

UP AND OVER—San Francisco's J. D. Smith (24) powers up and over for the first Forty Niner touchdown from the one-foot line in second quarter football action against Los Angeles Rams at LA on Sunday. Smith was suspended over the pile and then pushed back by the Rams defense but officials ruled that he had gone over the goal for the touchdown. —(UPI)

LA's Rams Overcome SF 28-21

By JOE ST. AMANT
United Press International
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams, headed on a three-game road-trip, have to get used to the giddy altitude of fifth place in the National Football League's Western Conference today.
The Rams got out of the basement Sunday by coming from behind to beat the San Francisco Forty Niners, 28-21, before a crowd of 45,532 at Memorial Coliseum.
At the end of the third quarter, the Forty Niners, fresh from an upset win over the Chicago Bears, had a 21-14 lead; but it didn't last long.
In the final period Ram quarterback Roman Gabriel threw a 51-yard touchdown pass to Carroll Dale and then ran 12 yards for the winning touchdown.
Gabriel, improving in every game in his second year, connected on 15 of 25 passes for 251 yards and a total of two TDs. He tossed a six-yarder to Dale in the second quarter to put the Rams out in front, 14-0.

Tied For Fifth
This was the first time since 1961 that the Rams put two victories together. They got their first win of the 1963 season Oct. 20 against Minnesota. They're tied for fifth place with the Vikings with a record of 2-5.
The Forty Niners, now 1-6 on the season, took a physical beating from the Rams according to coach Jack Christiansen.
"You can safely say we got the hell kicked out of us—in the line and everywhere else," said Christiansen.

Tackles Walter Rock and Charley Krueger came out of the game with twisted left knees; linebacker Ed Pine sustained a broken nose; defensive end Clark Miller got it in the nose also with a possible fracture; and halfback Don Lisbon was shaken up and "kind of goody" after the game, according to Christiansen.
Rams' Casualties
Christiansen said the Forty Niners apparently relaxed after their 20-14 win over the Bears and added:
"The Rams of today were better than the Bears of last week."
Ram coach Harland Sware was happy at his selection of Gabriel as his No. 1 quarterback after weeks of indecision.
"Gabe threw beautifully," said Sware. "He keeps improving every week."

LEADS ROUTINES — Art (Bones) Smith, a lanky 6-9, leads many of the comedy routines made famous by the Harlem Clowns, Smith, a four year veteran, and great favorite with the fans will be seen when the Clowns play at the Eagle Point High gym on Wednesday night.

Clown Basketball Billed Wednesday at EP High

EAGLE POINT—Return engagement by popular demand! For 28 years, the Harlem Clowns have been criss-crossing the country to bring equal parts of top-flight basketball and side-splitting comedy to the nation's sports fans.
If you've seen them before, you know that it's the Harlem Clowns tradition to stage a better-than-ever show but if you haven't seen them before, you're in for a real treat when the merry madcaps of the hardwood play in the Eagle Point High gym at 8 p.m. here on Wednesday, Oct. 30, against John Wheeler Loggers.
More fun than a barrel full of monkeys!
This was the line used by a mid-western sports writer years ago to describe the Harlem Clowns, fabulous basketball wizards and court comics.
The Clowns have never stopped. Now a national institution, they gained their reputation on more than a quarter of a century of traveling around the country, playing a seven games per week schedule for five months out of every year.
Pullins Originates
They were originated by Al (Runt) Pullins, one of the greats of comic basketball. It was he who first tacked the name "Clown-ball" on this style of play.
No town is too big—nor too small—for the Harlem Clowns. They have played before thousands—and also dozens.
The Wheeler Loggers of Medford is a team made up largely of coaches and ex-Southern Oregon college players.
Eagle Point High lettermen are sponsors of the game and their share of the proceeds will go to a letterman's college scholarship fund.

Richie Guerin Provides Music
By United Press International
Richie Guerin, St. Louis' new dead-eye Dick, is providing the music for the sixth man theme that put the Hawks on the winning side of the ledger.
Guerin, recently acquired from the New York Knickerbockers, sank seven of seven foul shots Sunday night and deposited five baskets as St. Louis defeated the Baltimore Bullets, 123-112, in the only National Basketball action.
All five Hawk starters hit in double figures and Guerin, as a sub, made it six to bring St. Louis a 3-2 mark in Western Division competition.
Bob Pettit led St. Louis with 31 points and Zelmo Beaty netted 18.

Central Point Beats Ashland
CENTRAL POINT — Central Point Junior High eighth grade football team brought its record to 4-1 for the season on Saturday by defeating Ashland 21 to 0.
Tony Morris scored for Central Point on a 13-yard sweep. Doug Miller passed to Kirby Renfro for 46 and 34 yards and touchdowns.
Bob Bailey ran the three conversions.
Kerry Bradshaw and Renfro were defensive standouts for the Pointers and Bailey and Tom Lamb shone on offense.

