

Wyatt-Urie Ceremony Held

Miss Sharyn Elaine Urie became the bride of Thomas William Wyatt III October 18 in one of the valley's larger autumn weddings. The ceremony was read at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening in First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the double ring rites witnessed by some 200 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert John Urie, 330 Hillhouse Street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Wyatt II, 630 South Holly street.

Bride Wears Lace

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta with basque bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. Her bouffant skirt was picked up in the front over a tiered ruffle of lace and tulle. A queen's crown of pearls and rhinestones held her bouffant and her bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Marilyn Barker was the honor attendant and the Misses Linda Wyatt, a sister of the bridegroom, and Sandra Nelson, Portland, a cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Lighting the candles were Miss Barbara Urie, a sister of the bride and Edward Wyatt, a brother of the bridegroom.

Gowns of Satin

The matching frocks worn by the bride's attendants were of emerald green brocaded satin. The street length bell-shaped skirts were accented with bows at the back waistlines and their headbands were of green velvet. They carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Miss Barbara Urie was dressed in a champagne colored organza frock and her wristlet was of matching colored carnations.

Stanley A. Newnham, Gold Hill, a cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Larry Wyatt, a brother of the bridegroom; James Freeman, Sams Valley; and Gary Niedermeyer and Robert Walker.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. A. L. Clay was soloist and Mrs. Norman Thames was organist.

Reception at Church

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Urie wore a metallic knit dress with antique gold accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a green wool sheath dress with bone color accessories. Both had orchid corsages, Mrs. Urie's gold and Mrs. Wyatt's green.

The reception which followed was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship hall of the church.

Pouring coffee was Mrs. Robert L. Butler and presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Pamela Hosick. Mrs. Dale A. Monroe and Mrs. Henry Myhre cut and served the wedding cake.

Miss Roma Sims had charge of the guest book and Miss Marta Luther was at the gift table. Miss Linda Grimes served the bridegroom's cake.

The bride's table was decorated with an epergne and candle arrangement of white pompon chrysanthemums and miniature gold carnations. On the serving table was a wedding candelier of white tapers and white flowers.

The couple made their wedding trip to Diamond Lake Resort.

They are living at 222 South Ivy street.

Grandparents Attend

Among the guests at the wedding and reception were three couples of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Urie, Ashland, paternal grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Allen, Tacoma, Wash., her maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fosse, Medford, maternal grandparents of the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thorburn, Portland, relatives of the bride; Ernest Wold and Darrell Wold, Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. William E. Nelson and family, Portland, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mrs. Nita Nelson, and Miss Helen Bailey, both Portland, Miss Christel Nierobisch, a student at Southern Oregon college from Berlin, Germany, and Miss Peggy Riechers, a classmate.

The bride is a 1963 Medford High school graduate and is employed as a secretary for Darling, Inc., realtors, and the bridegroom was graduated in 1962 from Bandon High school. He is employed by Dave Bechtel, Inc., Talent, as a truck driver and warehouseman.

The wedding rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's parents in their home.

Pre-wedding events included a shower given by Miss Barker, the honor attendant and her mother, Mrs. Ray Barker. Miscellaneous gifts were given the bride-elect. A kitchen and recipe shower was given by Mrs. Jack A. Edson.

Reception in Portland Honors Officer, Bride

Capt. and Mrs. Michael R. DeVore, whose marriage in Honolulu, Hawaii, was an event of October 13, are to be honored at a reception set for today in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norton A. Peters, Portland. The bride is the former Miss Carolyn Ann Peters.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ronald DeVore, 806 East Jackson street, Medford, who are in Portland to attend the event.

The newly married couple

Couple Married In Happy Camp

HAPPY CAMP — The home of the bride here was the setting for the marriage of Darlene Hegler and Cornelius Aitebur both of Happy Camp, on the evening of October 11. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Helen Loucks.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a pink sheath with matching headpiece and white accessories. Attending the young couple were Miss Donna Halstead, and Tom Hegler, a brother of the bride, both of Happy Camp.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hegler, Happy Camp. Mrs. Hegler wore a green nylon sheath dress with white accessories.

The young couple are at home in Happy Camp where the bridegroom is employed.

Wedding Date Set By Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Clark, 2118 Dellwood avenue, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to Glenn L. Vandergaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Vandergaw, Lakeview, Ore.

The bride-elect was graduated in 1959 from Medford High school, attended Lewis and Clark college and was graduated from Southern Oregon College. She is now teaching in Hayward, Calif.

The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Lakeview High school and Southern Oregon college and is now doing graduate work at the college.

A December 29 wedding is planned at Westminster Presbyterian church in Medford.

