

Black Tornadoes Host Ashland Grizzlies Here This Evening

It's human nature to look ahead and gloss over the job at hand. So backers of the football Black Tornado are trusting that no such human frailty will beset the Medford whirlwind.

For the Southern Oregon Conference gridiron chase is running to form. What happens when Medford High and Grants Pass meet one week hence will decide which one enters the state Class A-1 championship playoffs from District 6.

It remains, nevertheless, for the Grizzlies of Ashland High School to determine just what that game will mean. For the Bruins of the Lithia City challenge the Tornado tonight at the Medford Stadium. Kickoff is billed for 8 p.m. This, then, is the job at hand.

Ashland, 0-2 in the conference, is out of titular running but very well could be a spoiler for Medford which now owns 2-0 league mark. With Grants Pass 3-0 in the circuit with only Medford yet to play, pressure admittedly is on the Tornado grid machine. The Whirlwind bids to ease this pressure while Ashland wants to make it lighter. And, Ashland could make it rough for Medford.

That Medford is the favorite, with its No. 2 state rating, adds the Bruins are not ranked, adds incentive for the Lithians.

"I just hope they're ready," said Coach Fred Spiegelberg of his Medford squad. "And I hope they're not overlooking Ashland for Grants Pass. I know Ashland potentially has got a darned good team. And I know they're mighty hungry for a conference win."

At Ashland Coach John Gray reported a good practice yesterday but indicated that it was hard to tell whether his Grizzlies were in an upset frame of mind. Could be that the Bears have been withholding outward signs of their determination until kickoff time tonight.

An incident occurred night before last, however, which may have served to incite the Medfordites against the upset intention.

Here's one to bring back memories for you . . . It was just 23 years ago this season that Stanford revolutionized college football by popularizing the T formation . . . Can you recall their great backfield which made the T so famous? . . . They were Frankie Albert, Pete Kmetovic, Hugh Galliarneau and Norm Standlee.

Did you know that two boys who later became movie stars once played football in the Rose Bowl? . . . Remember old-time star Johnny Mack Brown? . . . He played in the Rose Bowl in 1926 with Alabama and then went on to a successful movie career . . . And Ward Bond, who appeared in hundreds of movies, played in the 1930 Rose Bowl game as a member of Southern Cal's team.

What was the biggest crowd ever to see a football game? . . . The record was not set at a college or pro game, but at a high school championship game at Soldier Field, Chicago, in 1937. The attendance was 115,000. That was the game in which the famed high school athlete, Bill DeCortvont played.

Well, there's football again this weekend in Medford High Stadium! We're all looking forward to a good game tonight between Ashland and the Black Tornado. Go get 'em gang and move one step closer to state championship.

After the game we'd like to invite all down to our showroom (open until midnight) to take part in the gala "Track of the Cat" event. Have a little "witches brew" on us and take a look at the '64 Rambler on our showroom floor.

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
by Paul Lea

Gray reported that the Bruins should be intact except for two regulars, Quarterback Dave Barger and Fullback Don Scholer. Barger is sidelined by a bad knee and Scholer by an ailing ankle.

End Bill Houston is a hobbled Medford player. He has an injured knee. Halfback and safety Lance Casebeer has missed two days of school because of illness. Guard Don Coltrane was back on hand after four days of absence.

Medford's greater depth, its overall 5-1 record against stronger opposition and its better success with one common opponent makes it the favorite. The Tornado won 34-0 from Klamath Falls which beat Ashland 13-0.

Medford will pit the running of Bill Enyart, Tim Murray, Greg Gande, Greg Dippel and Jim Cox and the passing of Mike Barnes and Rick Knight against the totting of Dennis Ekwall, Mike Torressan, Roger Atherton, John Buck and Jack Gruber and the throwing of Dave Lohman.

Judge Declines To Move Trial

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—A federal district judge ruled Thursday that the Saturday Evening Post could receive a fair trial here in Alabama.

Judge H. Hobart Grooms said Curtis Publishing Co. did not present a "strong enough case of adverse publicity" for a ruling that an unbiased jury could not be found in the state.

