

Press Spokesmen Urge Congress to Approve Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Three press representatives urged Congress Tuesday to approve the "freedom of information" bill as a means to curtail what they said were government attempts to withhold information.

The group testified at a Senate subcommittee hearing on a bill that would give the public and press greater access to government reports and provide for court appeals in cases where records were denied.

Endorsing the legislation were Eugene S. Pulliam, assistant publisher of the Indianapolis Star who spoke for the American Newspaper Publishers Association; Creed C. Black, vice president and executive editor of the Wilmington, Del. Morning News and Evening Journal, on behalf of the American Society of Newspaper Editors; and Henry T. Simmons of Newsweek Magazine.

Pulliam objected to current procedures which he said allow a government agency to keep information secret for such reasons as "good cause found" or "in the public interest." He said agencies also arbitrarily decide to make matters available only to "persons properly and directly concerned."

New Leads Turn Up In Portland Slaying

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and retired Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, American Red Cross president, joined Monday in a plea for everyone to become a "personal diplomat" in the fight for peace by joining the People-to-People Program.

PORTLAND (UPI)—Sheriff Donald Clark said today "several new leads" had turned up in the search for the slayer of Nona Jackson, 28, whose body was found Sunday.

The body of the divorcee and mother of three children was found near a lover's lane east of here. She apparently had been dead for more than three months.

Cause of death has not been determined.

Detectives were trying to reconstruct the last days of her life. She was employed as a cocktail waitress and had been reported missing June 11.

Food Prices Show Drop in September

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Retail food prices in Portland dropped 0.7 per cent between August and September, the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics said today.

However, food prices in September were 0.7 per cent above year-ago levels and were 5.5 per cent over the 1957-58 average.

The over-the-month decrease was general with all major food groups registering declines. The most important drop was a 1.8 per cent in average prices of fruit and vegetables.

McLoughlin Jr. High
Edited by Berlette Stephens.
Staff: Kathy McCurdy, Lynda Farfan, Rhonda Davis, Gail Smith, Dawn Merickel, Donalyn Minear.

The Hedrick - McLoughlin game will be played on the Hedrick gridiron Nov. 1. The game will begin at 2:30 p.m. and both bands and pep squads will be marching as halftime entertainment.

A McLoughlin Letterman's Club has been organized by ninth grade boys who are lettermen or presently out for football. Elected were Jim Gordon, president; Dan Halby, vice president; and Bob Townes, secretary-treasurer.

The annual Business Education Day was held recently. Businessmen participating at McLoughlin were Richard Hensley, S. D. Shaw, Fred Coleman, Frank Benesh, Robert Retzer, Walter Higgins, Roger Leonard, and G. T. Haupter.

Beri Cox, principal of McLoughlin Junior High School, recently returned from a trip to a workshop in Yachats, Ore. Purpose of the workshop was to study the theory of flexible scheduling in the second or third schools. There were presentations of experiences with different scheduling practices in the secondary schools of Oregon.

Feature speaker was Dr. Robert Bush, professor of education, Stanford University.

Attending were 30 principals and superintendents from schools throughout Oregon participating in the Oregon Program. Three members from the State Department of Education also were present.

Federal Judges Affirm ICC Rule

PORTLAND (UPI)—Three federal judges Tuesday affirmed a ruling by the Interstate Commerce Commission placing the Port of Brookings within the terminal area of Crescent City, Calif., harbor operations.

The decision came following a hearing in U.S. District Court here Monday. The ruling had been appealed by the port.

Making the decision were Judges John F. Kilkenny, Gus J. Solomon and Homer T. Bone.

The ICC made its ruling after the port and a Brookings barge firm complained that the W.R. Chamberlin Co. of Crescent City was transporting lumber from Brookings to Crescent City by motor carrier.

The commission contended that the Chamberlin firm was hauling lumber as a legitimate extension of its Crescent City terminal.

4-H NEWS

Lone Pine Livestock
The Lone Pine Livestock 4-H Club held two meetings in October, both at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hatfield. There were 17 members present at the first meeting and the following officers were elected: president, Ron Beasley; vice president, Georgena Hatfield; secretary, Joe Walsler; news reporter, David Walker.

At the second meeting, a pig demonstration was given by Jim Culwell and John Hatfield. Tony Decker was a visitor from Roseburg.

Tickets for the turkey project will be available Nov. 1. Refreshments were served by Glenna Beasley and Georgena Hatfield.

The next Livestock Club meeting will be held Nov. 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walsler.

Dr. Michel Elected President of Society

PORTLAND (UPI)—Dr. Robert D. Michel, chief of the medical services at the State Tuberculosis Hospital in Salem, has been elected president of the Oregon Tuberculosis Society.

The society is the medical section of the State Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Scout News

Troop 34
YREKA — Jim Bray and Bill Schreidt, both 15 years old, were presented Eagle Scout badges at campfire ceremonies recently at the Burton ranch on the Fort Jones Road.

The boys were escorted by their older brothers, who have already reached the Eagle rank, and Jim Hefflin, Scoutmaster and district representative, made the presentations before approximately 100 scouts and parents. Boy Scout Troop 34 now has four Eagle Scouts in the past two years.

Jim and Bill have been in scouting since they were 9 years old, both are sophomores at Yreka High School, both go out for gymnastics and track. Jim is active in the Catholic Youth Organization.

The district campout was organized to introduce new boys to camping. Four troops were represented. Several boys were invested in Troop 34 and others made second class rank at this Court of Honor.

Rick Ensele and Ken Leal were inducted into the Star Rank and will become Eagle Scouts in about a year. Glenn Schmidt received a bronze palm which is presented only after a boy becomes an Eagle Scout.

Robert Buckner led the group in community singing before the ceremonies.

Dallas Man Killed In Auto Accident

JUNTURA, Ore. (UPI)—Marion Wyley Gardner, 70, Dallas, Ore., was killed Tuesday night when the car in which he was riding hit the trailer of a truck on U.S. Highway 20.

John Francis, 67, Portland, Ore., driver of the car, was injured. He was hospitalized at Ontario, Ore. His condition was reported to be satisfactory.

The driver of the truck was Cecil Vogts, Payette, Idaho.

Grocers Would Not Exclude Food, Drugs

PORTLAND (UPI)—A spokesman for the Oregon Independent Grocers Association said today the group agreed in convention here that if a sales tax is voted next year there should be no exclusion of food and drugs from the tax.

It was reported earlier the association had said food and drugs should be excluded. The group did not take a stand on the sales tax at the convention.
