Southern Oregon Tackles Chico in Homecoming Tilt

ASHLAND — Don't be fooled by their record. Raiders, a sizable team is anticipated because of returning grads.

That is what Coach Al Akins has warned his Red Raiders of Rogue about their Saturday Homecoming football opposition. Southern Oregon College's Raiders engage the Wildcats of Chico State at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at Fuller Field here. This will be non-league competition. The Raiders have finished conference play.

Chico reportedly has a 1-6 record while SO is 4-2. But, the Wildcat mark is attributed to the high caliber of competition rather than the lack of football talent. Several Chico losses have been by close margins. Sacramento State, leader of the Far Western Conference, to which SOC once belonged, nosed the 'Cats last week by a slim 9-6.

A Few Changes
Akins has made a few changes for the Raiders this week in the wake of the loss to Portland State which virtually assured the Oregon Collegiate mantle for the Vikings.

The mentor has said he may use some shotgun offensive plays in effort to give Raider backs a jump on Wildcat defenders.

Freshman Jim Calhoun is slated to see duty, spelling Bill Bailey at quarterback. Calhoun, from St. Mary's High of Medford was a Shrine all-star player and Catholic athlete of the year. He's been out of action much of the season, injuring an ankle in the Weber State encounter.

Tomorrow's game is the next to the last of the season for the Raiders. A sizable team is anticipated because of returning grads.

OSU, Stanford Mix On Corvallis Field

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Oregon State and Stanford, a couple of football teams that have a habit of upsetting each other, collide here Saturday with the hometown Beavers slight favorites.

Despite the resurgent Indians' 24-14 victory over Notre Dame and Oregon State's 31-8 drubbing by Syracuse last week, oddsmakers favor Oregon State by four points.

Two years ago a slightly favored Oregon State eleven was drubbed by Stanford here 35-0. That, incidentally, was the last time the Beavers have lost a game at Corvallis. They've won seven straight here since.

FIGHTS

SENDAI, Japan (UPI)—Mitsunori Seki, 125½, Japan knocked out Sirinoi Lukprakis, 124½, Thailand (3) retained Orient featherweight title.

OLSEN ON COMEBACK
OAKLAND, Calif (UPI)—Bobo Olsen, the former middleweight champion seeking a comeback, will meet lightweight Hank Casey in his next bout, scheduled for Dec. 9 at the Oakland Auditorium.

During half time Mary Jo Batzer of Medford was crowned Homecoming Queen. The crown was placed on her head by last year's Homecoming Queen Gay Schweibert.

Beaver officials figure on a crowd of about 15,000. The Game starts at 1:30 p.m. PST.

Beaver President Not Very Optimistic

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — President Arch Kingsley of the Portland baseball club is "not very optimistic" about the Beavers' future.

The Kansas City Athletics Wednesday canceled "with regret" their working agreement with Portland. The Beavers also are not certain of a place to play next season because Multnomah Stadium where they normally perform is for sale.

Portland's future in the PCL probably will be decided at the minor league meetings in San Diego Dec. 1-3.

"I don't know where we can go from here. All we can do right now is sit tight and see what the majors decide to do," Kingsley said.

WOW Girls Pettycoat Champions

ASHLAND — The "WOW Girls" from Cascade Hall defeated the "Slippery Susies" from Susanne Homes Hall 28 to 14 in the Pettycoat Bowl game played on Fuller field Thursday afternoon as the SOC Homecoming moved through its first day's activities.

It was a hard fought game, even in masculine language, and drew the comment that "They should have worn football uniforms." Two girls were carried off the field for injuries.

Two coaches, Jess Ballard and Jack Breirkhoffer, prepared the WOVs for the conflict and Dennis Jones coaches the Slippery Susies.

During half time Mary Jo Batzer of Medford was crowned Homecoming Queen. The crown was placed on her head by last year's Homecoming Queen Gay Schweibert.

Bockwinkle Catches Up With Borne

Nick Bockwinkle caught up with Tough Tony Borne and took his coast junior heavyweight championship title away from him in wrestling action at the Medford Armory last night.

The two were locked into the ring for their showdown as chicken wire was spread around the ropes to prevent a recurrence of the shenanigans that took place when the two tangled two weeks ago.

On that occasion Borne left the ring and Bockwinkle chased him, only to be smashed to the floor and lose the match.

Bockwinkle then challenged Borne to put his title on the line in a rematch with the chicken wire enclosure. It was for two out of three falls, with no time limit.

Upper Hand
The champ got the upper hand at first, getting the first fall. But Bockwinkle roared back and thumped Tough Tony to the mat twice to snatch the title away.

The outcome met with popular acclaim, and Borne stayed on in the ring for a few minutes to exchange insults with the crowd.

In the top preliminary match, Nick Kozak fought an uphill struggle but overcame Maurice "Mad Dog" Vachon.

The pattern was similar to that of the main event. Mad Dog knocked Kozak around the ring early in the match, scoring the first fall. But the crowd favorite came back to get the next two.

LAUREL TELEVISED
NEW YORK (UPI) — The $150,000 Washington, D.C. International at Laurel, Nov. 11, will be televised by CBS from 4:30 to 5 p.m. EST.

Brothers May Contend In Grid Duel at Eugene

EUGENE (UPI) — Halfback Mel Renfro is not expected to play but a quarterback duel between brothers Bob and Ken Berry could come off in Saturday's football game between Oregon and underdog San Jose State.

Renfro, an all-American for Oregon as a junior last season, suffered a cracked rib on a kickoff return against Washington last week. Coach Len Casanova indicated he did not plan to use him in order to give the rib more time to heal.

Wants To Play
Bob Berry, Oregon's sharp junior signal caller, suffered strained knee ligaments in the Washington battle. "He wants to play," Casanova said. "Maybe he'll be all right. The knee is sore but not as bad as we had anticipated."

Ken Berry, Bob's younger brother, has taken over as the number one quarterback for San Jose State. Both played under their father, Bob Berry Sr., at Willow Glen High School in San Jose and papa Berry plans to attend the game.

But Casanova likely will start sophomore Jack Sovereign at quarterback, and Dennis Keller, another soph, will replace Renfro.

San Jose State has not beaten Oregon in seven previous tries and is a three-touchdown underdog in this game.

PLACED ON WAIVERS
NEW YORK (UPI) — Flanker back Don Maynard of the New York Jets was placed on waivers Thursday for the purpose of putting him on the injured deferred list.

Maynard, who has a pulled thigh muscle, will be taken off the waiver list should any team claim him for the $100 waiver price. The club's second-leading pass receiver, he is expected to be out for one to two weeks.
