ASHLAND — Southern Oregon was the prognosticators' pick for night football conflict here on Saturday. Yet, in the first half the Oregon Tech Owls were more than they could handle. Then, in the third quarter, the Red Raiders of the Rogue whopped it up and battled back to a 29-14 Oregon Collegiate Conference triumph.

It was that old story of two games within one contest. The first half saw the Owls hold the upper hand and the second half belonged to the Raiders, who finally went in front on a 72-yard run by Mike Hood, scintillating back from Medford.

A psyched up OTI delegation, primed for upset, took the field. Spurred by the running of Bob Battle, Claude Shipp and Gerald Luke, the steering of Mike Glines, his passes to Vic Ventura and the defensive spark of Luke, the Owls touchdowns in the first and second quarters for a 14-0 midway spread.

Raiders Aroused
At halftime, Al Akins, big chief of the Raiders, must have called a war dance — objective Owl feathers — within the confines of the dressing room. For the Raiders went onto the gridiron for the second half, just as fired and pepped, if not more so, than the visiting contingent from Klamath Falls, SOC, with Bill Bailey in the driver's seat, put together the running of Doug Olsen, Dave Nord and Bailey to Olsen and Bill White aeriels.

Luke who in the first half plucked off three of Bailey's passes, scored the first touchdown of the fracas on an interception. On the dead run he snagged a flat pass of the Raider quarterback and zipped like lightning to the goal.

OTI's second TD was on a penalty — marked drive which went for 85 yards. Glines, freshman quarterback from Central Point, poked over the last fraction of a yard. Dave Dirksen thumped the second of his two conversion kicks.

Hood, Olsen Score
SOC exuberance was jolted as the second half got under way by fumble on the kickoff. But the Raiders came back on their next two series with the ball and would not be stopped until they had touchdowns. Hood skirted end for eight yards and the first SO score. Olsen slashed three yards for the second. With Olsen's two conversion kicks the count was knotted at 14-all for three quarters.

After drives by each team concluded with unsuccessful field goal tries, Hood took a fourth quarter Bailey pitchout, swept right end and sprinted the 72 yards to the Owl end zone to make it 20-14.

The Raiders collected two points on a safety when Glines, trapped in the end zone while trying to pass, was charged with intentional grounding.

Good Measure
Victory was all but clinched by the safety. But, the Raiders marched to the goal off the Owl kickoff for good measure. Olsen went over from the two and toed the bonus.

This was defending champion SOC's third triumph against no losses in the conference. OTI is 6-2 in the circuit. The Raider win set the stage for a league decider for SO against Portland State (2-6) next Saturday at Portland.

Luke's first interception came three plays after the Raiders had taken over the ball on their eighty-yard line following a punt Bailey nassed from behind his 17 and Luke had the throw perfectly diagnosed.

The Owls' 85-yard TD jaunt was set off by another Luke interception. Sixteen plays were needed with a Glines pass to Ben Olson for 39 yards the longest gain. There were 29 yards of penalties against the Industrials and 31 against the Raiders on this drive.

OTI had first down on the SOC

two-yard line but needed four downs to make it.
The Ashlanders made one strong bid to tally in the second quarter. They moved from their 38 to the OTI seven in nine plays. Bailey and Hood each were thrown for four-yard losses. Bailey passed to Billy White. This completion, the only one allowed by Owl defense in the first half, lost a yard when a lateral effort went awry. The miscue was on fourth down and the Owls took over on their 16 mark.

SOC's third quarter counters were on 56 and 64-yard barges. The first promenade took eight plays. A 15-yard sweep by Hood was the longest run. On their longer drive the defending

Champs Vie In Tuesday Ring Bouts

NEW YORK (UPI) — This week's boxing will be topped by a big international show at London Tuesday night when world champion Carlos Ortiz and Sugar Ramos meet other opponents in non-title fights, supported by two other Trans-Atlantic bouts.

There will be no nationally televised fight this week because the sponsors have pre-empted Friday night fight-time for a documentary — as the sponsors can do four times a year.

However, on Friday night at Madison Square Garden an excellent non-televised 10-rounder between middleweight contenders Rubin (Hurricane) Carter of Paterson, N.J., and Joey Archer of New York is slated. Carter is ranked No. 1 by the World Boxing Association; Archer, No. 6.

Another interesting match is posted for this evening at 8:30 in Francisco, where former middleweight champion Bobo Olson, now campaigning as a light heavyweight, engages Jose Meno of Argentina.

Promoter Jack Solomon's big London show Tuesday will be staged at the 10,000-seat Empire Pool in suburban Wembley. He expects a sell-out.

