

Mitzi Gaynor's Travel Wardrobe

By ROSALYN ABREVAYA

For breezy nights, Mitzi wears a scoop-neck blouse of Stevensheer pima cotton over a long, full Shan Faille skirt. The sash here and at right are of Taylor-Friedsam ribbon. Patterns 9446, 9453.

For fireside evenings at a weekend resort, Mitzi combines a flame-red Fleur de Lis wool skirt with a jewel-buttoned shirt blouse of Benita 58% acetate, 42% rayon fabric. Patterns 4901, 4919.

This easy-to-pack checked blouse of Spring Fancy cotton (the same blouse, top right, sans sleeves) tucks into a wild honey Rosella wool skirt, which is a shorter version of the long green one above.

Mitzi's Camden wool skirt (short version of red one) is worn with Tessa Faille acetate-rayon top. Pattern 9448.

Enjoying new vistas (where a little warmth is needed), Mitzi sports a luscious Sandja 98% wool, 2% nylon sleeveless jacket over turtle-neck blouse and slim skirt. A leaf pin adds dash. Pattern 4932.