Bryant filed the suit on the basis of a Post article, "The Story of a College Football Fix" which said former Georgia Athletic Director W. A. C. Dutts gave him game secrets before the 1962 Alabama-Georgia game.

Curtis, which publishes the Post, claimed that the trial should be moved outside the state.

Radio Station KYJC will carry the Medford-Ashland high football game at 7:55 o'clock this evening and the Oregon State-Stanford contest at 1:15 p.m. Saturday.

Radio Station KMED will air four football games this week end. They include the Medford-Ashland mix at 7:45 o'clock this evening, and the Navy-Notre Dame fray at 10:20 a.m., the Oregon-San Jose State tilt at 1:15 p.m. and the St. Mary's-Henley scrap at 7:45 p.m., all on Saturday.

Radio Station KWIN will carry the Crater-Klamath Falls prep tilt at 8 o'clock tonight and the Southern Oregon-Chico State grid game at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Eagle Point To Tussle Rogue River

EAGLE POINT — A pair of Rogue League football teams ambitious to rise into the upper division in the Rogue league standings contend here tonight.

Eagle Point will entertain the Chiefs of Rogue River beginning at 8 p.m.

The two teams are knotted for fifth place in the eight-team loop. Victor will bring its record to even in the circuit. Standings of the clubs currently are 2-3.

The teams have encountered five common foes this season. Their league victories were over Lakeview and Sacred Heart with RR winning 13-6 and 21-7, respectively, and EP gaining 35-21 and 27-0 decisions.

Rogue River lost to Henley 39-0, Phoenix 66-0 and Illinois Valley 34-0. EP bowed to Henley 14-13, Phoenix 46-0 and Illinois Valley 46-13.

Cripples Back

The Chiefs will have a pair of "cripples" back, according to Coach Wayne Misener. Larry Craig, who had an injured ankle will be back at defensive tackle. Bob Pentecost, thought out for the season, has received clearance and will resume guard and linebacker duties.

Misener indicated that, since Dan Bellamy has been ill, Vern Goodrich may get first call at one end.

The Chiefs have been doing quite a bit of running to stay in shape and they've worked on their plays to know them better and get the timing more exact.

Eagle Point Coach Vern Stewart reported the Eagles back at fundamentals this week. Because of injuries and other problems, he'll pick his starters from around 19 players. Halfback Mike House is a question because of a broken finger and Guard Merl Ford has a bad ankle.

Stewart's choice at ends is among four players and at guards among three. Deep backs may be named from among five or six players. Jim Lay is billed for duty at fullback and linebacker although not starting. Frank Charley will get service in the defensive backfield.

Portland State goes after its Oregon Collegiate Conference title and Lewis and Clark can clinch at least a tie for the Northwest Conference crown in small college football games Saturday.

Portland State closes its OCC schedule against Oregon College of Education in a Homecoming at Monmouth Saturday afternoon.

A loss to the Wolves would force Portland State to share the title with Southern Oregon, which is host to Chico State in a non-conference game at Ashland.

Winless Eastern Oregon closes out its OCC schedule against Oregon Tech in a game at La Grande.

In the Northwest Conference, undefeated Lewis and Clark takes on Whitman at Walla Walla, while Willamette travels to College of Idaho and Pacific is at Linfield in the only night game.

Lewis and Clark has scored 166 points in its last four games and is a heavy favorite over Whitman, which has a long injury list.

PROBABLE STARTERS

Eagle Point defense — Blair and Leewenburgh, ends; Hawkins and Dan Loper, tackles; Palm and Loper, guards; Collesser and Chamberlain, linebackers; among Gary Young, Mike House, Colpitts, Art Harrison and Dan Wood, deep backs.

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—St. Louis Cardinals lost a player but gained a full-time coach Thursday — at least for four weeks.

Ed Henke, defensive end who doubles as a line coach, was placed on the injured waiver list as a result of a dislocated elbow suffered during last Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins. He will be out of action as a player for at least a month.

St. Mary's, Henley In Saturday Battle

A Henley High School football team, still much in the running for Rogue League honors, comes to Medford on Saturday night with an eye on keeping itself in the chase.