Ortiz Versus Cullen
At Wembley, lightweight champion Ortiz of New York meets Maurice Cullen of England in a non-title 10-rounder. Cullen, with a 24-3-2 record, is top contender for Dave Catterley's British lightweight title.

Feather champion Ramos of Cuba and Mexico squares off against Sammy McSpadden of Scotland in an over-the-weight 10-rounder. McSpadden has lost only once in his 17 starts.

The week's boxing schedule includes:
Monday: San Francisco — Bobo Olson vs. Jose Meno; Boston — Tommy Tibbs vs. Gene Toran and Dick DeVola vs. Tommy Haden; Philadelphia — Jesse Smith vs. Willie Giles; Las Vegas, Nev. — David Patterson vs. Benito Juarez.

Tuesday: London (Wembley) — Carlos Ortiz vs. Maurice Cullen (non-title); Sugar Ramos vs. Sammy McSpadden (non-title); Jeff Davis vs. Jim Cooper; Gomez Brennan vs. Mick Leahy; New York (Sunshine) — Billy Lomangan vs. Danny Andrews; Scranton, Pa. — Billy Backus vs. Billy Anderson.

Thursday: Los Angeles (Olympic) — Raul Rojas vs. Joe Olguin.
Friday: New York (Garden) — Rubin (Hurricane) Carter vs. Joey Archer (not televised).

KOCHMAN SUFFERS INALY
HOUSTON (UPI) — The Buffalo Bills, who dropped a 20-14 American Football League game Sunday to the Houston Oilers, suffered perhaps a more serious loss when rookie running back Roger Kochman sustained a knee dislocation. Kochman, former Penn State star, was injured in the second period when he was hit high and low by two Oiler tacklers and will very probably be lost for the season.

champs required 10 plays. A Bailey to Olson heave went for 30 yards. Successive five and two-yard penalties on the Owls put the ball on the three.

Field Kicks Fail
Luke fumbled on the kickoff which followed and a Red Raider recovered on the OTI 29. In six plays, plus an eight-yard infraction stepoff against the Owls, SOC was on the one. Bailey appeared to dent the end zone on fourth down but offside was charged against the Raiders. With the ball snapped from the six Olsen tried an angle field goal kick which was wide.

There was still plenty of peck and scratch in the Owls. They fought from their 20. In 10 plays, reeling off four consecutive first downs along the route, OTI was on the Raider six. There were 15, 18, 16 and 14-yard gains. But, a fumble lost the ball and SOC had possession on the seven, three plays into the final period.

SOC failed to make headway and punted. OTI drove from midfield and, after an exchange of 15-yard penalties and a 19-yard Glines to Ventura pass, had the ball on the 14. Another Glines throw to Ventura was incomplete. Dirksen's field goal, blocked by Ron Baker, was the Raiders' only score on the 17. A Bailey pass to White went for 11 yards. Then Bailey pitched out to Hood, who swept right end, got a key block and raced away on his 72-yard sprint.

Drive For 42
Ashland's collegians went 42 yards in six plays with the aid of a 12-yard infraction against OTI to get their final TD. Hood and Nord had nine-yard gains and Olsen went over after first down on the two.

Oregon Tech gained 145 yards from scrimmage during the first half to 99 by the Raiders but SOC had 351 to 256 margin for the game.

Hood with his long run had 168 yards for 16 carries. Olsen ran 71 for 14 and Nord 69 for 16. Battle packed 24 times for 67 yards. Luke toed seven for 51 and Shipp had 38 yards for 17 opportunities.

Glines completed nine of 18 passes for 122 yards with his chief receiver, Ventura, catching seven for 68. Bailey also threw 18 times. He had six completions for 49 yards.

Next Wrestling On October 31
A wire enclosure will keep Tough Tony Borne and Nick Bockwinkel in the ring when they clash in the main event of a professional wrestling card at Medford armory on Thursday night, Oct. 31. There will be no matches this week because of the International Flea Market being held at the armory.

Borne consistently ran outside of the ring and their match ended outside last week, an enclosure of chicken wire will be erected to keep both men inside. The winner will be decided by the best two out of three falls with no time limit.

Borne, who won the coast junior heavyweight championship from Rocky Colombo here last June, has agreed to put his crown on the block against Bockwinkel.

Two other matches, expected to be announced early next week, will complete the card.

NORD GAINS—Dave Nord, Southern Oregon, Ben Branham (75), Carl Schultz (51) and is brought down by unidentified Oregon Tech tacklers in third quarter of Oregon Collegiate Conference football game at Ashland on Saturday night. Coming up on play are OTI players.

