

Friends Observe 21st Anniversary

Medford Friends church, Merriam rd. and DeBarre ave., will observe the 21st anniversary of the founding of the church Sunday.

A fellowship dinner will be served in the fellowship hall of the church following the morning

GERALD DILLON
Guest Minister

ing worship. An anniversary cake baked by Joe and Betty Wolk-Laniewski of the church will be served to an estimated 150 persons.

The anniversary observation is a part of the month long "Operation Handclasp" emphasis in progress during October with attention given to Sunday school and church attendance increase. Guest minister for both services Sunday will be Gerald Dillon, pastor of Portland's First Friends church. He will start a six day series of doctrinal sermons on the Basic Beliefs of the Christian Faith.

The public is invited to attend each of these at 7:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday. The new Friends minister to youth, Harold Antrim, will be in charge of the music for each service.

Tuesday evening the Bible basis of Christian education will be stressed with all Sunday School teachers and officers present. Friday evening will be youth night, with teenagers gathering at 6 p.m. in the fireplace room for a "sloppy-joe" supper and remaining for the youth rally.

Mr. Dillon recently made a trip around the world to visit various Friends mission fields and will draw from these experiences in his presentations. He is currently president of the National Association of Evangelical Friends in America and

World Order Sunday Scheduled

Oct. 20 will be observed as World Order Sunday at St. Luke's Methodist church during the 11 a.m. worship hour. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, will preach on the theme: "Our Moral Crisis." The church is located at 2320 Siskiyou Blvd., across the street from the Hoover school.

A story hour is provided at 11:30 a.m. for children in grades one through four.

Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. the altar choir, which is composed of children in the church school, will rehearse. The altar choir will sing for the first time this season Oct. 27.

Friday at 6:30 p.m. members and friends of St. Luke's will meet at the church for a family potluck dinner. The Rev. Tatsumasa Shirakawa of Kyoto, Japan, will be the guest of honor.

Conference Head To Speak Saturday

Richard W. Schwartz, head of the Oregon Conference Missionary Volunteer program for Seventh-day Adventist young people, will speak at the 11 a.m. service in the Medford church Saturday.

"Heritage of the Lord," is the title Elder Schwartz has chosen for his remarks which will emphasize the church's responsibility to its younger members and the privileges and duties of Christian parenthood.

Music will be provided by the Medford male quartet composed of Clifford Fellows, Alvy Bowman, Leonard Yost and Joe Hoyt.

The church nominating committee will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Midweek prayer meeting topic will be "The Coming Crisis," presented by Pastor A. P. Ritz Wednesday at 8 p.m.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

Sunday, 9:00 a.m.
K-SHA - 860 kc

This week's Christian Science program
"Where Do You Look for God?"

Zone Rally Planned In Central Point

CENTRAL POINT — A rally for the southern zone of the Northwest district of Pilgrim Holiness churches will be held Friday, Oct. 25, at the Pilgrim Holiness church in Central Point, at 7:30 p.m. Participating churches will be Klamath Falls, Medford, Grants Pass, and Central Point.

A panel discussion on youth will be held.

Laymen's Sunday Scheduled By First Methodists

First Methodist church will observe Laymen's Sunday at both morning worship services. Presiding will be Robert Bacucus, church lay leader, assisted by Floyd Wisely. Speakers will be Gary Lovre, high school music teacher, and Edward Branchfield, lawyer and state representative.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow will sing a duet at both morning worship services. At 9:30 a.m. the youth choir will sing "Go Not Far From Me O God" and the church choir will sing "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" at 11 a.m.

The second session of the School of Christian Living begins at 5 p.m. with Mrs. C. R. Adamson in charge on "Our Church Faces the Racial Issue." Guest speaker will be the Rev. W. Tull of the Congregational church and chairman of the Human Rights council. The Builder's class will have the snack supper.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. for their regular meeting and then join in the snack supper. The Senior High MYF will meet at 6:30 p.m. for snack supper and then their regular meeting with Melvin Taylor in charge. A fireside at the home of Elaine Davenport will follow the meeting.