The Hornets, who are 4-1 in the loop and tied for second spot, will be guests of the St. Mary's High Crusaders at the Medford Stadium. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

A transfer, he joined the squad two weeks ago.

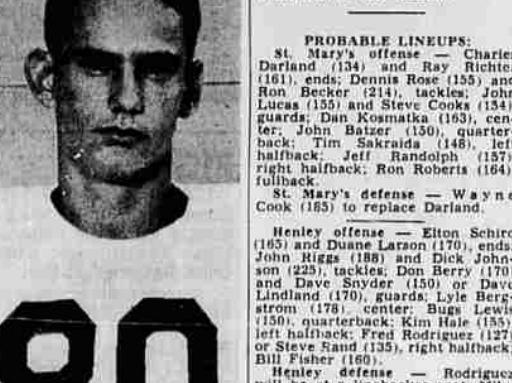

A player to bear watching, according to the Hornet mentor is Fred Rodriguez, middle linebacker. Rodriguez weighs just 127 pounds. He's our best defensive man, said Weber. The diminutive player also is slated to open at halfback.

St. Mary's hopes for this fracas have been heightened this week by the best Crusader workouts of the season.

McLoughlin 8th Beats Hedrick

McLoughlin eighth grade made its football season a winning one by defeating Hedrick 27-0 yesterday afternoon.

The Bulldogs tumbled down in the first two periods of play then put the finishing touches on by scoring two TDs in the third period. Dan Cudde scored twice for the Bulldogs as the Macmen wound up with a 4-2 record.

McLoughlin marched 65 yards in five plays for the first tally. Cudde capped the drive with a 31 yard dash to the goal. Their second marker came when Don Golden blocked a Hedrick punt, which rolled into the end zone. Jay Beach ran the extra point over.

Mac put together a 55-yard march in the third quarter with Cudde piling the last five yards to pay dirt. Beach ran the point after.

The Bulldogs last score was on a spectacular 63 yard gallop by Dave Johnson. Andy Jones ran the extra point. Jones showed fine running ability along with Johnson and Cudde. Steve Wilkins did a fine defensive job.

Hedrick was unable to penetrate farther than the Mac 55 yard line. Standout for the Hornets was Steve Cox. The Hedrick defense held tough when the Bulldogs threatened on the Hornet 11 yardline in the fourth period.

McLoughlin had eight first downs to Hedrick's three and completed one of six passes while the Hornets connected on one of 10. Hedrick had one win, one tie and four losses this fall.

CRUSADER END — Ray Richter, above, a 161-pounder, plays an end for the St. Mary's High gridiron team. The Crusaders will battle Henley here on Saturday evening.

is 8 p.m. This will be the Homecoming game for the Crusaders, who are 3-2 and have fourth spot in the standings.

It will be homecoming in further sense for the Medford parochial school aggregation. Its last four games have been on rival fields.

The tangle looms as a tossup although Henley won by bigger margins than St. Mary's over two of four common league foes.

Henley downed Sacred Heart 55-0 and Rogue River 29-0. SM trimmed those clubs 21-0 and 28-6. Against Lakeview, St. Mary's won 14-0. The Hornets squeaked by the Honkers 7-6. Illinois Valley whipped St. Mary's 25-0 and rolled over Henley 46-19, a margin of 27 points.

In other games this fall the Crusaders tied Glide 12-12 and trimmed Glendale 29-14. Henley beat Chiloquin 26-0 and lost to Mt. Shasta, Calif., 20-7.

Coach Len Weber of the Hornets says that his 1963 team does not match that of last year. He reports that his club has been plagued by injuries and has had a lot of limpers.

Weber said that Halfback Le-Voy Young is out of action because of an elbow injury in the Eagle Point game and that the Hornets have been without the services of Roger Vargo, high-rated guard because of a kidney injury.

The squad, however, has been helped by the addition of Mike

Marshfield To Oppose Roseburg

By United Press International

The big game in Oregon high school football circles doesn't come until Saturday night this week.

That's when top-ranked Roseburg meets Marshfield at Coos Bay in a game that could either settle or confuse the race in one of the state's best prep leagues. Roseburg is unbeaten and Marshfield hasn't lost since an early season defeat by Cottage Grove.