Sahara Golf Taken by Nicklaus

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus, crown prince of the professional golfers, leaves on a trip around the world today — and he won't have to worry about the expenses.

He hit the jackpot in Las Vegas Sunday — and that's a pretty tough feat to accomplish in any gambling town — when he captured the $70,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament. The victory was worth $13,000 to Jack — plus a new car, which he plans to give to his father.

Nicklaus grabbed the big money here Sunday by overcoming a two-stroke lead that lanky Al Geiberger had going into the last nine holes.

He wound up shooting a two-under-par 69 on the final round against 70s for Geiberger and Gay Brewer. Jack had a 72-hole score of 276 against 277 for the other two. They each collected $2,500, which is more than most tournaments pay for first place.

Bobby Nichols, Tommy Aaron and Don Whitte came next with 278s, each collecting $3,233.44; while Rex Baxter and Don January had 280s, good for $2,500.

Palmer, who had been listed as a 3-1 co-favorite with Nicklaus to win the crown, finished far back in the pack with a 285, which paid off to the tune of $675.

Webb Suggests Eliminating Series Off Days

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, said Saturday that he was going to speak to baseball Commissioner Ford Frick about the possibility of eliminating the "off" days in the World Series.

"In this age of fast travel, when you can get from New York to Los Angeles or San Francisco in five or six hours, I can't see any reason why there should be one day-off between the games," said Webb.

Webb, visiting some of his properties here while seeing the $70,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament, said he had talked to Frick about the layoff between Series games before.

"He said it was taking too much of a chance to schedule the games without a day off," said Webb. "But I can't see it."

"Millions of people get a 11 worked up about the World Series. The excitement is at fever pitch. Then there is a let-down while the teams take that day off."

Three Perfect Shoot Scores
Merit Simmons and Ed Prasse in 16-yard trapshooting at Medford Gun Club Sunday and Mike Drake also had 25 straight in handicap gunning.

In the 16-yard trap, Floyd Young and Charles Bendel had 24 of 25 scores. Busting 23 clay birds were Tony Hoover, Keith Rowland, Drake, Ray Coleman and Bill Jones.

Harry Cawker cracked 23 in handicap firing and Young paced sheet with 21.

Shooting is scheduled again on Oct. 27.

SPORTS

Olympic Committee Similar To Those Of United Nations

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
Tobin Rote, a quarterback who loves to throw "the big bomb," fired a couple Sunday that made the Western Division of the American Football League a "disaster area."

At the same time the 14-year-veteran of pro football all but clinched an AFL playoff berth for the San Diego Chargers and made Sid Gillman a strong candidate for coach of the year honors.

The 35-year-old Rote, a former star with the Green Bay Packers and Detroit Lions in the National Football League and the Toronto Argonauts in the Canadian Football League, completed 16 of 22 passes for 286 yards and two touchdowns Sunday to lead the Chargers to a 23-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs. The win gave the Chargers a 5-1 season record and a 2½-game stranglehold on first place at the halfway mark of the schedule.

The Eastern Division race was thrown into a turmoil, meanwhile, when the Houston Oilers defeated the Buffalo Bills, 28-14, and the Oakland Raiders whipped the New York Jets, 49-26.

The Oilers are now tied for first place with the Boston Patriots, who beat the Denver Broncos, 40-21, Friday night, with the Jets a half-game behind them. Houston and Boston are 4-3 each and New York is 3-3.

George Blanda threw three touchdowns passes of 20 and 30 yards for the Oilers, who struck for three touchdowns in the second period after a scoreless first session. Jack Kemp produced both Buffalo scores on passes of four yards to Bill Miller and 55 to Ernie Warwick.

Clem Daniels, 226-pound half-back from Prairie View A&M, gained 200 yards rushing — 16 short of the league mark — and scored on runs of 66, 74 and 8 yards to lead the Raiders to their crushing victory over the Jets. Cotton Davidson weighed in with three touchdown passes for Oakland. Galen Hall threw a 48-yard touchdown pass and plunged one yard for a six-pointer for the Jets.

Receivers Gain Credit for OSU
CORVALLIS (UPI) — "Our receivers won the game for us," Coach Tommy Prothro said after his Oregon State Beavers posted a 30-6 Homecoming football win over Washington State Saturday.

Specifically, Prothro referred to star end Vern Burke, who caught touchdown passes of 8 and 21 yards from quarterback Gordon Queen.