The Senior High MYF will have a party in the youth center Friday from 7 to 11 p.m. The Junior High MYF will have a Halloween costume party Saturday night in the youth center from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

The Builders class will have a progressive dinner Saturday beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blair, 633 Pierce rd., and will end with dessert at the church.

Activities Listed For First Baptists

"The Baptism of the Holy Spirit" is the message that the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews will give at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at the First Baptist church, 649 Crater Lake ave. The chapel choir will sing and Maynard Hadley will be soloist.

A completely graded Sunday school is held at 9:40 a.m. and the church is presently engaged in a six-weeks contest to increase attendance. Two buses pick up children and adults throughout the community each week.

At the 7 p.m. service Pastor Andrews will speak on "The Fullness of the Godhead." Mrs. Donn Platt will be soloist and there will be a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coster.

Friday, Oct. 25, the Bethel Sunday School class will hold a Halloween costume party at the Clarence Wilson home on Foss rd. in Talent.

"No Condemnation" will be the topic for the Sunday morning sermon at First Southern Baptist church, by the Rev. Gilbert O. Skaar, pastor. Scripture background will be taken from Romans 8:1.

Song service will begin at 10:45 a.m. with Robert Klusman directing. For the 7:30 p.m. evening the Gideons will be in charge. Frank Fanger will be the speaker and George McCune, soloist.

Monday, Oct. 21, Mr. and Mrs. Skaar and Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson will leave to attend the annual Oregon-Washington Baptist state convention which will be held at Vancouver, B. C. Monday through Thursday.

Conferences for pastors and Women's Missionary union leaders will be held Monday. The state-wide conferences will be held Tuesday through Thursday.

GUEST SPEAKER ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

ASHLAND—Mrs. Charles Adamson of First Methodist church, Medford, will be the speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Ashland First Methodist church, Laurel and Main sts., in observance of Laymen's day. A coffee hour will follow the service.

Churches of Christ Plans Week Long School of Missions

"A Great Door Is Opened" will be the theme for the School of Missions to be held nightly at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 20 through 25, in Churches of Christ of the Rogue valley.

The speakers, dates, and places of their appearance are: Warren Moore, Alberta, Canada, Sunday, Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave., Medford; Tom Courtney, Southern Rhodesia, Oct. 21, Church of Christ second and B sts., Ashland; Harlan Woodruff, Okinawa, Oct. 22, Church of Christ, First and B sts., Phoenix; Harold Fowler, Italy, Oct. 23, Church of Christ, Third and Oak sts., Central Point; Ray Carlson, Philippines, Oct. 24, Central Church of Christ, Medford; and Robert West, Japan, Oct. 25, Church of Christ, Ashland.

Annual Effort The School of Missions is an extensive effort of co-operating Churches of Christ and Christian Churches in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. The program is planned so that six missionary speakers tour the churches for five weeks, speaking each evening except Saturday. The tour takes them to 30 centers in each of which a host congregation has agreed to invite other interested churches within driving distance to join in the meetings. By this means more than a hundred congregations are involved in the 150 sessions of the school. Moore has served in his field for one year, while West is a veteran of 10 years, Harlan Woodruff, 15 years, and Ray Carlson, 22 years of mission work. The Carlsons began the work at Cebu in the Philippines. Following war-time imprisonment, they returned to their work which now includes a college for training workers and extensive village evangelism.

The program of the Woodruffs in Okinawa also includes a college, with evangelistic efforts reaching 65 villages. The Wests, both having been teachers in this country, have carried on an extensive teaching ministry. West has taught in a Japanese university as well as the Osaka Bible seminary. Their recent work has been the establishing of three congregations in rural Okayama where there were no Christians previously.

