

Two Girl Scout Officers Leave For National Session

Two delegates from the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council will attend the annual national council meeting of the organization to be held in Miami Beach, Fla., next week. They are Mrs. B. E. Culy, council president, and Mrs. H. E. Nulton, first vice-president.

The two women left October 19 by air for Florida. They have been instructed by the Rogue Valley council to vote against the new "council coverage" plan which has been submitted to local councils in recent months. The two delegates have been in-

Rogue Valley Art association members announce that judging of art work submitted for the new Rental-Sales gallery has been completed. Cochairmen Mrs. John Reid and Mrs. Roger L. Schildt, noted that artists have expressed concern that an enlarged council would have exactly the opposite effect as claimed by its proponents—that with control in a distant city, local interest and participation would decrease.

The national session will open October 21 and continue through October 25. Vote on the new plan is slated for October 23.

En route home the two women both plan to make stops. Mrs. Culy will visit her brother, A. B. Lindley in Ravenswood, W. Va. Mrs. Nulton will go to Myrtle Beach, S.C., where she will spend some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Ron E. Fields and their two daughters, Jody and Julia. The latter was born July 9.

Mrs. Nulton also plans to visit Washington, D.C., before returning to Oregon.

Broadway Theater League Schedule Announced

The Broadway Theater league will present its first play of the season, Wednesday, November 13, when John Ireland will appear in the starring role in "A Thousand Clowns."

This comedy concerns a television comedy writer, who fed up with writing for "Chuckles the Chipmunk" quits his job and goes on unemployment. The child welfare board feels this is hardly a suitable environment to rear his 12-year-old Quiz Kid nephew. So they send a team of examiners and the fuss begins.

"Clowns" had a smash hit year on Broadway, opening April, 1962.

The remaining plays, to be presented by the league this season are "A Man for All Seasons," December 6; "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," March 6, 1964; and "Lady Audley's Secret," March 23.

The plays will be presented in the Holly theater, curtain time at 8:15 p.m.

Memberships still are available and those interested may call Mrs. Lon Skinner, 773-8913. A booth at the coming Flea Market in the Medford Armory will offer memberships October 25, 26, and 27. League members pointed out that those who have reserved tickets, but have not
