Phoenix Overcomes St. Mary's 20-0 In Rogue League Tussle

PHOENIX — It was a rough week end in southern Oregon for No. 1 rated high school football teams.

But, the Phoenix Pirates, held scoreless in a dogged defensive first half here Saturday night, generated third and fourth period touchdowns and scored on an intercepted pass to overcome the fired up St. Mary's high Crusaders.

Phoenix, top-ranked among A-2 schools in the state, turned back the challenge of the Medford aggregation 20-0 in Rogue league competition.

Jim Consbruck barged seven yards for the first counter of the Buccaneers. Ron Williams streaked 26 yards on a keeper. Then, Jon Granby, on the dead run, snared a pass by St. Mary's John Batzer and blazed 40 yards to the goal.

Share With IV The Pirates are now 5-0 for the season and 3-0 in the league to share the lead with Illinois Valley. St. Mary's 1-3 in the loop, has a two-win, two-loss, one tie season record.

A 48-yard push gained the opening TD for the Pirates. Eight scrimmage plays were used along with a 15-yard personal foul penalty against St. Mary's. Consbruck packed five times along the way, Granby twice and Williams once.

The might which has given Phoenix its No. 1 reputation was paraded in the final period on the 93-yard drive for the second marker. Dennis Grennan was the workhorse and bread and butter player of this promenade, packing the pigskin in eight of the 14 goal-bound plays. Four first downs were chalked up on the march.

Granby's interception was on the first play after the kickoff following. He picked off the ball as Batzer threw from behind his 44.

Had To Prove It The Crusaders paid little respect to the honors bestowed upon the Pirates by the pollsters. They made the Buccaneers prove it. Except on the drives which brought touchdowns, Phoenix got no closer than the 31 to the SM goal. Bud defense proved even tougher. Deepest SM penetration was to the Phoenix 36-yard line.

Neither club threatened seriously in the first half. Over the last two panels, the Crusaders, who sought to make the air game go on most of their scrimmage plays, were held to minus rushing yardage.

St. Mary's mustered no consistent drive except on its opening series with the ball. But, the Medfords were much in the contest until the Pirates, at last really branding their power, touchdown with 2:18 left in the skirmish. And, Granby's steal and run was the clincher.

Penalties Charged Three 15-yard penalties in the third periods were given to the Crusaders, the one giving impetus toward the first Phoenix counter and the other two monkey wrenching St. Mary's own operation. Phoenix itself was assessed a pair of 15-yarders about this time — one on the first play of the final stanza. St. Mary's missed a chance to take advantage of the first of these two Pirate infractions by losing the ball on a fumble.

It was signed right at the start Saturday night that Phoenix might have tough going. Consbruck fumbled on first two Phoenix attack series and both times Crusaders recovered. Miscues twice, also cost St. Mary's possession of the ball.

Aside from Rogue league significance, this engagement was a sort of civil war — a "little big game" between schools of this area. St. Mary's, while in the Medford city limits, is just inside the Phoenix school district.

St. Mary's Reason "When you don't look like we should, there's usually a reason," said Coach Jack Woodward of the Pirates. "Saturday night the reason was St. Mary's. They defended us real well."

Woodward mentioned that St. Mary's "gambling that we wouldn't throw," put its 11 men up against the Pirate running attack. Phoenix got off only one pass. "We did not open them up enough," said the Pirate mentor. "They did a real job. They scrambled on defense and tackled well."

The two early fumbles took something out of our offense. The coach declared that Williams did a fine second half quarterbacking job. He found a vulnerable spot in the Crusader armor and he capitalized on it. "We got a better blocking job in the second half," also the tutor. "I thought Grennan did a fine job running," he added.

Woodward remarked that two easy games before the Pirates faced the Crusaders did not help at all. "We learned a lot of things last night," he reported

Lindsey On Mat Card Thursday

Luther Lindsey, ranked as one of the greatest colored wrestlers in the country, will make his first ring start since recovering from severe injuries received in an auto accident when he clashes with Don Duffy in the semi-final of next Thursday's card at Medford armory.

