Delbert Landing To Reno Bank

Delbert T. Landing, campaign chairman of the United Crusade drive here for 1959-60, has been named assistant vice president of Security National bank in Reno, Nev.

Born in Ashland, Landing started his banking career there as a field representative for First National Bank of Oregon. He spent five years as assistant cashier in charge of the installment credit loan department of the bank in Medford, arriving in the Rogue valley from Portland in July, 1957. He was transferred from Medford to Oregon City last year.

At the time of his selection to head the United Crusade campaign, he was the youngest man to be in charge of the drive. In 1959 he was distinguished service award recipient, named by the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He is a graduate of Ashland High school and Southern Oregon college. While in Medford he was a member of the Elks lodge and both the Ashland and Medford Chambers of Commerce. Oregon's two Senators and the Congressman from the Fourth District have called on the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard to start planning now for reactivation of the manned Coast Guard facility at Port Orford in the fiscal year which begins next July 1.

In a letter to the Commandant, Adm. E. J. Roland, Senators Wayne Morse and Maurice Neuberger and Congressman Robert B. Duncan urged that "every possible consideration be given to the inclusion of sufficient funds in the appropriation request" for the coming fiscal year "to re-establish the manned facility at Port Orford."

Admiral Roland notified the Congressional trio on Oct. 1 that he was authorizing the Commandant to implement the plan to disestablish the present facility at Port Orford. He said in his letter that because of a "budgetary limitation, the only manner whereby protection can be permanently afforded at Bandon is to relocate the men now assigned at Port Orford."

However, Admiral Roland also said that he was taking into consideration the report of the Chief of Army Engineers on a proposal for expansion of harbor facilities at the Port. He said the needs of the community would be "kept under close and constant surveillance" and that as the needs changed, appropriate action would be taken "to provide the required degree of service."

Ronald La Monte Bauman, 411 Laurel st., was cited by Medford police Friday for having defective equipment after a three-car collision Friday afternoon on West Main st., east of Grape st. Dr. Richards to Talk On 6-2-2-2 Plan

Dr. Harold L. Richards, superintendent of secondary schools in Blue Island, Ill., where the 6-2-2-2 plan of organization was initiated 12 years ago, will speak in Medford Tuesday under auspices of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Education.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the conference lecture room of the Medford High school. All persons interested in the organizational and building plans of the Medford school system are extended an invitation to the meeting by H. P. Bosworth Jr., chairman of the Citizens committee.

Dr. Richards is recognized in the nation as an authority on this plan of school organization. Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford schools, said today. He has received letters from administrators of the few schools now operating under this system and from those which are considering the plan, all pointing out that Dr. Richards is the authority in the field.

Medford's Advantage - There are many schools, Dr. Mayfield emphasized, which have gone too far in organization and building plans along the traditional lines of the respective districts to make a change at this time. Medford, however, Dr. Mayfield added, has the advantage of being in a position to go in any direction of organization at this stage of growth. That is why study of the several plans is considered of paramount importance.

Dr. Richards, as has been the case in other speakers brought to Medford for appearance before the citizens committee, is coming through use of research funds made possible by the Oregon Program for Improvement of Education. Without these Ford Foundation funds, Dr. Mayfield contended, it would be impossible to launch the thorough study which Medford is making today.

The meeting Tuesday night will be attended by a representative from the state department of education, a representative of Southern Oregon college and by a number of superintendents of schools in this area, who have expressed interest in the 6-2-2-2 plan of organization, Bosworth said.

Others to Attend - Administration staffs of Medford High school and Junior High schools will also attend the meeting, Dr. Mayfield stated, in order for all persons concerned to get a clear picture of this particular division of classes, one through 12 in a school system.

Dr. Richards will arrive in Medford Tuesday and will remain until Wednesday afternoon. He will meet Wednesday morning with administrators and supervisors of the Medford school system and with the board of education at luncheon Wednesday.

