Victor in Race
 MONTEREY, Calif. (UPI) — Dave MacDonald of El Monte, Calif., made it two in a row Sunday by driving his Cooper Cobra to victory in the fourth annual Pacific Grand Prix at the twisting Laguna Seca course.

MacDonald, who captured the Riverside Grand Prix last week, raced his car around the 100-lap, 1.9 mile course Sunday in two hours and nine minutes for an average speed of 53.2 miles per hour. A crowd estimated at 70,000 watched the performance. The El Monte driver suffered severe blisters on his left hand trying to keep his car from slipping out of third gear during a good part of the race. However, he hit speeds up to 129.4 mph after taking the lead at the end of the 50th lap and held his advantage the rest of the way.

Former Indianapolis 500 champion A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., driving a Scarab Olds, came in second, Jim Hall of Midland, Tex., at the wheel of a rear-engine Chaparral which he designed and built himself, was third. Dave Rideout of San Francisco was fourth in his Genie Buick.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Robert Bellinger Jr., Gonzaga University freshman and son of the late New York football Giants tackle, today will receive the annual Timothy J. Mara scholarship award at the weekly luncheon of the Professional Football Quarterbacks of New York. The award, which carries a stipend of $2,500, is presented each year to a needy child of a former member of the Giants organization.

Halas Says His Team Not Upset

—George Halas refused to concede today that his Chicago Bears actually were upset by the San Francisco Forty Niners but he settled for the fact that they lost.

"Upset? There is no such thing as an upset in this league," the paternal coach said in the Bears' locker room Sunday while helping the equipment manager pack up. "Any team in the National Football League can win."

And by rag-tag Forty Niners, led by cast-off quarterback Lamar McHan, proved him right as they stunned Chicago 20-14.

It marked the first setback in six games this season for the Western Division pace-setters while the Forty Niners ended a 12 game losing streak that dated back to last season and included this summer's exhibition fiasco.

"We'll just try to play better next Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles and I'm sure we will," Halas continued in his unruffled manner. "The Forty Niners were an aroused team that was hitting. We were flat."

The shocker was a sweet one for Jack Christiansen, the former Detroit Lions' defensive ace, who took over for coach Red Hickey three weeks ago. After trying to find the combination with a club that had lost twice more under his direction, Christiansen found a winner when he kept McHan in the lineup and left Bobby Waters on the bench.

Now 30 years old and recently cut loose by the Baltimore Colts, McHan went the distance while managing an offense that knocked the props from under the toughest defensive club in the league.

During the first half, McHan either hit or key passes or handed off to the revitalized J. D. Smith for terrific shots up the middle as the Forty Niners scored three times on drives of 59, 78 and 84 yards.

 EUGENE (UPI) — Oregon's offensive-minded Ducks began getting ready for Washington today following their 28-12 football victory over Arizona at Tucson Saturday.

The Ducks, who now have a 4-1 record for the season, and the Huskies, who own a 2-3 mark, collide at Portland's Multnomah Stadium next Saturday.

Quarterback Bob Berry and All-American halfback Mel Renfro sparked Oregon to its regionally televised win over the Wildcats.

Tremendous Job
 "Berry did a tremendous job, particularly in picking the Arizona defense apart," Oregon Coach Len Casanova said.

He added "Renfro, of course, played a great game."

Coach Jim LaRue of Wildcats also had high praise for the two stars of the Ducks.

 CENTRAL POINT — Central Point eighth grade football team scored its three touchdowns in the first half and held on to defeat North Grants Pass 21-14 in a Friday game at Grants Pass.

Tony Morris ran 50 yards for one Pointer TD. Doug Miller went three yards for the second and passed to Kirby Renfro for five yards and the third. Morris packed ten extra points and Keith Halsey one.

Intercepted passes set up both North touchdowns. Phil Peterson ran for one, passed to Rob Peren for the second and sneaked both extra points.

 MILWAUKEE, Ore. (UPI) — Cassie Bain of Salem won the ninth Oregon State Women's Match Game bowling championships Sunday after holding off a closing drive by Harriet Kraft of Canby.

Both won berths in the National All-Star tournament at Dallas, Tex., Jan. 4.

Bey Clancy, Milwaukee, finished third, followed by Eldina Greenwood, Klamath Falls, and Gloria Bouvia, Portland. Other finishers included Elsie Frampton, Myrtle Creek, seventh; Karen Smith, Medford, ninth, and Avis Smith, Medford, 10th.

 FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — Eighteen-year-old jockey Martinez Heath of Warm Springs, Ore., rode seven winners in nine races at the Fresno County Fair Saturday.

