There's a perennial pattern in Southern Oregon conference football. Again, in 1963 the chase has followed to the form. And, Grants Pass and Medford High Schools will battle in a league finale which will decide the race.

Medford's Black Tornado and the Cavemen of Grants Pass run together in the championship conflict next Friday, Nov. 8, at the Medford Stadium.

Props and backdrop for the concluding act of this season's District 6 A-1 gridiron drama were set here Friday night after the Medford Hurricane blew aside the upset hopes of the Ashland Grizzlies 42-7. Outcome pulled the Tornadoes even at 3-0 with the Cavemen in the conference standings.

Vowell Goes 80

Larry Vowell touchdowned on an 80-yard punt return, threw one touchdown pass and caught another and had a 75-yard jaunt to the goal called back as the Medfords reach the pay zone in every period. Bill Enyart also boomed to the end zone twice for Medford. Steve Toews and Greg Gandee got the other scores. Jack Mullen flung a TD pass.

Bill Collins, doing his first varsity extra point kicking for the Tornado, cleared the crossbar and split the uprights on each of his six tries.

Mike Torresan tabulated for the Bruins on a left end romp in the final minutes of the game and caught a pass from Dave Lohman for the bonus tally.

Medford had 21-0, 28-0 and 35-0 period margins. It was a downhill rumble for the Tornado in the second half as a host of gridders got into the game.

Barnes Runs 59

The Big Wind capitalized for touchdowns on its first three chances with the ball and Mike Barnes got the triumph motion going with a 59-yard opening kickoff return deep into Ashland territory.

Wyatt Intercepts

Only twice did the Grizzlies get real drives going. They scored on the second one. A Curt Wyatt pass interception stopped the other in the second quarter.

Yardage statistics were in Medford's favor with 293 net from scrimmage to Ashland's 168.

First Tornado TD was on a two yard leap by Enyart. Then, Gandee sliced over the left side of the line, cut right and broke away for a 40-yard goalward run. A Vowell lefthanded aerial to Toews for 29 yards brought touchdown No. 3. Vowell's 80-yard scamper was the next scoring play. He broke loose up the middle and just ran away. This run followed by two series of downs the 75-yarder which was nullified.

Enyart cracked scant inches for the third quarter marker after an Ashland fumble set the stage. In the closing quarter a Mullen pass to Vowell in the right flat paid off for 34 yards and a score.

Second Chance

Barnes' long sprint came on Medford's second chance to run the kickoff. The Tornado quarterback had run back just 18 yards to the Tornado 32-yard line on Ken Preston's first thump for Ashland. The Grizzlies were penalized for offside and kicked again. Barnes took the ball on the Medford 15 and blasted up the field again. Torresan finally hauled him down 26 yards from the Ashland goal.

In seven plays, with Enyart, Tim Murray and Gandee packing, Medford had a score. Enyart dove over the middle for the last two yards.

Medford took over on its own 46 after Ashland failed to get first down on its first series with the ball. Murray and Enyart each made three yards and Barnes passed to Murray for 11. Murray was dropped for a three-yard loss on the Ashland 37. Then, the Whirlwind shook Gandee by the line on his scoring play.

Vowell to Toews

Ashland's three plays netted zero and Roger Atherton punted a second time. Medford took possession with Vowell's nine-yard runback to the Tornado 42. In five plays the Tornado had another score.

Gandee was stopped for no gain but Enyart crashed for five yards. An officials' pass interference ruling gave Medford 15 yards and first down on the Ashland 36. Enyart gained to the 29. From there Vowell passed to Toews who was wide open for the ball.

Ashland fumbled on its two just one play after the second half kickoff. Medford was called for offside and set back to its seven. Murray got the five yards back immediately. Enyart bombed to just inches for the pay line and crossed it on the next try.

A Grizzly muff and recovery of the ball by Ron Wallace got Medford on the way to its final counter. That gave Medford the ball on its 47 and the end zone was reached in six plays.

Mullen to Vowell

Lance Casebeer made two yards and Dana Thurman one. Mullen passed to Vowell for 20 yards to the 30. Thurman gained another yard but Mullen lost five on a fumble. Then, Mullen passed to Vowell again and the receiver maneuvered to the goal.

Only the halftime horn, probably, prevented another Medford tally. With Wyatt running for 12 yards and with Mullen completing four of five passes, two each to Mullen and Vowell, the Tornado whizzed from its 47-yard line to the Ashland four.

Ashland drove directly to its touchdown right after the last Medford marker. Dennis Ekwall ran for 21 yards around end on a pitchout. Jack Gruber smacked for four yards, Ekwall for two and Atherton for five. Torresan swept end for 10 yards to the Medford 25. Lohman sneaked for four.

Then, fine deception by the Grizzlies paid off. Gruber faked smartly into the line and Torresan, sweeping left end raced to the TD stripe. On the conversion play Lohman bobbled the snap from center, but when he controlled the ball and looked, Torresan was all alone in the right area of the end zone. An easy pass got the extra point.

