Portland Staters Trip SOC Raiders With TD Aerials

PORTLAND—Portland State's aerial combination of Terry Schrunk to Jim Hollingsworth wrecked the dreams of Southern Oregon for a third successive Oregon Collegiate Conference football title here on Saturday.

The two teamed for 148 yards and all three touchdowns at Franklin High field as the Vikings rallied by the defending champions 19-14.

This was the first football victory for PSC over Southern Oregon in 12 battles between the clubs. Triumph gave the Viks a 3-0 record with Oregon College yet to play. SOC completed league play with a 3-1 standing. Portland is favored to smash OCE aggregation.

PSC twice came from behind in the contest. Viking TD passes, Schrunk to Hollingsworth were for 25 yards in the first quarter, 20 in the second and for 35 in the fourth. The Portlanders converted after their third TD.

SOC Marches 70

Southern Oregon marched 70 yards for the first score of the afternoon. Olsen crossed from the three - yard line and toed the extra point. Portland had a 12-7 halftime lead. In the third period the Raiders nabbed a Viking fumble on the PSC 30 and moved in to the goal. Olsen tabulated on an eight-yard sweep and again added the bonus tally. That made it 14-12 for SOC.

"It was a real good game," said SOC Coach Al Akins. "It could have gone either way. Hollingsworth is just a great big target and we couldn't contain him. They're a senior ball club. We're young and made a few mistakes but we'll pick up the pieces."

While the air assault won the game for Portland, it was Southern Oregon's Bill Bailey who filed the air with passes. He connected on 19 of 43 throws for a total of 172 yards. Schrunk found receivers on 11 of 16 for 175.

Andy Berkis gained 70 yards for the Viks on 24 rushing plays. Billy (Bye Bye) White picked up 52 on eight. For SOC Olsen toted 12 times for 57 yards, Mike Hood 14 for 44 and Nord eight for 32.

Olsen caught seven passes for 43 yards and SOC's Bill White three for 53.

Coffey Grinds for Two TDs, Huskies Top Ducks 26-19

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Fullback Junior Coffey, starting his first game of the season, Saturday powered over for the winning touchdown in the final moments as Washington took Oregon in their annual cliffhanger, 26-19.

Coffey, who packed the ball 30 times for 112 yards, climaxed the thriller with a four - yard plunge with just 3:48 left on the clock.

The 205-pound junior from Dimmitt, Tex., got plenty of help from quarterback Bill Douglas and a tough Washington line as the Huskies won their third straight after three losses.

Scoring Passes

Coffey also scored the first Washington touchdown on a 1-yard plunge, while Douglas had scoring passes of 29 yards to end Ab Libke and 10 yards to halfback Dave Kopay.

All three Oregon touchdowns came on passes by quarterback Bob Berry. The brilliant junior hit end Dick Imwalle for two of them — for 6 and 47 yards — and put the Webfoots ahead briefly in the third quarter with a 28-yard pass to end Rich Schwab.

Oregon's hopes were jolted midway in the third period when All-America halfback Mel Renfro was shaken up while returning a kickoff. He sat out the rest of the game.

A crowd of 35,690 packed Multnomah stadium on a cool, partly overcast day and another 4,047 fans saw the game across the city at Memorial coliseum on closed - circuit television.

Washington marched 69 yards in 13 plays with the opening kickoff, with Coffey carrying the ball half a dozen times before he scored.

Oregon got the touchown back on Berry's first pass to Imwalle, which was set up when Coffey fumbled on his own 31.

Missed Pass

Washington then moved 30 yards to go ahead 13-6. Douglas had a 30-yard run in that drive. Berry's long pass to Imwalle and a missed two-point conversion pass made it 13-12 for Washington at halftime.

The Webfoots, now 4-2 for the season, went ahead 19-13 in the third quarter when a bad pass from center on a punt gave them the ball on the Husky 28.

Berry hit Schwab for the score on the first play.

But Douglas and Coffey moved the Huskies 69 yards in 8 plays to tie it up and set the stage for Washington's last quarter drive of 58 yards.

Oregon attempted to save the game as Berry's passes moved the ball to the Washington 17, but halfback Dennis Keller fumbled after catching a pass at that point and on-the-spot Rick Redman fell on it for Washington.

Washington now has won 32 games to 20 for Oregon with 5 ties in their series.