First Terms of Service Two of the speakers are preparing for their first terms of service. Courtney is the former minister of the First Christian church, Beaverton, Ore., and Fowler is a former member of the faculty of Ozark Bible college, Joplin, Mo.

All of the missionaries will use slide pictures in their presentations. The School of Missions will culminate in the Northwest Missionary conference to be held at Central Christian church, Portland, Nov. 6 through 8. The six participating missionaries plus other speakers will develop the theme "A Great Door Is Opened."

Sunday services at Central Church of Christ will begin with Bible school at 9:45 a.m. followed by worship at 11 a.m. Minister John V. Heberling will speak on the topic "Deep Roots, Wide Reach."

Charter Received By Spiritualists GOLD HILL—The Concord Spiritualist chapel Gold Hill, which has been operating since Sept. 16, 1962, received its charter from the National Spiritualist Association of Churches, Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13. Mrs. James Carbiener, secretary of the local chapel, made the presentation on behalf of the association to the Rev. Elvina Colburn, pastor, during the evening service.

A letter signed by the Rev. Robert McDonald, national president, and Joseph Merrill, national secretary, was read to the congregation by Sidney Jones.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the pastor will speak. Mrs. Colburn will be assisted by Robert Routh, Sidney Jones, Mrs. Helen Bush, and Mrs. Sidney Miller.

Duets will be played by Mr. Colburn and Mrs. Blanca Corona on the solovox-piano and the piano-organ. Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet.

PHOENIX—Sunday services at First Presbyterian church, Phoenix, will be conducted by various men of the church as it is Laymen Sunday.

There will be a number by the choir, with Mrs. Mary Thompson at the organ.

Nursery care will be provided and coffee and punch will be served following the service.

At 4:30 p.m. Loyalty Sunday begins with vespers in the church sanctuary followed by a buffet supper from 5 to 6 p.m. in the Sunday School room. Following the buffet, a stewardship meeting will be held with nursery provided.

At 7 p.m. the Senior High Youth group will meet in the fireside room with Darlene Saladin giving devotions.

Question Listed For Roundtable "What Is the Layman's Role in the Churches Today?" will be discussed on "Ministers' Roundtable" this week end on radio and television. Along with this question will be the concern as to the differences that exist in the role of laymen of the liturgical and the non-liturgical churches, as well as what the limitations might be.

Program time for KMED-TV will be Saturday, Oct. 19, at 10 a.m. and at 8 a.m. Sunday for KMED radio.

Panel members will be the Rev. John Simon, the Rev. Garland Shan, and the Rev. Gerald Nelson with the Rev. W. E. Martin acting as moderator.

POTLUCK DINNER A potluck dinner will follow the 10:45 a.m. worship service Sunday of the Eastside Church of Christ which meets at the nut st. Mr. Joan M. Shelley, American Legion hall, 404 Walminister, will speak at the worship service. The 7 p.m. Bible study will be from II Corinthians 11.

UNITY Corner Holly and Haven Streets Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo. REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister. Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m. "Who Is Man?" Psalm 3:4-6 at School Youth of Unity Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m. Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. 3777 Jacksonville Hwy. — Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

UNITY

Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.
"Who Is Man?"
Psalm 3:4-6

at School Youth of Unity Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
3777 Jacksonville Hwy. — Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

Missionaries To Speak At Nazarene Churches

The Rev. and Mrs. Ralph A. Cook, returned Nazarene teachers and missionaries to Trinidad, in the West Indies, are on a furlough in the United States, engaged in deputation work among churches of the denomination. They will speak and show their films at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., during the 7 p.m. service Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, who have been missionaries since 1935, have been in Trinidad since 1959, where they pioneered in opening Nazarene work in the Sana Fernando metropolitan area. Mr. Cook also has been chaplain for the Shell Oil company and has taught courses on religion in government schools.

The Cooks will also speak at other valley churches. They will speak tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Phoenix church; Sunday at 11 a.m. in Ashland, Tuesday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at Mt. Pitt Avenue church, Medford; and Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. in Grants Pass.

