Texas Takes Over Poll Leadership; Oregon 15th; Beavers Not Rated

NEW YORK (UPI) — The last time Texas reigned as major college football's No. 1 team — a year ago this month —the Longhorns couldn't stand prosperity, and if last week's upset trend continues they may have trouble retaining their freshly won rating.

Texas received 30 first place votes from the 35-man United Press International Board of Coaches in this week's balloting. The Longhorns overpowered Oklahoma, 28-7, last Saturday, to replace the Sooners as the top major college team. Oklahoma tumbled to fifth.

Upstarts upended the top 10, leaving only three teams—Texas, Wisconsin, (No. 2), and idle Pittsburgh (No. 3) — undefeated and untied. None of the 10 elite of last week could hold the same position this week.

Ohio State jumped three places to fourth despite a 20-20 tie with Illinois, which entered the top 10 for the first time in an eighth place tie.

Georgia Tech, Mississippi and Alabama, all Southeastern Conference powers, followed in sixth, seventh and eighth tie. Tech returned to the top 10 along with 10th-ranked Northwestern after a week's absence. It was the first appearance for perennial power Ole Miss in the first 10 this season.

The Longhorns were on top for only two weeks last October before they fell when Rice tied them. This Saturday they pit their powerful ground attack against Arkansas in Little Rock in their first defense of the No. 1 position. Texas totaled 344 out of a possible 350 points in the ratings, based on points from 10 to one for votes from first place to 10th.

Navy, Penn State and Southern California, all upset last weekend, dropped from the top 10, and the Trojans, defending national champions, fell completely out of the ratings.

The Middies head the second 10, followed in order by Penn State, Duke, Louisiana State and Oregon. Auburn, the only other ranking undefeated-untied team, was 16th; the Air Force 17th, and Missouri 18th. Syracuse and Notre Dame tied for 19th.

Wisconsin, which received the other five first place ballots, jumped three places to second and was only 40 points behind the Sooners.

Pittsburgh moved up a notch to third to complete the shuffle.

Only two games will pair top 20 teams this weekend. Auburn visits Georgia Tech and Syracuse entertains Penn State.

Liston Agrees To Fight Clay In February, Possibly In LA

DENVER (UPI) — Young heavyweight hopeful Cassius Clay will get a chance to fulfill his dream and meet champion Sonny Liston next February, Liston's press aide said Monday.

Denver promoter Milt Willner said Liston, who scoffs at Clay's demands to fight and also his predictions of victory, would fight the Louisville challenger in February, possibly in Chavez Ravine in Los Angeles.

Clay said he would welcome the fight. "I've been dreaming about this fight — I've been dreaming for a long time. I want that big bear so bad I can taste it," Clay said.

Willner said the site was not definitely determined, but that the home of the Los Angeles Dodgers looked a promising spot for the much heralded bout.

Willner also said former champion Ingemar Johansson of Geneva, Switzerland, and anybody except Brian London of England "will have to wait in line until after (Liston) fights Clay."

Swedish boxing promoter Edwin Ahlqvist said today Johansson was training seriously for a possible fight with Liston.

Willner said he expected to hear from London today in response to an invitation to come to Denver this winter and fight Liston. English heavyweight champion Henry Cooper turned down a similar request Monday.

Willner said Liston would not fight Clay or Johansson this year because of tax reasons. But he said the big champion would be ready for Clay in February.

Clay, in Louisville, said he would be ready also. "After we finish," Clay said, "the President is going to send out a proclamation and Liston's jaw will be declared a disaster area."

49ers' Kilmer May Play In About a Month

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners, looking for an offensive spark, may get one in about a month.

Halfback Billy Kilmer, a never-give-up performer on and off the field, was to return to the practice field today after a remarkable recovery from an auto accident that almost ended his career — and his life.

Last Dec. 6, Kilmer narrowly escaped death in a Bayshore freeway accident that left his right leg nearly shattered.

Kilmer refused to give up. He did 40 chin-ups a day in the hospital and exercised the leg whenever possible.

Doctors will take X-rays in a month and it will be decided then if Kilmer can be re-activated for the Forty Niners' final four games.

Looney Dropped From Sooners

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)—Coach Bud Wilkinson of the fifth-ranked Oklahoma Sooners dismissed sensational power-running halfback Joe Don Looney from the squad Monday for disciplinary reasons.

The veteran Oklahoma coach declined further comment.

The action came amid rumors of dissension among team members in the wake of Oklahoma's shocking 28-7 loss to Texas Saturday in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

Basketball Practice Opens Today At State Universities

NO 34— BASKETBALL 2 30

By United Press International

Basketball practice began today at Oregon's three major universities.

At Oregon State, coach Slats Gill began his 36th year as head coach by greeting six lettermen from the team that finished fourth in the nation after winning the Western regional championship last spring.

Heading the list was 7-foot center Mel Counts, the Beavers' leading scorer last year. Other returnees are Rex Benner, Jim Kraus, Frank Peters, Jim Jarvis and Lynn Baxter.

California junior college transfers Terry Dreisewered, 6-5, from Mt. San Antonio and John Chamber, 6-2, from Antelope Valley make their OSU debuts, along with sophomores Rich Whelan, Larry Enos, Dave Fox and Scott Eaton.

At Oregon, coach Steve Belko has forwards Steve Jones, Jim Johnson and Larry Cooley and guards Elliott Gleason and Bob Yates back from last year's tean.

Moore Gone

He is faced with the problem of finding a center to replace the graduated Glenn Moore. Sophs Gene Brockmeyer or Lew Patterson, each 6-9, are under consideration.

Other members of a large sophomore crop are forwards John Franz, Ed Vetter and Bill Jennings and guards Wally Palmberg, Don Dushane, Rich Potter, Dave Kafoury and Jim Barnett. Also on hand is Gary Moye, a transfer from Pacific, and non-letterman Pat Loy, both guards.

Coach Al Negratti greeted what is potentially one of the strongest teams in University of Portland history.

He has seven lettermen, seven sophomore prospects, and two promising junior college transfers.

The lettermen are led by 6-8 Steve Anstett and 6-6 Cincy Powell, and include Tom Nichols, Jim Dortch, Dave Cooper, Dennis Channing and Kent Soldan.

Detroiters Unhappy About Lobbying

BADEN-BADEN, Germany (UPI) — Detroit officials confessed today that "somebody" in Europe put one over on them by announcing that cities biding for the 1968 Olympics would not be allowed to do any lobbying.

"When we got here we discovered that all the other cities had scheduled sumptuous receptions and the like," said a spokesman for the Motor City.

"It's too late now for us to match these efforts," he added angrily.

The other three cities seeking to serve as host for the 1968 games—Buenos Aires, Mexico City and Lyons, France — are pulling out all the stops in their lobbying campaigns.

Delegates who will vote on the site Saturday are being liberally entertained, deluged with handouts and held captive while enthusiastic spokesmen bend their ears with talk of the attractions awaiting them in their city.

KELLEY OUT

PORTLAND (UPI) — Offensive guard Jan Kelley likely will miss Lewis and Clark's football game against Pacific Lutheran here Saturday because of bruised ribs, Coach Joe Huston said today.

Logan, Lemon Reach Climax Of Careers

By United Press International

Johnny Logan and Jim Lemon reached the same sad point in their major league baseball careers today, that awful moment when a ballplayer hears he's just about all through.

Logan, 36, received the news when the Pittsburgh Pirates asked waivers for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release.

And the 35-year-old Lemon was similarly advised when the Chicago White Sox requested waivers so that they could give him his walking papers, too.
