Medford Couple Honors Son and Bride at Party

APPLEGATE VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Lewis, whose late summer wedding took place in Manila, Philippine Islands, left Wednesday for San Diego after spending three weeks with Mr. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Dow Lewis, 20 Hamilton street, Medford. Mr. Lewis, radioman second class, United States Navy, is stationed at Coronado.

During the young couple's stay here his parents were hosts at an informal reception and dance at their summer home on Upper Applegate, which was attended by 50 guests. Relatives attending from California included Mrs. Alice Morris, Oakland, aunt of the bridegroom, her son John and daughter Anne. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ward, Pacifica, cousins, also were present, as were Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsay, San Luis Obispo.

The bride, the former Trinidad Javier, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angel Javier of Manila. She attended the Philippine College of Commerce. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High School and has been in the United States Navy for five years. He is making the Navy his career.

The wedding took place at Malate Church, Manila, August 24. The bride, given in marriage

Officers Make Visit To Lodge

A number of state officers of the auxiliary to Patriarchs Militant were in Medford last week to attend a meeting of the local auxiliary. Mrs. Ruby Robertson, Portland, president, conducted the official inspection of work done by Medford members.

With her were Mrs. Gladys Frederickson, Creswell, vice president and reviewing officer; Mrs. Carol Holowell, Grants Pass, treasurer; Mrs. Ruby Hawkins, Portland, inner sentry; Mrs. Ethel Abel, Grants Pass, publicity chairman; Mrs. Riley Appelgate, Central Point, past president of Oregon Rebekah assembly; Mrs. Gladys Racicot, Portland; Mrs. Leah Ivie, Salem and Mrs. Viola Perry, Mrs. Mary Fern and Mrs. Stella LeManquais, Grants Pass.

The president spoke of her project for the year which is to furnish a hospital bed in the IOOF home in Portland. This will be the eleventh bed presented to the hospital by auxiliary presidents and auxiliaries.

Each visitor was presented a gift.

Plans were made by the local group to attend church November 17.

Refreshments were served during a social hour also attended by members of Patriarchs Militant.

Rebekah Lodge Honors Members Monday Night

"Today Is Eternal" was the title for an addendum which honored forty-year members of Olive Rebekah lodge at the October 21 session of the lodge in Medford IOOF hall. Oldtime clocks and decorations were used to accent the theme.

Fourteen women who have been members of the lodge for 40 years attended. They were Mrs. Joe Cave, Mrs. A. D. Hess, Mrs. Lottie Howard, Mrs. Clara Franklin, Mrs. Leah Ivie, Miss Caroline Leaders, Mrs. Evelyn Mahan, Mrs. Clarence Pankey, Mrs. Margery Pearson, Mrs. E. W. Pease, Mrs. Lyle Pickell, Mrs. Earl Scriptor, Mrs. Irene Shirley and Mrs. Rosa Young.

Mrs. LeRoy Cline, noble grand, presided.

Mrs. Grace E. Lamb transferred to the local group from Beaver City, Neb.

Plans were made for a visit November 12 to Hope Rebekah lodge, Ashland, to observe Friendship night.

Mrs. James Allen modeled a pale blue skimmer for the fashion show which Travel Study club gave last week with the cooperation of Town and Country of Cascade Village. New this fall is the use of large peasant-type blouses with this silhouette.

Twins' Club State Meeting Is Announced

Three valley women plan to attend a state level organizational meeting of Mothers of Twins Clubs scheduled in Salem for November 2 at 10 a. m., in Marion Motor hotel, Salem.

Those planning to go are Mrs. Delvin L. Elder, Nick Young road, Central Point, president of the local chapter; Mrs. Ray Schwartz, South Stage road, social chairman and Mrs. Marie Spielbusch, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. Richard D. Gundry, Beaverton, national organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs Inc., representative, from the Washington County Club and Mrs. John Orefice, Portland, president of the "C-2" club in southeast Portland, will be in charge of the November 2 meeting.

Although numerous Oregon clubs exist, a state organization has not been formed to now.

Purpose of the club throughout the nation is to promote and broaden the understanding of those aspects of child development and rearing which relate especially to twins, through the interchange of information between parents, educators, doctors and others with a direct interest and appropriate experience.

Famed Actress Will Appear In Portland

Agnes Moorehead, the famed American actress, will appear November 1 in Portland's Public Auditorium presenting a solo performance entitled, "Come closer, I'll give you an ear full," according to an announcement from Celebrity Attractions.

In a varied and successful career, Miss Moorehead has at one time or another, ridden a circus elephant, played Little Eva on a Mississippi River show boat, and terrified the nation with her interpretation of the doomed woman in "Sorry, Wrong Number," the advance notice points out.