John Charles Deaver, 68, of 818 East Ninth st., was cited for failure to yield the right of way after his car collided with a vehicle operated by Ann Georgia Rice, 52, of 900 East Siskiyou Blvd., about 12:50 p.m. Saturday on Franquette st. about 40 feet north of Earhart st.

Mme. Nhu Defends Policies of Family

NEW YORK (UPI) - Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu, defending the policies of her family in South Vietnam, has charged that the Kennedy administration apparently "is following the new fashion of liberalism which is much closer to Communism than we are."

Mme. Nhu, speaking in a television interview Sunday, said she was led to this conclusion by recent trends in United States policies in her troubled country. In fact, she blamed the present tension between the regime of her brother-in-law, Vietnam President Ngo Dinh Diem and the U.S. government on the fact that "we are more strongly anti-Communist than you are."

Mme. Nhu, 38, began the second week of her U.S. lecture tour today.

Freeman Sees Big Savings in Sale of Wheat

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman estimates the United States will save about $200 million in storage costs by selling U.S. wheat to Russia.

Freeman's estimates are based on pending Soviet purchases of between 150 to 200 million bushels, which would only make a dent in the 1.2 billion bushel U.S. surplus stockpile now stored in American granaries.

The Agriculture Department indicated today that Russia and other Communist countries might purchase as much as 250 million bushels of U.S. wheat. A weekly publication by the department's Foreign Agricultural Service said that "inquiries in recent weeks have indicated that around 250 million bushels may be involved, with the Soviet Union apparently interested in about 150 million."

See Advantageous - Freeman said he was convinced the sale would be advantageous to the United States by improving wheat farmers' income, reducing the U.S. balance of payments deficit and strengthening wheat prices.

He termed as "a bit ridiculous" Richard M. Nixon's criticism of the sale. Freeman implied that the unsuccessful 1960 presidential candidate was trying to use the issue to inject himself into the 1964 election campaign.

Freeman also discounted the contention of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., that political considerations such as Russian removal of her troops from Cuba should be attached to the deal.

Such provisions, Freeman said, "would be a deterrent toward the strengthening and improving" of U.S.-Soviet relations.

Parisians Mourn Singer Edith Piaf

PARIS (UPI) - Crowds of mourning Parisians crisscrossed through steel barriers today and swarmed into Pere Lachaise Cemetery to say goodbye to Edith Piaf, France's "sparrow of the streets."

In scenes reminiscent of the funeral of silent-screen star Rudolph Valentino, crying men and women blew kisses and tossed humble bouquets on the little singer's hearse as her body was carried across the city for burial.

The death of Miss Piaf last Friday ended one of the most glorious and tragic careers in the French music hall tradition. Edith, "the wail," was buried beside her father, an itinerant acrobat, and her only child, a girl who died at the age of 18 months.

Amendment Clarifies Bill

An amendment submitted by Robert B. Duncan (D-Ore.) clarifying provisions of the Land and Water Conservation Fund bill was adopted by an overwhelming majority of the House's Interior committee last week.

The bill is designed to establish a conservation fund to assist state and federal agencies in meeting present and future recreational needs and is one of the major conservation measures before Congress. Monies to finance the program will be provided by entrance and user fees, motor boat fuel taxes, and proceeds from surplus property sales.

Opposition Noted - For several weeks the committee has heard opposition centering on two major points: One, fear that charges would be made for mere access to unimproved federal lands, and two, fears that this bill might affect barge traffic on the federal navigation system or establish a precedent for commercial usage fees.

Duncan's amendment stated that fees would be levied only at land or water areas administered primarily for scenic, scientific, historical, cultural, recreational or wilderness purposes and that no fees would be collected except where recreational facilities or services were provided at federal expense.

A further provision of the amendment specifically assured commercial boat and barge owners that no federal fees would be charged for non-recreational use of the federal navigation system.