Duffy, the ill-tempered San Diego ruffian, vows that he will put Lindsey right back in the hospital. Duffy is still smarting over being beaten in his regulation match last week and then being eliminated in the battle royal.

The card will be headed by Tough Tony Borne and Nick Bockwinkle, a match demanded by the fans after their grueling encounter in the battle royal last week.

The curtain raiser, set for 8:30 p. m., will send Art (Boom Boom) Mahalik, former pro football star, against classy Dick Dunn.

Ringside reserved seat tickets are available at Lampert's Sporting Goods store in Medford.

Non-League Foes Drop Big Sixers

By SCOTT BAILLIE UPI Sports Writer That engaging ditty, "I Get a Kick Out of You," only registered a dull thud today with Southern California and Stanford who were wrecked by field goals last Saturday as Big Six football representatives again folded on the intersectional front.

A 33-yard field goal by sophomore Ken Ivan gave Notre Dame a 17-14 win over ninth-ranked Southern California and the first win of the season for the Fighting Irish. Then in Houston, Tex., namesake Larry Rice booted the Owls toward a 23-13 win over Stanford.

But California, which wasn't expected to do much against Duke, pulled out a 22-22 tie with the Blue Devils who missed three field goal attempts and were penalized a vital 15 yards when the kicking tee was thrown out at the wrong moment.

Saturday's Schedule Next Saturday's Coast schedule brings Ohio State to Southern California while UCLA is at Notre Dame, Stanford at Washington in the weekend's lone Big Six contest. San Jose State at California, Washington State at Oregon State, Oregon at Arizona, the University of the Pacific at Idaho and Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo at Fresno State.

After Syracuse had methodically worked over UCLA on Friday night, 29-7, Southern California ran into a band of fighting Irish at South Bend on Saturday led by Frank Budka, one of five Notre Dame quarterbacks.

Notre Dame took a one touchdown lead on Tom McDonald's 62-yard runback of a pass interception. Troy tied the score, 14-14 before the half, then were beaten in the last period on Ivan's field goal.

Stanford, which now has lost three in a row, held a seven-point lead at the half over Rice. But the Owls tied the score in the next period then cleaned up during the fourth on Rice's three-pointer followed by Dale Callahan's 45 yard touchdown run after he intercepted a pass by Dick Berg.

California, which didn't seem to belong on the same field with Duke early in the game, gained a 22-22 tie in the last quarter when quarterback Craig Morton fired a 31-yard pass to battery-mate Jack Schraub then flipped to Jerry Mosher for the deaocking two pointer.

Crucial Penalty With seconds left in the contest, the Blue Devils were penalized 15 yards from the Bear 13 to the 28 for coaching from the sidelines after the kicking tee was thrown out with the clock going.

San Jose State provided a good upset, defeating Washington State, 13-8, on Herb Engle's touchdown from one yard out with three minutes to play. The score came after the swift Clarence Williams of the Cougars had hustled over a two-point conversion for an 8-7 lead.

Western Loop Has Dead Heat By United Press International The Western Hockey League has completed its first week end of action and all six teams are still skating along in a dead heat.

Each team has played two games — and each team has one victory and one defeat. The defending champion San Francisco Seals, who had their home debut spoiled by the Los Angeles Blades Friday, handed Portland the same treatment Sunday night in the only contest scheduled.

The Buckaroos scored first, but couldn't get past San Francisco goalie Bob Perrault during the rest of the game as the Seals went on to win, 3-1. In Saturday's games, Seattle downed Vancouver, 8-3, and Denver whipped Los Angeles, 6-3.

LINEMAN OF THE WEEK SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jack Schraub, California end, has been named AAWU Lineman of the Week. The 6 foot 5 junior from Campbell, Calif., was named for his fine play in the 22-22 tie against Duke Saturday.