The Bruins came close to a score in the waning moments. They got the ball on the Medford 35 on a short punt by Wyatt. A pass, Lohman to Ekwall put the ball on the 24. Lohman threw to Atherton past the goal line but the receiver caught the ball out of bounds to the right.

Another Lohman heave, which looked like a sure TD bounced off of Torresan's arm.

Mullen 6 of 7

Ashland pushed from its 29 to the Medford 36 in four plays in the late second quarter with Ekwall racing for 16 yards. This is where Wyatt's interception wrecked the bid.

Mullen completed six of seven passes for 91 yards for Medford and Vowell had four catches for 67 yards. Tim Watrud, like Wyatt, intercepted an Ashland pass. Jim Conklin had a pass interception for the Grizzlies.

Two of Dane Smith's kickoffs for Medford went into the end zone. Another was picked up on the one-yard line.

LAKEVIEW — Unbeaten and just once-scored-upon Phoenix High clinched at least a tie for the Rogue League football title Saturday by rolling over Lakeview, 32-0.

The Pirates, Oregon's No. 1-ranked A-2 team, ground out 303 net yards, 166 of them on the ground and 137 in the air.

Jim Consbruck and Dennis Grennan were the big ground gainers. Consbruck carried 16 times for 66 yards and two touchdowns. He also ran over two points after touchdown. Grennan carried 14 times for 75 yards.

Phoenix went to the air only seven times, but completed five passes. One of them, a Ronnie Williams to Dale Saur play, went for 82 yards and a touchdown.

20-0 at Half

Phoenix scored twice in the first quarter, once in the second and twice in the fourth. The half-time count was 20-0.

It was the seventh time in eight games this season that Phoenix has not been scored upon.

Williams scored the first touchdown on a 7-yard run, after Phoenix had blocked a Lakeview punt and taken possession of the ball. Ken Tycksen blocked the punt and Gary Smith recovered the ball. The conversion attempt failed.

Later in the first period, Consbruck ran over from the four after a drive down the field in nine plays. Consbruck also ran over the extra point, giving the Pirates a 13 to 0 margin at the end of the first quarter.

The 82-yard pass play from Williams to Sauer accounted for the Phoenix TD in the second quarter. Consbruck ran over the extra point.

Consbruck Again

After a scoreless third period, Phoenix got on the scoreboard again in the fourth, when Consbruck carried the ball into the end zone from six yards out. The conversion kick attempt failed.

Later in the last quarter, Ken Hawkins scored on a 13-yard run. He had gone back to pass, then found an opening and ran the ball in. The conversion kick again was not good.

Greg Esp intercepted one Lakeview pass and returned it 15 yards. Ron Patterson also intercepted one Lakeview pass.

One of the Phoenix touchdowns was set up by a Consbruck to Eugene Hill pass play that went for 23 yards.

Medford's Harriers Place 16th

SALEM — Medford High, with Greg Swanson 17th individually, placed 16th here Saturday in the Oregon Class A-1 cross-country run.

Terry Tishpaugh, Marshall, was individual champ in 8:54 and Grant took the team title with 94 points.

Other scores in the top 10 were Wilson 134, Marshfield 156, South Salem 157, South Eugene and David Douglas 166 each, Marshall 174, Pendleton 204, North Eugene 299 and Centennial 347.

Klamath Falls, District 6 winner, was 11th with 352.

Ashland's Brown Third

Steve Hetzler, Wilson was second runner. Gerald Brown, Ashland, placed third. Mike Crunican, Roseburg, was fourth; Steve Bigham, Marshfield, fifth, and Leo Fuger, Marshall sixth.

Placings of those who with Swanson figured in the scoring for Medford were Duane Mallams 56, Doug Eakin 81, Mike Miller 118 and Bob Carty 134. Rusty Smith ran 145th and did not figure in the scoring and Jack Chastain was 158th.

Gene Fairchild led his Reedsport teammates to the A-2 title, winning in 9:17. Reedsport had 55 points.

There were 72 runners in the A-1 race.

Band Features Baton Twirlers

Medford High had its counterpart to Purdue's Golden Girl Friday night as Linda Mattson, head majorette of the Black Tornado band performed in a glittering silver costume at the Medford - Ashland football game.

The band Friday presented a three-ring circus program featuring baton twirlers in soft shoe routines, acrobatics and a fire baton act.

First twirling performance was by Carolyn Poulos, Kathy Dyrud, Linda McCann, Bonnie Chandler, Peggy Leaverton, Vicki Hall and Daneille Graham.

Second part of the halftime show had Sandy Meyers and Miss Mattson in solo acts with acts also by acrobats Kitty Tingleaf and Jodell Moore and junior varsity squad members Randi Baker and Connie Stalcup.