A Roseburg victory could virtually assure the Indians of a Midwestern League title. If Marshfield wins it will be a three-way tie with Cottage Grove.

Cottage Grove plays Marshfield at South Eugene tonight.

In other games tonight, second-ranked Medford is host to Ashland. No. four Pendleton is at Baker, fifth-ranked Grant is at Madision in Portland, sixth-ranked North Salem is at Lebanon, seventh-ranked Central Catholic is host to Gresham, No. 8 Beaverton is at Clackamas and ninth-ranked Parkrose is host to Seaside.

Grants Pass, rated third, has a Saturday home game against Vancouver, B. C.

In the A-2 ranks tonight, top-rated Phoenix travels to Lakeview.

FACES TOUGH TEST
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—A.J. Foyt, the national driving champion from Texas who captured the Indianapolis "500" in 1961, faces his most grueling run of the year today when he faces the board of directors of the U.S. Auto Club to answer charges of punching a fellow driver.

The incident, which occurred at the Williams Grove, Pa., speedway, was denied by Foyt, who has offered to take a lie detector test. If found guilty, Foyt could be fined $1,000 and suspended for a year.

Crater Comets, Klamath Pels In Conflict at Central Point

CENTRAL POINT — A "real rugged three yards and a cloud of dust" engagement — That's what the Klamath Union High School Pelicans and their mentor Bob Williams are anticipating here tonight.

The Pelicans wing into Central Point for Southern Oregon Conference football battle with the Comets of Crater High. An 8 p.m. kickoff will get the scramble underway. It's a home coming game for Crater.

A tough ground hassle has been forecast because the two aggregations are better known for their rushing assaults than for their aerial games. Both have air weapons just the same.

Crater will match the running of Vern Swanson, Darryl Summerfield, Sherm Kiger, Chuck Taylor and John Hall and the passing of Neufeld and Summerfield against the rushing of Klamath's Chuck Mills, Vern Petrick, Bob Moore and the passing of John Parisotto, Bob Williams Jr. and Mike Kitching.

The Comets blaze to halt a three-game losing string and grab their first victory over the Pelicans in three seasons. Klamath, which concludes its grid campaign tonight, will try to do it on a winning note. It has only one triumph in seven games this fall and is 1-2 in the conference.

The three Crater setbacks followed three victories and the Comets, thereby, have a break even mark so far for the fall. They are 0-2 in the loop. If the Comets can overcome the Pelicans they have a chance for a winning season. They close the league campaign against Ashland next week.

Crater and KF enter their 1963 scuffle after fighting to a scoreless deadlock just a year ago. The Comets still have the edge in football competition with the Whitebirds. Crater teams downed the Pels four straight years before dropping their scraps of 1960 and 1961.

Last time the Pelicans came to Central Point for football, they swamped the Fireballs 58-7.

"We'd like to have this one very much," said Comets Coach Keith Johnson after remarking, "I hope the kids do the job." He foresees that "Klamath will pull out all the strings. What else have they got to lose."

Last night was Halloween but Johnson gave this instruction to his players: "No partying."

The Comets last night, in addition to pre-game field drill, had a chalk talk, viewed game movies and went over scouting reports of Klamath Falls.

227,000 Trout Taken At Diamond Lake

PORTLAND (UPI)—The State Game Commission said today that up through Sept. 13 a tally showed some 86,500 anglers caught about 227,000 trout from Diamond Lake in Southern Oregon.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lewis and Clark halfback Mickey Hergert ranks fourth in the nation in scoring among small college football players, the NCAA service bureau announced Thursday.

Hergert has scored 13 touchdowns for 78 points. Jim Ankerson of Ripon is the leader with 11 points.

PROBABLE LINEUPS:

St. Mary's offense — Charlie Darland (124) and Ray Richter (161), ends; Dennis Rose (155) and Ron Becker (214), tackles; John Lewis (135) and Steve Cooke (124), guards; Dan Kosmatka (163), center; John Batzer (150), quarterback; Tim Sakrads (148), left halfback; Jeff Randolph (157), right halfback; Ron Roberts (164), fullback.

St. Mary's defense — Wayne Cook (185) to replace Darland.