"I've never seen anybody who can get open like he does," he said. "He gave us the opportunity to run more of our other plays."

Burke, who set NCAA records by catching 69 passes for 1,067 yards last season, caught six passes for 78 yards. He has 19 catches for 308 yards and six touchdowns this season.

Knocked Us Down
Washington State Coach Jim Sutherland saw it this way: "They just knocked us down and ran over us. In the second half, Oregon State beat us physically at the line of scrimmage. They outmanned us."

The game left Oregon State 4-1 and the Cougars 1-5-1 for the season.
The Beavers meet powerful Syracuse next Saturday at Syracuse. Washington State is at Army.

Tobin Rote's Bombs Spark Chargers to 38-17 Verdict

BADEN-BADEN, Germany, (UPI) — Members of the International Olympic Committee — the "United Nations of Sports" — packed their bats today and headed for home after weeklong discussions which would have done the real U.N. proud.

They talked a lot, and accomplished a lot. But most of the chatter would have left an ordinary sportsman reeling.

There were discussions on apartheid, governments, divided nations, undivided nations, flats, anthems, fanfares, cocktail parties, old "Nazi-style" salutes, "provisional" titles, the Moscow test ban treaty and awards for team dress at games.

In between, the site of the 1968 Olympics was decided — Mexico City. There'll be only 17

Medford sophomores are scheduled to play the Eagle Point junior varsity football team at Eagle Point this evening.

Ashland sophomores are slated to vie at Grants Pass. A Tuesday evening game will match the Phoenix junior varsity against the Crater Rockets at Central Point. Games are set for 7 p.m.

Seattle Totems Serve Notice

By United Press International
The Seattle Totems served notice Sunday night that they'll be a threat in the 1963 Western Hockey League race by downing the rugged defending champions from San Francisco, 5-2 for their third straight victory.

The Los Angeles Blades battled overtime to defeat the Portland Buckaroos, 5-4, in the only other game played.

A crowd of 4,338 turned out at the Seattle arena, where the Totems scattered their scoring pretty much among the team. Goals were scored by Jim Powers, Bob Barlow, Guyle Fielder, Bev Bell and captain Bill MacFarland.

Al Nicholson scored one of San Francisco's goals and got an assist on the other, by Pete Panagabko.

A howling crowd of 6,884 fans at Portland saw former Buckaroo Gordon Haworth fire the winning shot past goalie Don Head to give Los Angeles its overtime victory.

after journeys from their village to the track and horses will be provided for modern pentathlon teams at Mexico City.

Big Row
For the sports fan, that, in a nutshell, was that.

For the rest of the time, the white-pillared kurhaus or "cure house" in this hill-surrounded watering resort, echoed noises which had a definite non-sporting sound.

There was such a row after the four cities bidding for the 1968 summer games had presented their cases it was decided the press will be barred from the presentations for the 1968 Winter Olympics. It appears the sportswriters were overly impressed by Detroit's super show here — and said so.

But the poor sportswriters weren't to know that the IOC voters had already made up their minds that the games were to go to Latin America. "United Nations you say," moaned one veteran neutral on the IOC. "They're worse than the United Nations."

Signal Call Footballers Dominate

By SCOTT BAILLIE
UPI Sports Writer
Get that quarterback! They're dominating the West Coast football scene today and it will be a battle to pick the best in the area when the season ends.

How about Southern California's Pete Beathard who came into his own at last Saturday and led the Trojans to a 32-3 upset of fourth ranked Ohio State.

Or California's Craig Morton, whose five touchdown passes set a school mark and led the Bears to a 34-13 blitzing of San Jose State.

Then there's Gordon Queen, Terry Baker's successor at Oregon State, who found the key after some groping and threw three TD's in the Beavers 30-6 rout of Washington State.

Douglas Hits Passes
Quarterback Bill Douglas connected on two touchdown passes to get Washington past hard luck Stanford, 19-11, in the fourth straight loss for the Indians who are dying because their top signal caller is out for the year.

And Bob Berry, Oregon's sharp quarterback, gained 190 yards passing as he directed the Ducks to a 28-12 win over Arizona.

It will be Beathard versus Morton next Saturday when Southern Cal comes to Berkeley to open defense of its Big Six title against California.

In other games, Notre Dame's Irish—who have uncovered a hot quarterback of their own in Frank Budka—will be at Stanford favored to hand the Indians their fifth straight loss. The rest of the slate features Illinois at UCLA, Friday, Washington at Oregon, Washington State at Army, Oregon State at Syracuse, San Jose State at Idaho and the University of the Pacific at Utah State.