"Making God Real" is the message topic which the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, the pastor, will give in the 11 a.m. worship service. This is the second in a series and will be adapted to the National Laymen's Sunday theme.

Music announced by Perry Christiansen, minister of music for the local church, will be the sanctuary choir singing "Unto the Hills Do I Lift Up," and a number by the Fishermen male quartet.

Juniors who will present music in their worship service which meets in the activity building at 11 a.m., will be Merlaine Perkins and Louralee Marrs, who will sing a duet, and Allen Foster will present piano played music. The story sermon will be given by Mrs. Christiansen.

Delegates representing St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, will include the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector; the Rev. David Rowan, Paul J. Selby, A. Douglas Roach, Victor Milnes, and Dr. Thomas C. Bolton.

Representing the women of St. Mark's will be Mrs. William B. Clegg, Mrs. Bolton, Mrs. Robert D. Dames, Mrs. Frank Glonning, Mrs. Richard Dill, Mrs. C. Wildon Kline, Mrs. Earl Malbourn, Mrs. Roach, and Mrs. Bolster.

The convention is expected to adjourn by mid-afternoon on Tuesday.

Witnesses Here To Attend Assembly Harlan Nixon, presiding minister of the Medford congregation of Jehovah's witnesses, has announced that the 16 congregations of southern Oregon will hold their next assembly in Winston, Ore., Nov. 1 to 3.

Mr. Nixon said that the purpose of the gathering will be to receive instruction and training for the improvement of each individual's ministry. All discussions on the three-day program will be centered around the theme, "Feed my little sheep," taken from John 21:16.

Approximately 275 delegates will attend from the Medford and Central Point congregations.

Eastwood Baptists Schedule Events Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on "The Lawfulness of Texas," using Mark 12:13-17 as scripture. Missionary Moments will feature a letter from Okinawa.

The church choir will sing, "Praise to God! Alleluia!" by Saint-Saens. This is Laymen's Sunday, and laymen will participate in the service.

The Sunday school has completed its new arrangement of rooms, and new furniture is being ordered, according to Superintendent Dean Anderson.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will raise the question: "Are There Wives in Heaven?" There will be a brief report of the state convention proceedings.

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18 and 19, some Senior Highs from Eastwood will participate in the association-wide spiritual renewal retreat at Dead Indian Soda Springs. The Bible Study group meets Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Will Mauck.

THE REV. R. A. COOK Here from Trinidad

Episcopalians To Meet in Portland The 75th annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon will assemble at Trinity Episcopal church, Portland, on Sunday for a three day session.

The Right Rev. James W. F. Carman, D.D. bishop of the diocese, will preside over the delegates and clergy from all areas of his jurisdiction.

Episcopal Church Women of Oregon will hold sessions to review the work of the women of the church at the same time.

Apart from the business meetings the highlights of the convention will be the opening service of the gathering at Trinity church on Sunday at 8 p.m. when the bishop will be the preacher, and the convention banquet at the Hilton hotel Monday night when the Right Rev. Ivor L. Curtis, suffragan bishop of Los Angeles, will be the guest speaker.

Three Churches List Activities CENTRAL POINT—Laymen of the Central Point Presbyterian church will conduct the service Sunday at 11 a.m. Creston McNeel will talk on the subject, "Your Neighbor As Yourself." Franklin Gebhard and Robert Padgett will also take part, according to Dr. Donald Krug, pastor. The choir, directed by Mrs. Arthur Schafroth, will sing, "Come, Holy Spirit," by von Berge.

Child care is available for pre-schoolers. A coffee fellowship will be held immediately following the church service.

JACKSONVILLE — Dr. Earl Benbow, retired minister and resident of Rogue Valley Manor, will be the pupil guest Sunday at Jacksonville First Presbyterian. His sermon title is "The Great Invitation." Music by choir will be the hymn "I'm Praying for You."

