

RECEPTION IN PARIS—Former United States Vice President Richard M. Nixon, left, talks to Henry Bonnet, former French ambassador to the United States, during a reception at the American Club in Paris. In his speech Nixon criticized President Kennedy's European foreign policy, especially toward France. He said there is lack of understanding that the U.S. "can no longer call the play" in Europe as it did in the post-war years. (UPI)

Television viewing times and channels become more or less routine for many of the TV audience. But today there are so many different and special shows offered that a closer look at the schedule is advised.

There'll be some conflicts of interest to resolve—whether to watch the colorful story of Johann Strauss or the Moscow circus—the saga of Western man or a society ball.

gins in Florence, center of the Renaissance and later moves West to Spain, where Columbus is petitioning the King and Queen for funds to finance his Westward voyage.

APRIL IN PARIS BALL, 10 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. The ball marks the opening of New York society's 1963-64 season. In addition to scenes of the ball, a fashion show of ball gowns by Mme. Gres, Paris couturiere, and a "Show Within a Show" are featured. Liza Minnelli, Frank Sinatra Jr. and Peter Duchin perform as does Maurice Chevalier in Paris.

HOLLYWOOD AND THE STARS, 9:30 p.m. Monday KMED-TV. The life of the late Al Jolson is documented.

RAWHIDE, 8 p.m. Thursday KBES-TV. Popular singer Frankie Avalon plays a mean, arrogant, contemptuous hoodlum signed on as one of Gil Favor's drovers.

SUSPENSE THEATRE, 10 p.m. Thursday KMED-TV. Lloyd Bridges, Geraldine Brooks and John Ireland star in "A Hero for Our Times," the story of a successful San Francisco executive who weighs his reputation against the life of a drifter charged with murder.

DISCOVERY, 12 noon Sunday KMED-TV. A museum expedition visits the Sonora Desert to catch snakes and lizards shows viewers the amazing variety of water insects and fish that live in the desert.

SUNDAY, 4 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. The new TV news magazine series will cover the week's happenings in politics, the arts and sports. The opening program will feature a look at the activities of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.; an analysis of liquor consumption in the nation's capital with comments by Sen. Wayne Morse; a visit to probably the most talked about house designed by the late Frank Lloyd Wright—Fallingwater, at Bear Run, Pa., built over a waterfall; and an animated interview between Joe Garagiola and champion wrestler Lou Tesez.

TWENTIETH CENTURY, 6 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. The season's premiere program pictures the daily life of a YMCA field worker at his difficult and delicate task of helping Chicago's trouble youths fight the violence, relentless boredom and futility of slum life.

DISNEY'S WORLD, 7:30 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. "The Waltz King" (2 parts). The musical biography of Johann Strauss Jr. was filmed in Vienna with musical portions performed by the Vienna State Symphony. Portions of Strauss's operetta "Die Fledermaus" were filmed inside the 18th century Theater an der Wien (Vienna Theater)—the same theater where Strauss himself originally introduced the operetta in 1874. Brian Aherne portrays Johann Strauss Sr., Kerwin Mathews, Johann Jr., and Senta Berger a lovely opera singer, Yetta Trefz.

ED SULLIVAN, 8 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. The exciting acts of the world-famous Moscow State Circus will make up the entire hour. Filmed in London, the featured acts include the thrilling Kocenov Cossack Riders on horseback, the Russian bear which rides a motorcycle, and the aerial ballet of Irina and Petr Schetini.

STARLIGHT CONCERT, 8 p.m. Sunday KBOY-FM radio. Violinist Eric Friedman, 21-year-old protégé of Jascha Heifetz, will play Paganini's Concerto No. 1 in D, and Saint Saens' Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso. Friedman and Heifetz perform Bach's Concerto for Two Violins in D minor.

SAGA OF WESTERN MAN, 10 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. The dawn on the Age of Discovery is re-created in this first of four specials on the forming of modern man. Many towns, palaces and buildings in Italy and Spain remain as they were in the 15th century, and cameramen filmed them from angles calculated to establish the "feel" of the time. John Secondari's narration be-

Association Opens Grants Pass Office
 Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan Association has opened a Grants Pass Branch at 409 S.E. Sixth St., the Medford office of the association reported Friday.

The expansion into Grants Pass is in keeping with the 54-year history of the business, which has steadily grown in size since its beginning in 1909.

At the semi-annual period ending June 30, 1963, the assets of the association totaled $24,709,253.35.

The association now has three offices, one in Medford, one in Ashland and one in Grants Pass. Through the system of teletype communication it will not be necessary to transfer any records. The type of communication used makes it possible for any of the customers to transact business at any of the three offices.

Jackson County Federal has served the Grants Pass area for more than 13 years and at the present time has over $2 million invested in mortgage loans in the area.

The home office is located at 2 E. Main St., Medford.

Don Cossack Chorus Performance Slated
 The Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers will be presented in Medford Wednesday, Nov. 6, under auspices of the Jackson County Shrine Club, sponsors have announced.

The program will be offered in the Hedrick Junior High School auditorium starting at 8 p.m.

Tickets for the production are available at Purucker's, Lusk's and at Barker's.