Coffey missed Washington's first four games with a broken foot bone and carried the ball only four times last week.

Hedrick 9th Defeats KF

Hedrick Junior High ninth grade football team scored with about two minutes left to play to break a deadlock and edge Klamath Union freshmen 14-7 at Klamath Falls yesterday.

Dick Orr's pass interception set up the winning TD. He ran the ball from the 25-yard line to the two. Phil Hackworth ran it over from there and also carried for the extra point.

First half of the game was scoreless. In the third quarter the Hornet's goaled on a Bill Atwood to Hackworth pass for 40 yards. Hackworth ran the bonus.

Real Good Defense

Rick Brosterhaus scored for KF on a two-yard play and passed to Mike Carlson for the conversion.

The Hornets turned in real good defense and Klamath netted only 10 yards running in the second half. Heading Hedrick defense were Russ Ferguson, middle guard; Ray Curl, tackle, and Steve Johnson, end. Hackworth gained 66 yards on 19 carries.

The Medford team had 171 to 88 net scrimmage yardage with 91 rushing and 80 passing. Klamath got 38 yards on the ground and 52 in the air. First downs were six to four for Hedrick.

Pelicans Champions In Cross-Country

Gerald Brown, Ashland High, was the individual winner and Klamath Falls the team champ yesterday morning in the District 6 A-1 cross-country run on Roxy Ann Butte east of Medford. Brown covered the 1.8 miles in a tremendous 9:44, by far the fastest time that has been turned in on the course.

Klamath Falls, whose first runner to cross the finish, Bob Scholl, gained fifth individual place, scored 53 points.

Medford was second with 57, Grants Pass third with 64, Ashland fourth with 66 and Crater fifth with 90.

Medford runners Greg Swanson (10:05), Doug Eakin (10:15) and Duane Mallams (10:16) were second, third and fourth in the chase. Mike Miller finished 23rd and Rusty Smith 25th.

Klamath's placings after Scholl were Merkel Britt, sixth; Terry Metler, 10th; Ralph Totton, 11th, and Terry Maw, 21st.

For Grants Pass it was Daryl Close, seventh; Cliff Lyons, ninth; Tom Woods, 13th; Bob Woodley, 15th, and Dan Shepard, 20th.

After Brown for Ashland were Keith Munson, eighth; Hooper, 17th; Earl Iba, 18th, and Mike Dawkins, 22nd.

Crater had Gary Price, 12th; Dave Skelton, 14th; Mike Turner, 16th; Dan Mainwaring, 19th, and Lawrence Meyer, 29th.

Brown and the Klamath Falls and Medford teams qualified for the state run. The first two teams and the first five individuals, regardless of team, in district go to state. Three of the first five were from Medford and one from Klamath.

The state meet will be next Saturday at Willamette University in Salam.

Frosh Nick Rooks 8-6

EUGENE (UPI) — A two - point conversion pass from quarterback Tom Jernstedt to end Steve Bunker gave the Oregon Frosh an 8-6 football victory over the Oregon State Rooks before an estimated 2,500 persons Friday.

The decision left Oregon with a 2-0 record and Oregon State with an 0-1 mark.

The Frosh scored in the first period on a two-yard touchdown plunge by halfback Tim Temple and Jernstedt's conversion pass to Bunker.

The score was set up by a 27-yard pass interception runback by halfback Jim Sulkosky.

The Rooks tallied in the final period on a three-yard run by fullback Pete Pifer but a conversion pass attempt from quarterback Bob Grim to halfback Jack Lowery was knocked down.

Oregon rolled up a 17-12 edge in first downs and a 330-191 margin in total yardage.

Hoffman, Story Place One, Two

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Norm Hoffman and Dale Story finished first and second as the Staters Track and Field Club captured a four-way cross country meet Friday.

Hoffman and Story were given identical 20:32 times over the four-mile course.

Oregon State was second with 35 points. Lewis and Clark was third and Portland State was fourth.

The Oregon State Rooks "A" team won the freshman division, followed by Clark Junior College, Staters TFC, Lower Columbia JC and the Rooks "B" team.

EFFIGY HANGED

PORTLAND (UPI) — Oregon Athletic Director Leo Harris was hanged in effigy at Portland State College Friday.

