Council Ponders Problem Of New Activity Center

Plans are under way by the Rogue Valley Council on Aging, several valley civic groups and the Medford parks department to obtain a new location and larger building for the Senior Activity center.
 Two meetings were held last week attended by more than 20 members to inspect a site which has been offered for use as a center. Attending the meetings were members of the executive board, Fifty Plus club and city officials.
 Mrs. Edith Brandenburg, 33 South Groveland avenue, will show slides of Switzerland, Holland and Norway to the Arm Chair Travelers Monday, October 14, at 1:30 p.m. at the center, 601 East Jackson street.
 Mrs. Bandenburg is an active member of the Spanish class as well as the Travelers group since she moved to Medford.
Publish Schedule
 The new fall and winter schedules have been published with nine different groups meeting at the center each week in addition to the Senior Craftsman project called Evergreen Crafts.
 Two of the groups, copper tooling and Singing Seniors, are organized but do not have instructors. The copper tooling class would be held Tuesday mornings and the singing group on Sunday afternoon. The committee would like to contact a retired man now living in Phoenix who has offered to supervise copper and leather tooling classes but whose name and address is not known. Persons who wish to volunteer to instruct either of these groups may telephone Mrs. Fred Rankin, 772-8448.
 The center, which is free to all persons over 50 years of age, is managed by hosts and hostesses from each activity. Mrs. Lillian Greenman and Mrs. K. J. Knutson serve on Mondays for travelers group from 1 to 3 p.m.; Mrs. Richard Price for knitting from 3 to 5 p.m., Monday; Mrs. Hermine Beucema for copper tooling from 10 a.m. to noon

West Side Club Meets Speaker

"How To Live With Your Children" was the topic of guest speaker Dr. Phyllis Butler, professor of educational psychology of Southern Oregon college, when she addressed West Side Mothers' club in the school cafeteria, October 10. An open discussion followed.
 During the business meeting, Mrs. Arthur St. Germain, chairman in charge of arrangements, announced that a school skating party will be held Tuesday, October 22.
 Mrs. Lee Niedermeyer, Mrs. Gary Adkins and Mrs. Arthur Chipman served refreshments.
 Seven to 10 per cent of the retail cost of food goes into packaging.

WCTU Delegate To Make Report

Mrs. G. O. Sanden will report on the annual Woman's Christian Temperance union state convention held recently in Cannon Beach, at a meeting of the Medford Union on Thursday, October 17, at 1:30 p.m. in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church.
 Mrs. Robert Bridge will have charge of devotions, and Mrs. Robert Randle will review an article entitled, "Prayer and Appeal," which appeared in a recent issue of the Union Signal, the WCTU official paper.
 Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Sixteen inches more... that's all!

Sixteen inches more... that's all, but what a difference these 16" make. They change the era of the short evening dress which has reigned more than ten years, back to the regal elegance of yesterday.

The dress for evening is long, and has an entirely new look. The time of great fullness is reversed; gone are the bouffancy and the fluff, the long dress skims the body in straight clean lines.

New is the infinite simplicity close to pure classic in feeling! The long gown is shaped to the silhouette so the modern lady sweeps into the room, and the elongated lines give a beauty almost unreal in its lightness.

High waisted effects and deep décolletages give an incomparable grace to the silhouette, evoking the charms of the past century. To allow sitting and dancing skirts are slim and slit, domed or shaped. In contrast to the simple lines designers have discovered the richness of new and exciting materials to create the spirit of feminine elegance.

We at La Pointe's welcome the return of the long dress which makes you sweep into a room, not stride. We welcome the rediscovery of evening elegance. The start of your social season requests your visit to La Pointe's tomorrow.

Women Guests In Shady Cove

Shady Cove — A group of six members from the Rogue River Lions auxiliary were guests at the last meeting of the Shady Cove - Trail Lions auxiliary.
 Mrs. Cloyd Dick, one of the visitors, announced that a district institute for the blind will be held in Rogue River Saturday, October 26, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The institute is in the nature of a workshop to acquaint the parents of pre-school age blind children with the problems and educational practices concerning the blind child.
 Mrs. Curtis Mason of the Shady Cove - Trail auxiliary reported on a district workshop which she and the club president, Mrs. Donald Harmon, attended recently in Roseburg, Ore.
