

Speaker Announced

Dr. R. C. Young, a Scotsman, an emigrant who came to America after serving with the Gordon Highlanders in World War I, will speak for Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club Tuesday, November 2, on "America Meets the Challenge of World Leadership."

In his talk Dr. Young exhorts America's youth and adults, not to overlook the advantages America offered to him and is continuing to offer to all other Americans with a will and ambition to reach ahead.

After getting this country, the immigrant worked as a day laborer, an unskilled worker in an automobile industry in Flint, Mich. It was his goal to complete his college and university training. Now he holds an honorary doctorate besides academic degrees. He has served both as a college professor and an administrator.

Deadline for dinner reservations is Saturday, November 2. They should be made with Mrs. Richard House, 15 Corning court, Medford.

Bagwell-Hewitt Rites Held at Friends Church

Miss Rosalie Ann Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Hewitt, 295 DeBarr avenue, Medford, became the bride of Raymond Edward Bagwell of Roseburg in 3 o'clock afternoon rites October 13 in Medford Friends church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bagwell, Roseburg.

Don Smith of the West Side Christian church, Roseburg performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace gown with scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The taffeta overskirt, fastened at the waistline with a bow, was designed with chapel train. A single satin rose held her fingertip length veil and she carried red roses.

Mrs. David Bascom was matron of honor and bridesmatrons were Mrs. Dan Christensen, Eugene, and Mrs. Charles L. Hewitt, Central Point, sister-in-law of the bride.

Barbara Hewitt, San Jose, and Susan Hewitt, Central Point, nieces of the bride wore flower girls and Bradley Hewitt, San Jose, a nephew, carried the rings.

Charles L. Hewitt, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Mr. Bascom and Lloyd Casteel, Roseburg. The bride's attendants wore blue crystalline frocks with bell-shaped skirts and matching short veils. The flower girls were dressed in baby blue polished cotton and also had matching short veils.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums. Miss Allison Pfaff, Eugene, was organist and Miss Anne Saunders, Roseburg, the soloist. During the reception the minister, Mr. Smith, played background organ music.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a pink brocaded sheath dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Bagwell chose a pink and cranberry colored knit suit with black accessories. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

Women of the West Side Christian church, Roseburg, gave the reception in the Medford Friends church social rooms. Some 200 friends attended the wedding and 150 the reception. Mrs. Margaret Pfaff, Roseburg, made the wedding cake.

Mrs. Edward Ekwall, Ashland, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Max Ruge, Klamath Falls, a cousin of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Don Bagwell, Grants Pass, aunt of the bridegroom, poured the punch, while Mrs. Bessie Wight, aunt of the bride, served the coffee. Registering the guests was Mrs. Millard Hicks. Mrs. Harold Friend was at the gift table.

Among the guests were grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Wight, Ashland; the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Bagwell, Grants Pass, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell, Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Terry Welbert, Anchorage, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Willows, Calif.; Mr. Christensen, Eugene; Mr. Ruge, Mrs. Bertha Hewitt, Miss Barbara Karnosh and Mrs. Belle VanDel, all Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stickling, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Cottrell and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hefer and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clements, all Roseburg.

The couple traveled to Portland for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue wool dress with black accessories. They are living at Town and Country Trailer court in Eugene. The bride attended Crater High school and the bridegroom attended Roseburg High school. Both studied at Oregon Technical institute, Klamath Falls. The bride is a laboratory technician and was employed in Medford at Valley laboratories, and also at J.C. Penney company. The bridegroom now is studying aviation mechanics at Eugene Vocational school.