A sign with the effigy criticized the closed-circuit televising here of the Oregon-Washington football game today.

Roseburg, Grant Take Opponents

By United Press International

Unbeaten Roseburg, the top-ranked team in the Oregon Journal Class A-1 high school football poll, defeated South Eugene 21-0 at Roseburg for its seventh straight win of the season Friday night.

Third-rated Grants Pass topped Crater 12-0 at Grants Pass.

Fourth-ranked Grant edged Marshall 6-0 at Portland and fifth-rated Pendleton walloped Prineville at 34-0 at Prineville in a rough contest marked by the ejection of several players on both teams. Grant and Pendleton also have 7-0 records, and the victory gave Pendleton at least a tie for the Intermountain Conference championship.

Central Catholic, seventh in the poll, won over Astoria 14-0 at Astoria and Beaverton, No. 8, nipped Sunset 27-26 at Beaverton.

Parkrose, ranked 10th, defeated Reynolds 25-0 at Troutdale to clinch at least a tie for the Wilco League title. The Broncs are the only other team in the top 10 with a 7-0 mark.

Sixth-ranked North Salem plays Albany at Salem and ninth-rated Cottage Grove meets Sheldon at Eugene tonight.

Second-ranked Medford is idle this weekend.

Phoenix, the top-rated team in the Class A-2 poll, shut out Illinois Valley 25-0 at Cave Junction.

Ski Show Called Off Because of No Snow

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Local ski jump fans will try again tonight to watch the giant international ski show at Dodger Stadium.

The show was scheduled to open Friday night, but had to be canceled because it didn't snow.

The machines which were to cover the jump with snow failed to operate, and some 3,000 fans had to be invited back for tonight's performance.

Show officials said fuses kept blowing out when they tried to turn on the machines.

Syracuse Rolls Over OSU 31 to 8; McQueen Stymied

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI) — Syracuse crushed outclassed Oregon State Saturday, 31-8, with an impregnable defense and touchdown drives engineered by alternate quarterbacks Rich King and Ted Holman.

King unleashed the best aerial attack 12th ranked Syracuse has shown in two years and personally set up two touchdowns.

Holman, also playing defense, picked off two of three interceptions as the Orange defense ripped apart the Oregon State offense.

King completed seven of 10 passes in succession in the second half for 105 yards. He carried to the one-yard line in the second quarter and Billy Hunter drove over for the touchdown. In the third period, King took the ball to the two and then handed off to Lon Oyer, who went in for the touchdown.

The Orange defense forced Oregon State to fumble three times, and Syracuse capitalized on all of them.

It was Syracuse's fifth win against one loss. Oregon State now is 4 and 2.

Fullback Charlie Shaw gave the Beavers their only touchdown when he raced 80 yards on the opening play of the second period. A two-point conversion temporarily gave Oregon State a one point lead which was soon erased by Hunter's dive.

Injured Knee

Holman and King took over for regular quarterback Walley Mahle, who injured his left knee and left the game in the second period. Mahle had directed the first touchdown drive in the first period and when he rammed through from the four he fumbled at the one but end Dick Bowman recovered in the end zone for the touchdown.

The Beavers made two final threats with less than two minutes to go in the game inside the Orange five but both times the Syracuse defense broke up the highly rated Gordon Queento-Vern Burke passing combination.

Klamath Falls Records First Gridiron Victory

KLAMATH FALLS — After six failures, the Klamath Union High School Pelicans won their first football game of the season here on Friday night.

The Pels, with two touchdowns in the second period, subdued Ashland 13-0 in a lacklustter Southern Oregon Conference tangle.

Mike Kitching, who slipped away after being hit behind the line of scrimmage, went 16 yards for one touchdown. John Parisotto sneaked one yard for the other with 41 seconds left in the half. Don Plowman kicked one extra point.

Grizzlies Beaten

Second touchdown followed a fumble by Ashland's Dave Lohman on the Grizzly 20-yard line.

Ashland made scoring threats. A pass interception stopped the Bruins after they reached the KF 22-yard line in the first quarter. In the fourth canto the Grizzlies gained to the Pel 19 and fumbled.

Ashland was without the services of quarterback Dave Barger, who hurt his knee last week. Dave Lohman took over the QB chores.

The Pels are now 1-2 in the conference and Ashland is 0-2.
