

Tornadoes Travel For Klamath Fray On Friday Evening

Medford High Football Coach Fred Spiegelberg told the Klamath Falls Herald and News last week:

"The potential is there. It's been my experience that a team that keeps taking its lumps as Klamath Falls has thus far this year, finally finds itself and explodes.

"And pity the poor club it explodes against."

Coach Spiegelberg no doubt this week has impressed the foregoing observation on his mon rivals while the Pelicans have lost to all three. No picnic, however, is anticipated for the Medfords. Anyway, it's the Pels who are hungrier for this outing. They've been in the short end of the count in all five of their games this season. The Hurricane will take a 4-1 standing into the scuffle.

If the record of the past two seasons is any indication, the Pels have been pointing for the Medford game. In 1961 the Klamaths nipped the Tornadoes 7-6 to stop a five-year MHS winning string. Last year Medford scored touchdowns in the first and second periods and Klamath toughened the rest of the way in a 13-0 penalty infested fray.

Bill Gould, new sports editor of the Klamath Falls publication has reported of the 1963 version of the Pelicans.

"The Pelicans have started slowly, but as the team, the staff, the fans and the opposing coaches know, the potential is readily visible.

"The coaching staff has said when the club finally jells, it could be terrific."

Gould also said that the Pels defense has been much better than scores posted thus far would seem to indicate. And, he added, the Pelican offense has been one to fear by all opponents between the five-yard lines of the gridiron.

Personnel Listed
In his summary of the Southern Oregon conference outlook, Gould mentioned that the Pels have two of the better backs in the league in fullback Chuck Mills and half Mike Kitching. And, Klamath has the hard running of Vern Petrick at right half.

In John Jendrezewski and Les Thurman, according to Gould's report, the KF club also has two of the better ends. Guards are sound with Mike McKibbin, 183, and Steve Campbell, 180. They are bolstered by tackles Lyle Haney, 174, and John Enright, 212.

Defense has been led by line-backer Ben Kern, 152. Terry Christianson, Don Plowman, Glenn Miller and Tom Day have shown well on defense.

Medford defensive drill has been aimed this week at stopping the Klamath wing T attack. Said Spiegelberg, "Defense has been pretty good this week. They've been hustling and scrapping and making a little esprit de corps."

Bockwinkle, Borne Will Mix Tonight

Interest is running high among local wrestling fans for the match between Tough Tony Borne and Nick Bockwinkle, which headlines the three-ply all-heavyweight card at Medford armory tonight.

The first match goes to the mat at 8:30 p.m. and the armory doors will open an hour earlier. Bockwinkle had been installed as a slight favorite to whip Borne, Pacific Coast heavyweight champion, in the non-title match on the strength of his victory in last week's battle royal.

Borne, a Pendleton rancher when he isn't on the wrestling circuit, refused to put his championship on the block, claiming Bockwinkle is an unworthy challenger. The good-looking Minneapolis speed merchant feels that if he can win tonight he can force Borne into a championship match.

The return of Latham Lindsey, popular Negro mat ace, is attracting almost as much interest as the main event. Lindsey's semi-windup clash with mean Don Duffy of San Diego will be his first encounter since being injured in an auto accident in Portland.

Art (Boom Boom) Mahalik, former San Francisco 49er who broke the ring down when he slammed to the mat last week tangles with smoot - operating Dick Dunn in the opener.

World Series Champs Receive $12,794 Each

NEW YORK (UPI)—In major league baseball it sometimes does not matter whether you win or lose but how many people you attract to the game.

A case in point is the New York Yankees who were not quite an artistic success in the 1963 World Series, bowing to the Los Angeles Dodgers in four straight games. Yet it was disclosed Wednesday by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick that the Yankee regulars will receive a record losers cut of $7,874.32 per man, or $485.14 more than New York got for defeating the Cincinnati Reds in the 1961 Series.

To the victors go the bigger spoils, however, and so those Dodgers who were voted a full share will each receive a sum of $12,794 per capita, an all-time Series mark. Both sums are the result of the first $1 million player pool in history.

To achieve the record figure, which is $1,562.82 more than they earned for winning the 1959 Series from the Chicago White Sox, the Dodgers voted 32.8 shares, including 29 full cuts. The Yankees, on the other hand, voted 35.75 shares with 33 full cuts.

Best Shooting On Rogue River

PORTLAND (UPI)—This weekend's hunting outlook, prepared by the State Game Commission:

Southwest: Deer hunting fair in Douglas County and along coast, and good in Rogue River region; duck hunting fair to good at Coos Bay, poor in Rogue Valley and most other areas with best shooting on Rogue River and Bear Creek.

Central: Deer scattering and hidden, but hunted fair in Wasco unit; waterfowl hunting slow along the Columbia River but good to excellent in Klamath Basin; pheasant hunting good in Wasco, Jefferson and Sherman counties, but fair to poor in Klamath basin.

Protect Quarterback

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon State's Beavers worked on protecting their quarterback Wednesday, a weak spot in last week's game against the University of Washington.

Coach Tommy Prothro said the Beavers will have to get their offense going if they want to defeat Washington State Saturday.

Angling Good

PORTLAND (UPI)—The State Game Commission's summary of weekend fishing conditions:

Southwest: Trout Lake excellent for diamond angling good in lower Umpqua and lower Rogue and fair to good in lower Coquille.

Crater High Comets To Travel To Yreka For Friday Ruckus

CENTRAL POINT — Crater high's Comets, after a magnificent effort against Medford, draw a bye in Southern Oregon Conference football this Friday. But the Comets will not be relaxing. In fact, they'll take a journey into Northern California for non-league opposition.

Crater has an 8 p.m. date with the Miners of Yreka. The teams are not strangers to each other. It will be an old rivalry renewed.

For the Fireballs, also, it will be another opportunity to measure what their outlook is for later conference opposition. Yreka last week took on Ashland of the Southern Oregon circuit. Ashland tripped the Miners 15-6.

Crater this Friday will be without the services this Friday of halfback Darryl Summerfield, who suffered a concussion in the Medford game. Summerfield is reported all right but is being held out of action on his doctor's say so as a precautionary measure. He has been at the practices looking on. Coach Keith Johnson has reported.

John Hall is expected to get the call at right halfback and to see duty also on defense.

Fullback Vern Swanson is hobbling and, while he'll likely be playing Friday, Chuck Taylor has been working at the post.

The Comets, however, seem to be recuperated from the ailments which have plagued them this season. There are some minor ones in the wake of the Tornado fray. Still the Fireballs have recovered pretty well.

Guard and tackle Denny Ryerson, who's had ankle troubles, seems to be okeh, Johnson stated.

Johnson reported that his lineup this week won't be changed too much. He indicated that a little more use of reserves may be made to give them experience while giving regulars a rest.

Jim Ricks, who has come along well, is being groomed to spell Ryerson on offense. And, it's planned for Don Gale and Jack Peek to see strictly defensive work.

The Comets went pretty hard in their Wednesday practice with about one-half hour devoted to scrimmage. Crater has worked on its punting and quick kicking.

Yreka reportedly has good quarterbacking in Tom Laustalo and Ken Keyes with Keyes a good passer. The Miners also are said to have good size.

St. Mary's junior varsity tripped the Crater Rockets in a game here on Thursday. Score was 7-0.
