

Meodrama Announced

Time will roll back when Footlighters present the first show of the season, slated for October 31, November 1-2 and 7, 8 and 9. The little theater group has chosen an old-fashioned melodrama "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" and Frank Pincock is directing. This is considered a fortunate choice, since Mr. Pincock once played an entire season of melodrama with a company specializing in this type of drama. The director is a former Shakespearean festival actor and is now in radio work.

The director states that the audience will not only see true "mellodrammy" style but will also be invited to hero, villain, cheer the hiss, laugh at the country bumpkin and of course, weep for the lovely heroine. He even promises a scene where Nellie is tied to the railroad tracks.

Between-scenes entertainment is being planned by Footlighter members.

Ayres To Mark Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ayres will be honored at an open house Sunday, October 27, in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary. Friends are invited to call at their home, 26 South Orange street, between 2 and 4 o'clock.

Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. Bernice Brahs, Medford, Mrs. Ayers' mother; Mrs. Jane Ayers, Ashland, mother of Mr. Ayres; Mrs. Frank Brahs, Yreka, Calif., sister-in-law of Mrs. Ayres, and Mrs. William Turner, Brownsville, Ore., daughter of the honored couple.

Mr. Ayres teaches music in the Medford public school system.

The Ayers were married October 28, 1938, on the 22nd wedding anniversary of Mrs. Ayers' parents, the late Walter Brahs and Mrs. Brahs. It was also her father's birthday anniversary, since her parents had been married on Mr. Brahs' birthday.

Couple Returns From Arizona

O'BRIEN — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Markey have returned from a trip to Arizona where they are occupied in missionary work with the Indians. They delivered a large quantity of used clothing which Mrs. Markey had been gathering and packing during the summer.

Ashland Woman Is Re-Elected

ASHLAND—Mrs. E. L. Hamaker was recently re-elected to serve a second term as president of the Ashland Senior Citizens club. A report of the election stated erroneously that Mrs. Arthur Hamaker had been named to the office.

Continuing a project started several years ago, children of several Sunday schools of the valley are cooperating in the annual Halloween UNICEF project. They prepare small milk cartons with UNICEF labels and children use these to collect coins to buy food and medicine for children in underdeveloped countries.

Two Zontians Will Attend Fall Meeting

Two Medford Zonta club members, Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck and Mrs. Jane Hundley, will attend the annual fall conference of District VIII of Zonta International which will be held at Marcus Whitman hotel, Walla Walla, Washington, October 24, 25 and 26.

Mrs. Winklebleck is district service chairman and will preside over a service committee workshop. She is also the delegate for the Medford club. Mrs. Hundley is alternate delegate. Miss Jessie Church, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, who is governor of District VIII, recently announced that one of the Amelia Earhart scholarships in "Aero-Space Sciences" was awarded to Donna Marie Carhr, a Calgary girl so is from District VIII.

Members are reminded that the November meetings will be November 7 and November 21.

Wig Warning (UPI) — When a wig becomes dull or dirty, it should be cleaned, but never with a shampoo.

Water will shrink the base of the wig and cause it to become ill-fitting. Use a dry cleaning fluid, suggests the Goody Hair Information Center.

Klamath Group Visits Court

Several members of Friendship club, Order of the Amaranth, attended the last meeting of Roxy Ann court here. In the visiting group were Mrs. Velma Krauss, royal matron; Frank McCornack, royal patron; and Mesdames McCornack, Geneva Swift, Leona Angel, and Mary Wells.

They staged an addendum in honor of Mrs. Hal Bishop, royal matron of Roxy Ann court, it being her birthday anniversary. Roxy Ann court also gave an addendum and presented Mrs. Bishop birthday cards.

Committee members of the local court were also honored. This group included Frank Salyers, Mrs. Lawrence Messal, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reynolds, Fred Purdin, Mrs. Joseph Jacques, Mrs. J. White, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Swing, Mrs. Walter Cummings and Mrs. Frank W. Little, who is also grand committee member of the Oregon grand court.

An obligation ceremony was observed, with all members participating.

Mrs. Esther Coleman was refreshment chairman. Mrs. Edith Harvey, a past royal matron of Mt. Diablo court, California, was a guest.

United Nations To Be Topic For Women of Unity

The United Nations will be the topic for a meeting of Women of Unity Friday, October 25, at 11 a.m. in the Unity church, Holly and Haven streets.

Mrs. Edgar N. Terrill, Talent, president, will conduct a business session. The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister, will give the devotionals.