NY Giants Whip Cleveland, Stop Brown; Packers Win

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer
The New York Giants found a way of living with Jimmy Brown and the Green Bay Packers—found a way of winning without Bart Starr. And suddenly the National Football League races are tighter than a pair of $5 shoes.
The Giants brought Jimmy and the Browns crashing to the earth—in more ways than one—with a 33-6 beating Sunday, while the Starr-less Packers had to score two touchdowns in the final period for a 34-20 triumph over the Baltimore Colts. It was Cleveland's first defeat in seven games.
This was one of the most miserable afternoons Jimmy Brown has spent in seven NFL seasons. He fumbled on the third play of the game to set up New York's first score; gained only 40 rushing yards in nine carries; and wound up being ejected for the first time in his career after a pummeling and wrestling match with linebacker Tom Scott of the Giants during the final minute. Scott also was ejected.

led back to tie the score at 20-20, Pitts raced 34 yards for a go-ahead touchdown. A pass interference penalty helped the Packers in their tie-breaking drive. Jim Taylor's 27-yard scoring scamper with 1:13 remaining was the icer.
Jim Martin's 34-yard field goal and Johnny Unitas' touchdown tosses of 13 yards to Lenzy Moore and 58 yards to John Mackey enabled the Colts to tie the score.
Billy Wade connected on 20 of 35 passes for 253 yards in the Bear's win over Philadelphia. Chicago intercepted four passes and recovered two Philadelphia fumbles. Wade hooked up on a 23-yard scoring pass to Joe Marconi and later set up Willie Gallimore's seven-yard touchdown run.
Charley Johnson's three scoring passes sent the Cardinals on to their win at Washington. Johnson hit on a 14-yard touchdown toss to Bobby Joe Conrad and strikes of 28 and 54 yards to Sonny Randle.

The Steelers, trailing 21-6 at one stage, beat Dallas when Ed Brown completed an 85-yard touchdown pass to Red Mack with less than four minutes to play. It was Brown's fourth TD of the game, Buddy Dial grabbing three earlier scoring passes of 83, 25 and 14 yards.
Roman Gabriel passed 51 yards to Carroll Dale and later ran 12 yards for a pair of last-period touchdowns that enabled the Rams to beat San Francisco.
At Detroit, Earl Morrall came through with a good game at quarterback to beat the Vikings. Morrall hit on 12 of 16 throws for 208 yards and three touchdowns. Terry Barr grabbed two of those scoring throws and Gail Cogdill the other.

Stanford Much Alive Nationally
Coast College Football Roundup
By SCOTT BAILLIE
UPI Sports Writer
Color Stanford "dead" in the Big Six race but the Indians were very much alive on a national scale today with a rousing, 24-14 upset of Notre Dame.
Two touchdown underdogs at the kickoff last Saturday, the Tribe galvanized a home crowd of 55,000 and countless television viewers by twice coming from behind to flatten the Irish behind great blocking and halfback Steve Thurlow's clutch scores.
The reconverted quarterback tallied twice and passed for another touchdown that sewed up the game.
Yet the Indians are stuck in the Big Six basement with an 0-2 mark and will be spinning their wheels at Oregon State next Saturday when they face the Beavers in a non-conference tilt.

Key Game At Seattle
The race for the Rose Bowl may be settled in Seattle on the same day when Southern California and Washington, who are rated one-two for the title, come to grips.
Another Big Sixer between potential also-rans is at Los Angeles where California and UCLA tangle.
In other leading games featuring West Coast elevens, Washington State is at Idaho, San Jose State at Oregon, San Diego State at Fresno State and the San Diego Marines at the University of the Pacific.
Notre Dame took a one touchdown lead over Stanford and clung to a 14-10 margin at the half. But Thurlow scored his second touchdown of the day from five yards out to put the Indians ahead permanently in the third period and passed seven yards to Ray Handley for a clincher Great defensive play by tackle Al Hildebrand kept the Irish offense in trouble.

Nicklaus, Palmer Gain Canada Cup

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
PARIS (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus won the individual championship and the United States took the team title today in the Canada Cup and International Trophy golf matches, but unless everyone finished the tournament the victories would not stand up.
But officials later guaranteed that all the teams would finish and the U.S. victories became official.
Howard Clark, president of the International Golf Association, said that caddies would be spread over the fairways to spot drives, automobile headlights used to light greens and all other means necessary utilized to insure everyone completing today's nine holes on the fog-shrouded course.
Playing only nine holes instead of the scheduled 18 because of a heavy fog which shrouded the course, Nicklaus shot a four-under-par 32 which gave him the individual crown with a total of 237. It was five strokes better than runner-up Gary Player of South Africa and Sebastian Migue of Spain. In the team race the U.S.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Richie Guerin makes his first appearance against his former New York Knickerbocker teammates Tuesday night when the St. Louis Hawks invade Madison Square Garden for a National Basketball Association game. Guerin was traded to the Hawks a week ago in a Knick "youth movement."