Tickets are available at the Celebrity Attractions' Morrison Street offices in Portland and Stevens and Son Jewelers, Lloyd Center, Portland or Salem.

Ladies of Elks To Entertain Ashland Group

Medford Ladies of Elks are making plans to entertain the Ashland Ladies, Tuesday, November 5. The women will meet together in the downstairs lounge of the Elks club at 11:30 a. m.

Luncheon is to be served at 12:30 p. m. During the afternoon bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

Reservations may be made until Wednesday, October 30, by calling either Mrs. Frank W. Payne, 773-1162 or Mrs. C. William Booth, 773-7962.

Mothers, wives and widows of Elks are invited to this and all other Ladies of Elks events.

Fashion Show, Luncheon Given by Women's Club

Autumn leaves were the theme and were used in the decorations for the style show, card party and luncheon given by the Travel Study Club of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs last Tuesday at the Girls Community club.

Clothing modeled was from Town and Country shop of White City with Mrs. Doreen L. Vaughn narrating. Shoes worn by the models were from Karl's Shoe Store and their hair styles were by Rollands Studio of Beauty with Mrs. Billy Powers narrating.

Mrs. F. D. Nelson, Mrs. James L. Alteman and Mrs. Gene Chamberlain of the Junior Women's club, Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. Wilbur E. Howell and Mrs. Willis T. Fasel of the Travel Study club modeled.

Before the models appeared, Mrs. Doreen L. Vaughn, who with Mrs. Clara Chamberlain operates Town and Country shop, commented on general style trends. She noted that many are asking "which way the skirt, up or down," and said that indications are that no drastic changes would be made for some time.

Mrs. Vaughn noted that the berry shades, such as cranberry and blackberry, are the favored colors this season, and that teal blue is also popular. The shift or skimmer type of dress is at an all-time high in popularity, the commentator noted.

To show the versatility of the jumper, in fashion again this year, Mrs. Gene Chamberlain modeled a black velvet jumper, first with a long-sleeved beige blouse and then without the blouse and accented with jewelry.

Mrs. F. D. Nelson made one appearance wearing a black knit dress with knit-in beige sleeves and high neck, giving it the jumper look; with this she wore a fake leopard hat and carried a huge purse of the same material.

Catholic Group To Make Trip

Members of Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Mary, will travel to Klamath Falls Monday, October 28 as guests of Court Klamath members at a reception for new members.

Mrs. Norbert Omami is to become a member of the local court that evening.

The members plan to go by Greyhound bus which will leave Monday, at 5:30 p. m.

Among recent activities of Court St. Mary was a card party in Knights of Columbus hall. Mrs. John Dubay was chairman of the decoration committee.

Costume Event Plan of Lodge

A "hard time" costume party in observance of Halloween will be conducted by Degree of Honor Lodge Monday, October 28 at 6:30 p. m., in Girls Community club. Prizes will be awarded for the costume judged most suitable for the occasion, officers have announced.

Members who have birthdays between July 1 and December 31 will be honored.

Family members and friends are invited.

One of the more interesting ensembles was one worn by Mrs. Fasel in cranberry red. The dress and matching coat were cut to give the "layered look" so chic this year.

Mrs. Powers explained that hair styles are closer and sleeker than last season, and as each model made her first appearance, described the styling of her hair.

Music for the style show was furnished by the Music Center with Miss Marilyn Ernest at the organ. Mrs. Robert Snider of the Ashland Civic Club sang several numbers, accompanied by Miss Edna Dougherty.

A salad luncheon was served to 150 guests.

Introduced by the chairman, Mrs. Clay M. Lee, were Mrs. William Harms, president of First District, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and president of Grants Pass Women's Federated Breakfast Club, and Mrs. John Baldwin, president of Talent Federated Women's Club.

Other state officers introduced were Mrs. Roy Nye, Ashland, state department chairman of international affairs; Mrs. Chamberlain, Medford, state division chairman of art and pennies for art; Mrs. Jack Holmes, president of Medford Junior Women's club; Mrs. Lee, state division chairman of projects and Mrs. Bryl Lyon, president of Travel Study Club who gave a report on the General Federation of Women's clubs and the projects of the local club, and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, women's editor of The Medford Mail Tribune.

Serving on the luncheon committee were Miss Elizabeth Set-

John Mansfield, Mrs. Ethel Root, Mrs. Walter Cummings and Edna Evans.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, October 29, at 1 p. m. at the Girls Community Club. Mrs. Coleman will talk on Alaska and Mrs. Fasel will report on the Medford Convalescent Home.
