Sisters Attend Bride At Wedding in Dakota

Mrs. Sven Sandberg, 225 Renault avenue, has returned from New Town, N. D., where she served as an attendant for her sister, Miss Elsie V. Todd, formerly of 251 Renault avenue, Medford when she became the bride of Elmer M. Bartleson, October 5.

The ceremony was read in Gospel Tabernacle church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Don Waggoner.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Anna Todd, Gettysburg, S. D., and the late H. W. Todd. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Anna Bartleson, New Town, and the late Carl Bartleson.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Arthur E. Todd, Gettysburg. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta with fitted bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline banded with scalloped lace, embroidered with iridescent sequins. The sequin banding was repeated on the hemline of the softly controlled bell-shaped skirt. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Two Attend Bride

Mrs. Paul Wheeler, New Town was matron of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Sandberg was bridesmatron. They wore pink floor length gowns and their bouquets were of Canadian asters.

Leslie and Wesley Wheeler, twin nephews of the bride carried the rings and Doris Waggoner was flower girl. Kristy Ann Wheeler, also a niece, was miniature bride, dressed in a gown similar to that worn by the bride.

Paul Wheeler, New Town, was best man and Ordean Fossaa, Tioga, N. D., was groomsmen. Earl Satherwaite and Ervin Vepsich, both New Town, were ushers.

The Rev. and Mrs. Waggoner sang and Mrs. William Amundson, Williston, N. D., was organist. Gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Reception Held

A reception followed in the social hall of Bethel Lutheran church.

Miss Carol Waggoner took charge of the guest book and Mrs. D. C. Peterson, and Mrs. Charles Austin, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Ronnelly Todd, Onida, S. D., was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Larry Mayes, Pierre, S. D., poured coffee.

Miss Rosemary Austin served at the bridal table and Mrs. Arlo Lubke and Miss Darlene Lubke, Parshall, N. D., had charge of gifts.

Other relatives at the ceremony from Oregon were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Todd, McMinnville, aunt and uncle of the bride.