The Men's Study will meet at 7 p.m. in the church for Bible study Sunday.

Local Presbyterians List Sunday, Coming Activities

The series of sermons on the Gospel of John will continue at the First Presbyterian church with Dr. D. Kirkland West using as his theme, "God's Greatest Gift." The Senior High choir will sing, "A Canticle of Peace" at the 9:30 a.m. service and the church choir will present "Incline Thine Ear" at the second service.

Sunday at 7 p.m. the combined junior high, senior high and college-age groups will conduct a vesper service in the sanctuary. The Rev. John Reynolds, Westminster church, will be the speaker.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday at 4 p.m. Recreation, choir practice, worship and Bible study are followed by dinner. The program for this week will be a discussion of juvenile delinquency led by the citizenship commission. Senior High Fellowship holds a midweek dinner and worship period each Wednesday at 5 p.m.

A conference for youth and adults together will be held Friday through Sunday, Oct. 25-27, at Dead Indian Soda Springs. The retreat will concern itself with the cooperative program in First Church. The new film strip, "Members One to Another," the tape of the production, "For Heaven's Sake," panel discussions, role playing and other types of material will be used to highlight the retreat.

The Cruisers club will hold its monthly potluck dinner Monday at 6:45 p.m. The theme, "Around the World in 80 Minutes," will feature slides of European churches taken by the Rev. and Mrs. David Brown on their recent trip. Mr. and Mrs.

The Mariners Group for married couples will hold a church clean-up day on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Couples and their families are invited to help with various cleaning jobs around the church, after which they will all gather for a spaghetti dinner. Those interested should call the church office.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barnburg and Groveland aves.

St. Peter's Events Are Announced "God's Secret Plan and the Individual Christian" is the sermon topic chosen for Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran church by the pastor of the church, Rev. John E. Simon. It is the fourth and last of a series of four sermons on the topic "God's Secret Plan."

The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m. The early service will include the celebration of Holy communion.

Mr. Simon returned from Corvallis last evening where he attended the Oregon pastoral conference of his denomination at Zion Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Classes and activities are scheduled for all age groups. Teaching the adult classes will be District Missionary Elder Donald Balsiger and High Priest Noel J. King.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

Services will be conducted as usual at the local church on Sunday, although many members plan to attend the conference, according to Elder Davidson.

District officers will be elected for the 1964 church year at the business meeting on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. concluding the conference.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental

On The Air
K-BOY
11:00
12:00

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.
NOW Meeting In The Beautiful New Church,
649 Crater Lake Avenue
SUNDAY, OCT. 20

9:40 A.M.
Sunday School for All

11:00 A.M.
"The Baptism of the Holy Spirit"

7:00 P.M.
"The Fullness of the Godhead"

Wednesday—Bible Study Hour

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

Subject: "Doctrine Of Atonement"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to: "The Bible Speaks To You"
Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.

SPIRITUAL LIFE CRUSADE

The Berean Baptist Church

Crater Lake Hwy. and Ave. A
White City, Ore., across from Cascade Shopping Center

PRESENTS
EVANGELIST
WM. E. CROSS
Former Greyhound Bus Driver
Former Pastor

OCTOBER 20-25

Sunday 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Services Every Night — 7:30 p.m.

Ample Parking
Nursery Facilities

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You

Hedrick Junior High Auditorium
1505 E. Jackson

SERVICES

Sunday School 9:45 A.M.
Morning Worship 11:00 A.M.
Youth Service 6:00 P.M.
Evening Service 7:00 P.M.

Pastor ZWIGART Ph. 779-1067

Midweek Service — 7:30 P.M. Wednesdays
(Place announced each week)

"There is a real and positive help for your every problem"

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711

Worship Services 9:30 - 11:00 a.m.

Sermon: "God's Greatest Gift"

Dr. D. Kirkland West

Church Schools: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.