Brown Superb As Cleveland Tops Giants 35-24 In National League

By NORMAN MILLER UPI Sports Writer Mike Ditka did the job with his hands, Charley Johnson with his arm and Herb Adderley with his chest, but Jimmy Brown outdid them all with his incredible churning legs.

Brown was simply superb Sunday when he broke loose for two long third-period touchdowns that sent the Cleveland Browns on to a 35-24 victory over the New York Giants in their battle for first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football League. It was Cleveland's fifth win without a defeat.

Ditka caught four touchdowns passes as the Chicago Bears extended their record to 5-0 in the Western Division with a 52-14 rout of the winless Los Angeles Rams. Johnson helped the St. Louis Cardinals remain in contention behind the Browns when he completed two last-period touchdown passes, the winning one with six seconds left to play, in a 24-23 squeaker over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Blocked Field Goal And Adderley, a defensive back with a remarkable knack for hitting the headlines, blocked a potential game-winning field goal-try by the Minnesota Vikings, permitting teammate Hank Gremminger to pick up the loose ball and run 80 yards for a clinching touchdown as the defending champion Green Bay Packers won, 37-28.

Linebacker Chuck Howley was a hero in the Dallas Cowboys' first win of the season, intercepting two passes that set up a touchdown and field goal in a 17-14 upset victory over the Detroit Lions.

In the two other games, Sonny Jurgensen threw four touchdowns passes as the Philadelphia Eagles defeated the Washington Redskins, 37-24, and the Baltimore Colts sent the San Francisco Forty Niners down to their fifth straight defeat, 20-3.

A crowd of 62,966 in Yankee Stadium watched Jimmy Brown race 72 yards with a short screen pass on the Browns' first play in the third quarter and a few minutes later run 32 yards from scrimmage for a pair of touchdowns that sent Cleveland on to its come-from-behind win.

Gratifying Game Brown, who called this the most gratifying game he ever played against the Giants, gained 23 rushing yards in 23 carries and scored the Browns' opening touchdown on a short plunge. He now has gained a total of 787 yards and 10 touchdowns in the best start of his career.

Ditka caught three touchdown passes from Billy Wade and another from Rudy Bukich as the Bears handed the Rams their worst defeat since they transferred from Cleveland in 1946. The Bears intercepted six passes by Zeke Bratkowski and Terry Baker and also recovered two Los Angeles fumbles.

Johnson engineered the most spectacular rally of the day when he completed a 55-yard touchdown pass to Jackie Smith with 3:48 left to play and then hit Bobby Joe Conrad with a 28-yard scoring pass with six seconds remaining. In all, Johnson's passes gained 327 yards.

The Vikings, trailing the Packers 30-4 in the final period, narrowed that gap to two points. Fran Tarkenton passed 29 yards to Paul Flatley for one touchdown and then set up Bill Brown's one-yard touchdown plunge with two minutes remaining.

Interception Set Up TD At Dallas, Howley's first interception set up an 11-yard touchdown pass from Don Meredith to Franke Clarke and his second steal put the ball in position for Sam Baker's 13-yard field goal. Earl Morrall completed touchdown passes of 32 and 70 yards to Gail Cogdill in the final period, but in between these, Amos Marsh sprinted 41 yards for the Cowboys' winning touchdown.

The Eagles trailed Washington by 17 points in the first 20 minutes before coming to life. Tommy McDonald caught Jurgensen's last two touchdown passes and rookie Ron Goodwin and Tim Brown each grabbed one earlier. Jurgensen's passes gained 303 yards.

Cardinals remain in contention behind the Browns when he completed two last-period touchdown passes, the winning one with six seconds left to play, in a 24-23 squeaker over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

U.S. Scores 23-9 Ryder Cup Verdict

By DAVID M. MOFFITT UPI Sports Writer ATLANTA (UPI) — Arnold Palmer said today that despite the pro and con arguments about the difference in size in the U.S. and British balls, the biggest trouble with the Ryder Cup matches is too much golf in too short a time.

