THE Lighter Side... BY DICK WEST Right To Petition A Serious Matter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The right to petition Congress is firmly embedded in the Constitution and applies to all citizens, great and small.

Very few citizens, however, avail themselves of this opportunity. Oftentimes, several days will go by without anyone petitioning Congress at all.

About 30 booths, displays, cafes, and amusement attractions make up the Market which will remain open until 9 o'clock tonight. Saturday hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday hours are 1 to 5 p.m.

Woman Arraigned On Assault Charge

Mrs. Evelyn Marie Francis, 27, of 809 Oak St., was arraigned in Jackson County District Court Thursday afternoon on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Her case was continued until 9 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 31, and she was released on her own recognizance. No bail was set by Judge L. L. Sawyer at the request of the district attorney due to Mrs. Francis having children at home and continuing investigation into the case.

Mrs. Francis was arrested by Medford police early Thursday morning after her husband, John Maynard Francis, 32, was shot in the back. Francis is reported in good condition at Rogue Valley Hospital.

Highway Users Object To Signs

PORTLAND (UPI) — The Oregon Highway Users Conference has asked the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads to stop using the term "Federal Aid" on signs posted along road construction projects where federal matching funds are involved.

The conference urged use of the phrase, "Your Highway Taxes at Work," and the term "Federal Highway Trust Funds" in place of "Federal Aid."

The conference is composed of trade associations and private and public vehicle operators.

Meeting Scheduled On Discrimination

SALEM (UPI) — Oregon, pioneer of many advances in civil rights, will move into another uncharted area Tuesday in convening representatives from all levels of government for a discussion of discrimination questions relating to race, religion or ancestry.

The conference will be held in the House chamber in the Capitol Building, starting at 9:30 a.m.

State Civil Rights Administrator Mark A. Smith says it is the first time a state has invited city and county as well as state officials to discuss ways in which equal opportunity can be afforded minority groups.

Gov. Mark Hatfield will keynote the conference.

Manslaughter Verdict Returned

BAKER (UPI) — A Baker County Circuit Court jury found Dorrel G. Dotson, 51, of Sumpter, guilty of manslaughter Thursday night after deliberating a little more than three hours.

Dotson had been charged with second degree murder in the fatal shooting of Camillus P. Lawrence, 67, also of Sumpter, outside of Dotson's home April 10. Judge Lyle Wolff set sentencing for Tuesday.

The trial, the second on the charge, began Monday. The first one began Oct. 14 and was declared a mistrial three days later when portions of recordings introduced as evidence could not be understood.

Dotson testified he shot in self-defense after Lawrence threatened him.
