 8 to 20.

One Shown in Red $65.95

Sizes 10 to 14

PRESSING while you wait! Made-to-order face powder pressed in a compact as you watch. $2.50 plus tax.

Vee Halgren Consultant

A Smart Hat Makes for the Perfect Compliment!

October 25, 26, 27 Medford Armory

Fashions From Burelson's A combination rummage sale, food sale, plant sale, bazaar, art show and fun fair for community benefit and for the benefit of the kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.

Sponsored By Junior Service League

Your Charge Account Invited! Ride 'n Shop Member!

Main and Bartlett Streets

Downtown Medford

Phone 772-6428

MEMO
Bring your next Prescription to Our Pharmacy
FAST, FRIENDLY SERVICE
Over 300,000 people have trusted us with their prescriptions! Let WAINSCOTT'S price your next prescription.
WAINSCOTT'S PHARMACY
Corner East Main at Riverside
Phone 773-8447
Free Delivery
STORE HOURS
Weekdays 8 A.M. to 10 P.M.
Sundays and Holidays 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.