Common Market Offers Solution To 'Chicken War'

BRUSSELS (UPI)—The Common Market has officially informed the United States it is willing to settle their 15-month-old "chicken war" by international arbitration.

But there was no immediate American acceptance of the offer.

U.S. Ambassador to the Common Market John W. Tuthill was given the text of the Common Market offer which was formulated Tuesday by Executive Commissioner for Foreign Relations Jean Rey. Rey and Tuthill, at a midnight meeting, spent three hours discussing the note.

Tuthill made no statement when he returned to the U.S. mission. Informed sources said he would continue discussions with Rey.

This indicated some last-minute hitch may have occurred although both sides kept strict secrecy over what it might be.

Arbitration Favored

Common Market foreign ministers Tuesday approved a proposal by the executive commission that a panel of experts at General Agreement on Trade and Tariff (Gatt) headquarters in Geneva arbitrate the issue.

The ministers said the panel should fix the amount of European reparations to the United States to compensate for the money lost by U.S. poultry exporters when the Common Market increased its tariffs about 300 per cent.

The United States says this amount is $46 million. The Common Market argues that the figure is only between $13 and $19 million.

After the panel fixes the figure the United States and the community would meet to decide how the reparations—if any—would be implemented.

NO BARGAIN

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (UPI) — Fifty-one cents cost Donald Clark, 27 of Binghamton 30 days in jail. Clark pleaded guilty to petty larceny after he was accused of taking the money from a new vendor on the post office steps. He told the judge he and another man took the money to buy coffee.