A luncheon, honoring past presidents of the Women of Unity, will be served at 12 noon. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. Frank Lamb, Mrs. Alta Bance, and Mrs. Ethel Lilli.

At 1 p.m. Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., guest speaker, will talk on "United Nations or Nationalism." She will also give a resume of her recent trip to the United Nations.

Mrs. Robert McKay, Ashland, will sing two numbers.

This is a non-sectarian group, and any woman interested is invited to attend.

Pen Saver (UPI) — One way to keep anyone who borrowed a fountain pen from keeping it is offered owners by one manufacturer. Simply retain the cap when loaning the pen. The borrower is less likely to forget the loan. (Parker).

Bureau Women Give Reports On Conference

MONTAGUE — Election of officers and reports from a conference for Farm Bureau Women were highlights of the Center meeting of the Shasta Valley Farm Bureau held at the club room in Montague, Tuesday, October 15.

Gary Townley was elected the chairman of the group for the year of 1964. Serving with him as vice chairman is Roland Dexter. Mrs. Bob Hogan was re-elected to serve as secretary-treasurer. Delegates are John McMurry, Carl Ric and Cyril Cook.

The outgoing chairman, John McMurry, conducted the session until officers were elected. Mr. Townley then led discussion on a number of resolutions coming before the state meeting next month.

Mrs. George Flock, who attended the Farm Bureau Women's conference in Berkeley on October 9, gave a report of the session, including one given by CFBF President Louis A. Rozzoni, who had just returned from Europe for a study of the Common Market. Mrs. Flock stated that Mrs. Mary Casey, Santa Rosa, had been elected the new state chairman and Mrs. Marie Goodwin, Trinity county, vice chairman.

Mrs. Roy Townley, who also attended the Berkeley session, told of the Farm Bureau "Mother of the Year." Mrs. Elena Zelayeta of Contra Costa county. Becoming totally blind during her third pregnancy, Mrs. Zelayeta rose from utter despondency and was rehabilitated to such an extent that she not only learned how to cook and do all her work, but became a teacher and inspiration to others who needed her help. She wrote several books including, "Lessons in Living."

Officer Visits Auxiliary Here

Mrs. Frank Owens, Portland, department commander of Disabled American Veterans auxiliary visited the Jackson county unit at the last meeting. She was accompanied here by Mrs. Joseph Brady, Beaverton, department of Oregon adjutant. Mrs. Owens announced the state convention will be held in Eugene next June.

A "welcome back" dinner was given the auxiliary, on vacation since July, by the chapter, J. P. Graham was the chef for the dinner and prepared enchiladas.

Mrs. Hazel Rawles reported that a Halloween party for the Camp White domiciliary members will be held Friday, October 25. Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Lucy Ford, Mrs. Edna Kilburn, and Mrs. Hazel Kinkaid will decorate for the occasion.

Six women attended the school of instruction which was held at the Camp White domiciliary recently.

Mrs. Nettie Cassman read a letter on pending legislation.

The DAV Auxiliary Sewing club will meet Thursday, October 24, at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Rawles, 345 Apple street.

A potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

Re-Appointment Is Announced

Mrs. Florence Bolton of Medford was recently reappointed to the Oregon State Advisory Committee on Laboratory Standards. Mrs. Bolton has completed a two-year term on the committee, and will now serve another two years.

Mrs. Bolton and her husband, D. J. Bolton, have operated the Medford Laboratories here for the past 29 years. She is a member of Zonta classified club for women in business and the professions, and is now serving as president.

'Mincin' Apple' Tarts Seasonal; Easily Prepared

Fall and winter are the seasons for mince-meat, apples and nuts, and "Mincin' Apple Tarts" is a quickly prepared recipe using these ingredients. Good at any time, these little tarts also can be converted for use during the holiday season or for parties.

MINCIN, APPLE TARTS
Two cups prepared mince-meat; two cups apples, pared and thinly sliced; one recipe for plain pastry for tarts; milk; sugar; one-half cup chopped nuts.

Mix mince-meat, nuts and apples. Spoon into a six 4-inch pastry-lined tart pans. Sprinkle tops with chopped nuts. Cut six 5-inch pastry circles for top crusts. With tiny star or crescent cutter, cut out center of each. Adjust top crusts, crimping edges to seal well. Brush tops with milk and sprinkle with sugar.

Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, 25 to 30 minutes or until apples are done.

For holidays or birthdays, when tarts are cool, poke a little candle or sprig of holly in the opening of each.