 With only a minute and one-half to play in the second quarter the league's weakest offensive club was riding a 17-0 lead against the Bears who entered the game 17 point favorites.

"The holes are there; that's all I know," Christiansen said. "Football is 75 per cent desire, 20 per cent plays and five per cent coaching."

His crew outtrashed the Bears 192 to 71 yards as Smith, breaking out of a prolonged slump, netted 93 yards in 17 carries.

Tommy Davis booted two field goals from 25 and 46 yards out to back up touchdowns by Jim Vollenweider and Gary Knafele.

Forty Niners Stun Chicago Bears 20-14 in Pro Grid Upset of 1963

By NORMAN MILLER
 UPI Sports Writer

Success came simultaneously Sunday to Lamar McHan, who was on the scrap-heap of pro football only three weeks ago, and to the San Francisco Forty Niners, the team that ransomed him for $100.

McHan engineered the upset of the National Football League season in directing the Forty Niners to a stunning 20-14 victory that knocked the Chicago Western Division race into a tie.

This was the Forty Niners' first triumph of the season and no team in the league cheered it more enthusiastically than McHan's old team mates, the Green Bay Packers. By drubbing the St. Louis Cardinals, 30-7, the Packers moved into a first-place tie with the Bears. Green Bay and Chicago both have 5-1 records.

In the Eastern Division, there was no stopping the Cleveland Browns as they defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 31-7, for a spotless 6-0 record. The New York Giants remained two games behind the lead by beating the Dallas Cowboys, 37-21.

Won First Game

The Los Angeles Rams, like the Forty Niners, won their first game of the year, edging the Minnesota Vikings, 27-24; the Pittsburgh Steelers rallied to beat the Washington Redskins, 38-27, and the Baltimore Colts came from behind to defeat the Detroit Lions, 25-21.

Probably no result this season, however, has staggered the league like the victory by the down-at-the-heels Forty Niners over the rough-tough Bears.

McHan, a failure with three NFL clubs (Cardinals, Packers and Colts) during his 10 pro campaigns, won the quarterback assignment because John Brodie was injured and Bob Waters was found wanting.

McHan had been claiming for the $100 waiver price when let go by the Colts three weeks ago and hardly had time to become fully accustomed to the Forty Niners' offense—such as it was.

Yet the 30-year-old Arkansas Traveler called a masterful game, handing off for a total of 192 yards to riddle a Chicago defense that had yielded a total of 300 to five stronger opponents.

Threw One TD Pass

McHan completed 10 of 20 passes for 141 yards and one touchdown. The Forty Niners jumped off to a 17-0 lead, surrendered a Chicago touchdown just before halftime, and the defense took over during the final half.

At St. Louis, the methodical Packers scored on each of their first five series of downs to make their "game-of-the-week" strictly no-contest. Green Bay controlled the ball for 48 plays during the first half, compared to 19 for the Cardinals, and out-gained the Cards, 238 yards to 58.

Jimmy Brown set an NFL rush record and Frank Ryan threw four touchdown passes in the rout against Philadelphia. Brown gained 144 yards in 25 carries to swell his career rushing total to a record 8,290. That surpassed the 8,296 yards gained by Joe Perry of the Forty Niners.

Y. A. Tittle also completed four touchdown passes in a come-from-behind win over Dallas. The 37-year-old Giants quarterback, despite a cut over the eye that needed repairing during the game, hit on 19 of 32 throws for 279 yards.

Phil King grabbed screens for two TD's and Joe Walton and Del Shofner each caught one scoring toss. The Cowboys grabbed a 17-14 halftime lead under Edgar LeBaron's direction before Tittle put the Giants ahead in the third quarter with a pair of TD passes. Dick Lynch raced 82 yards with a pass interception for New York's final score. Danny Villanueva kicked a pair of 27-yard field goals in the last quarter to earn the Rams victory over Minnesota. Roman Gabriel, who directed the Los Angeles offense, passed for one touchdown and ran for another.

Defensive backs Dick Haley and Jim Bradshaw of the Steelers capitalized on Washington mistakes to set up two last-period touchdowns that earned Pittsburgh its win. Haley intercepted a pass and ran 24 yards for a go-ahead touchdown and Bradshaw recovered a fumble that preceded Ed Brown's five-yard scoring pass to Buddy Dial.

Andy Nelson raced 26 yards with an intercepted pass in the final period for the touchdown that earned Baltimore its win at Detroit. Jim Martin of the Colts kicked field goals of 17, 45, 37 and 45 yards.
