'Show-Me' Trip Scheduled for Road

KLAMATH FALLS — Bidders who are interested in viewing the Meadow Creek Road currently being advertised for construction by the Winema Forest may take a trip over the project on Oct. 31, it was announced today by Forest Supervisor Alex Smith.

The "show-me" trip is for the purpose of prospective bidders viewing the project and asking questions of the forest officials who are familiar with the job specifications.

Strange As It Seems

The Meadow Creek Road is a mately 7.1 miles on the Chiloquin Ranger District advertised recently by the regional forester. Bids will be opened in Portland at 2 p.m. Nov. 7. The project is financed as part of the Accelerated Public Works program and will provide needed access to national forest timber sale areas.

Three Hospitalized After Accidents

Dwayne Victor Chapman, 17, Route 3, Trail, and his passenger, David Larry Ray, 19, Prospect, were reported in fair condition with facial cuts this morning at Rogue Valley Hospital after their car struck a bridge abutment Sunday afternoon near Prospect.

State police said the accident occurred near the north edge of Prospect. An unidentified car passed a southbound car on the Crater Lake Highway driven by Velda Rosaline Barr, 55, Prospect, and forced the northbound Chapman car into the bridge. The Chapman car then hit the Barr car.

The Barr car received minor damage, but the Chapman car was damaged extensively, state police said.

John Bernard Wigen Jr., 21, of 16 Knoll Crest Drive, Ashland, injured his ankle and suffered bruises when his car took out 40 feet of guard rail on Highway 99 on the north slope of the Siskiyou mountains near Bury's Kitchen restaurant early this morning, state police said.

He was reported in fair condition at Ashland Community Hospital. His car was demolished, state police said.