"I don't know of any other golf tournament which plays 36 holes a day for three straight days," Palmer, the U.S. team captain, complained. He suggested that the Ryder Cup matches should be stretched out to at least four days, perhaps with 18 holes each on Thursday and Friday and then 36 on Saturday and Sunday. It was hard to get agreement about the type of ball used by each team. Team member Gene Littler, whose 6 and 5 final day win over veteran Scotsman Tom Haliburton was the most lopsided match of 32, insisted the small ball hurt the British around the greens. But Palmer said it gave the British an advantage Sunday because of the wind.

No Complaints On Win Although Palmer complained about the amount of golf, he had no complaint about how his U.S. team fared in the three-day "grind" that ended Sunday evening at Bobby Jones' East Lake Country Club. The U.S. crushed the British 23 to 9 after turning the final afternoon's matches into a 7½ to ½ rout.

In fact, the U.S. never lost an afternoon match in the three days as they stormed to this country's 12th victory in the 15th biennial Ryder Cup matches. The British played the U.S. even in 16 morning rounds, winning six and halving four others for eight points.

But, as Palmer aptly put it, the U.S. warmed up with the sun and made a runaway of the 16 afternoon matches — winning 14 and halving the other two. The U.S. went into Sunday afternoon's final eight singles matches needing just one more victory to capture the solid gold Ryder Cup never won by the British in this country.

Littler, 33, had the honor of winning the decisive point as he all but ran the 48-year-old Haliburton off the course. He was 7 up after nine holes as he teared the front nine in a 5-and-par 32, took a bogey 5 on No. 11 for his only loss, then closed out the match on No. 13 — earliest end for any of this year's matches.

From that point on, it was merely a question of how badly the U.S. would beat the British. It was the biggest margin ever run up in the matches although the U.S. did win 11-1 back in 1947 when the matches were more limited. Two years ago, in England, when eight less foursomes were played, the U.S. won 14½ to 9½.

27 Horses Destroyed By Blaze

WESTBURY, N.Y. (UPI) — A full-scale investigation was continuing today into the causes of the Sunday morning fire which destroyed 27 horses at Roosevelt Raceway and caused an estimated $350,000 damage.

The blaze, which destroyed two barns, was the first at the harness racing track in 25 years. The park and its surrounding area were rebuilt at a cost of $20 million just six years ago and the barns were believed to be fireproof.

Heroic work by grooms who were sleeping in the barns saved the lives of many other horses and an alert fire department put the fast-spreading blaze under control before it could cause further damage.

No persons were injured. The cause of the fire is still undetermined. New York State Harness Racing Commissioner Robert A. Glasser summoned commission personnel to the scene and he placed them all at the disposal of the Nassau County authorities.

The dead horses belonged to the stables of trainer-drivers William Hudson, Howard Beisinger and Tony Abotello. Hudson was the hardest hit, losing 3 of his 15 standardbreds.

Wright Winner of Ladies PGA

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — The only trouble with the ladies PGA tour is the fact there isn't much competition around for San Diego's great athlete, Mickey Wright.

Miss Wright, as expected, wrapped up the $16,500 ladies' PGA championship at the Stardust course Sunday by coming from three strokes off the pace to win going away with a two-shot margin.

The victory did these things for the 28-year-old star's record: —Brought her $2,450 and boosted her earnings for this year to an all-time record of $26,600. —Set an all-time record for wins by PGA woman at 52. —Was her 13th victory out of 24 starts this year. —Gave her the PGA crown for the fourth time in the nine years it has been contested. She had a 72-hole score of 294 on the Stardust course that has a par of 284.

Tied for second place were National Open champion Mary Mills, Mary Lena Faulk and Louise Suggs, each with 296s, good for $1,533.33. Ruth Jessen, who set a course record of 67 on Friday, came next with 293 and collected $1,030.