Neighbors Plan Potluck Dinner

A potluck dinner will be held Monday, October 23, by Chrysanthemum Circle of Neighbors of Woodcraft at the Eagles hall. The dinner will be at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Naffziger will be in charge of the committee for the evening. Members may take guests.

Miss Elva Bratton (Brainerd photo)

Graduate Nurse And Minister To Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Ritchie, Glenside, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jane Louise Ritchie, to the Rev. L. Allen Marsh, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Allen Marsh, 701 West Jackson Street, Medford.

Miss Ritchie, a graduate of Abington High School, Abington, Pa., was graduated from Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa., and is a registered nurse. She spent three years as assistant head nurse at Pontiac General Hospital, Pontiac, Mich. Miss Ritchie attended Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, and is continuing her studies toward a bachelor degree in nursing at the University of Washington, Seattle.

The Rev. Mr. Marsh received his bachelor of arts degree from Seattle Pacific College in Washington and B.D. degree from Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Ky. He was ordained in the Free Methodist Church in July, 1963. The minister is preparing for overseas missionary service by serving his first pastorate at Courtenay Free Methodist Church, Courtenay, B. C., Canada.

On occasion, the Rev. Mr. Marsh has spoken at the Free Methodist Church of Medford while visiting his parents here.

The wedding will be held at Seattle during the holidays.

Holiday Date Set by Pair

Miss Elva Bratton and Roger L. Macy have chosen a holiday date for their wedding rites. Announcement of their forthcoming marriage has been made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bratton Jr., 613 Carrington street.

The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Macy, Klamath Falls.

Miss Bratton is a 1962 graduate of Medford High school. She attended Southern Oregon college and currently is employed at Southern Oregon Lease company.

Her fiancé, who was graduated the same year from Klamath Union High school, is attending Wenatchee Junior college, Wenatchee, Wash.

The ceremony is to be read December 22 in St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Prevent drips of candle wax from falling onto table linens by putting the candles in the refrigerator for several hours before lighting them, says the American Institute of Laundering.

Eagle Point Community Plans Bazaar Saturday

EAGLE POINT—Plans for the Eagle Point community bazaar, to be held Saturday, November 2 from 12 to 9 p.m. at the Grange hall will be completed early this week.

Women of the Home Economics Club of the Eagle Point Grange, who are sponsoring the bazaar are busily completing articles for the fancy work table, making breads, cakes and other delicacies for the cooked food sale as well as getting food prepared for the refreshment booth.

A number of organizations and individuals from the community have told of plans for bazaar booths. The local garden clubs, extension units and a sorority chapter have announced their plans and several individuals will display hobbies.

One group is making doll clothes; another will have greeting cards and recipe cards; one will have a booth with pomanders, while a rummage sale is being held by another. One woman from the White City area, who has a greenhouse, will feature African Violets and winter plants such as Christmas cactus.

During the afternoon and evening, Bob Cull of the Music Center will furnish music.

There is still time for an individual or club to take part in this community activity if they so desire, and arrangements may be made by contacting Mrs. W. E. Davies, dial 497-3779.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Wyatt III are shown here as they cut their wedding cake during the reception which followed their recent marriage in First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the former Miss Sharyn Elaine Urie. The bride's gown was of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta and the bouffant skirt was picked up in front over a tiered ruffle of lace and tulle and held with a lace rose. A queen's crown of pearls and rhinestones held her veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses. (Landis photo)

jean hart's

The sunburst tucks on their wool-broken only by a waist-circling leather belt. For that girl-of-the-moment look.

Calpe

Jeans

Ours Exclusively

Where you find the clothes you love to live in.

617 East Main Phone 772-8992

Fashions... For The Bride and for every member of the Bridal Party.

Let us help you plan the wedding of your dreams.

Rath's MEDFORD'S FASHION CENTER

214 EAST MAIN PHONE 772-7169

INTERNATIONAL DESIGNS FOR GIVING

FROM THE COLONIAL HOUSE COLLECTION

At Trowbridge Electric

You haven't received our new gift catalogue? Give us a Call... 773-6241

Brophy's Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

Jeweled Hours by Rolex

to light Christmas as no other watch will - to brighten her fashionable hours thereafter. Charmingly wrought in fourteen karat, their exquisite little cases blaze with fiery diamonds - enclose a precisely accurate movement.

Decorate Her Watch

with a bracelet to enhance its beauty. An all-diamond one would be the ultimate - but you can start with as many diamonds as you wish and add more later.

A. Twelve diamonds (two in each of six links) $150
Additional pairs of diamonds $15

B. Thirty-two diamonds, one carat in weight $425

C. Platinum bracelet, ninety-five diamonds $1000

D. Bracelet with diamonds in round prongs $370

Prices include Federal tax Charge or budget

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, OREGON

Registered Jeweler American Gem Society

Phone 773-6206 209 E. Main