Miss Mattson, Meyers and Tingleaf wielded the fiery batons.

The band formed rings of red, white and blue and played "Give My Regards to Broadway," "Struttin' High," "Footway," "Struttin' High," "Footlifter," "Soft Shoe Music" and "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

OUT FOR SEASON

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Running back John David Crow will not see any more action for the St. Louis Cardinals this season. Crow was placed on the inactive list after the former Heisman Award winner was operated on Wednesday for ligament damage to his right knee. The operation, however, was a success.

Parkrose, Pendleton Nab Tilts

By United Press International

Unbeaten Pendleton and Parkrose scored their eighth wins of the season to win league titles and berths in the Oregon high school Class A-1 football playoffs Friday night.

Pendleton, ranked fourth in the Oregon Journal poll, rolled over Baker 46-14 at Baker to capture the Intermountain League championship. Parkrose, rated ninth, walloped Scappoose 40-0 at Parkrose to gain the Wilco League title.

Fifth-ranked Grant gained a tie for the Portland Interscholastic League championship and a berth in the playoffs by defeating Madison 14-7 at Madison in Portland. Eighth-rated Beaverton clinched a tie for the Metropolitan League crown and a probable spot in the playoffs by topping Clackamas 14-6 at Clackamas.

Grant also now has a 8-0 record.

Roseburg, the top-ranked team in the poll with a 7-0 mark, can virtually wrap up the Midwestern League title and a berth in the playoffs if it beats Marshfield at Coos Bay tonight.

In other top games Friday night, second-ranked Medford walloped Ashland 42-7 at Medford, sixth-rated North Salem shut out Lebanon 33-0 at Lebanon, seventh-ranked Central Catholic was upset by Gresham 3-0 in Portland and 10th-rated Cottage Grove defeated North Eugene 20-14 at Cottage Grove.

In class A-2 competition, Brookings virtually collected the Sunset League title with a 26-0 win over Bandon.

IV Cougars Roll Over SH 69-13

CAVE JUNCTION — Illinois Valley High rolled up 10 touchdowns and nine extra points here on Friday night to whip Sacred Heart 69-13 in Rogue league football play.

The Cougars took over lone hold on second place in the circuit with a 5-1 standing. Sacred Heart is 0-6.

Terry McNaught and John Baumgardner each tallied three IV touchdowns. Darryl Gellert hurled three touchdown passes and scored one TD, himself.

McNaught returned a kickoff 75 yards to the goal and took passes for 29 and 47 yards from Gellert for counters. Baumgardner goaled on a Gellert pass for 30 yards and on runs of three and five yards.

Thornhill Tallies

Ron Thornhill had 20 and 11 TD runs. Ron Kentfield went for nine and Gellert for 11 on goal jaunts. Thornhill ran one conversion and kicked four. McNaught booted a conversion and Brad Head, Baumgardner and Kentfield ran for others.

A Marv Davis to Jim Korsen aerial for 56 yards was one SH scoring play. The other was on a Davis to Korsen to Chuck Milani combination for 12 yards. Korsen carried for an extra.

A 65-yard Gellert run to the goal was nullified by clipping. The IV quarterback completed six of seven passes for 154 yards.

IV had 21 to 6 and 49 to 13 quarter and half leads and got its other TDs in the final quarter. The Cougars rolled up 498 net scrimmage yards to 211 for the Trojans and had a 21 to 9 margin in first downs.

Rooks Trip Coubabes

CORVALLIS (UPI) —Fullback Pete Pifer scored two touchdowns as Oregon State's football Rooks defeated the Washington State Coubabes 14-6 in a driving rainstorm Friday.

The win was the first in two starts for the Rooks.

Pifer, a 215-pounder from Ridgecrest, Calif., scored on a 4-yard run in second period and tallied on a 13-yard run in the fourth period.

Don Cook kicked both extra points.

The Coubabes' touchdown came in the final period on a 35-yard pass from quarterback Dave Peterson to end Lewis Morris.

Oregon State held a 10-9 edge in first downs and a 221-116 margin in total yardage.

Chico State Fights Back to Overcome Raiders 49-35

ASHLAND — A comeback-spirited Chico State College football team, which trailed by two touchdowns in the early going, outsteadied and outscored Southern Oregon in the second half here yesterday to whack the Red Raiders of the Rogue and wreck their Homecoming 49-35.

Southern Oregon grabbed a starting lead of 14-0 and then headed 21-7 in a game marked by bobbles and interceptions.

The Wildcats from California caught up at 21-21, saw the Raiders go on top again at 28-21, pulled even in the third stanza then belted the Ashlanders with three touchdowns in the final period. Quarter counts were 14-7, 28-21, and 28-28.

The combine of George Calkins and Jerome Circo inflicted most damage on the Raiders. Calkins bulleted four touchdown passes and Circo scored four times, twice on Calkins throws.

A passing two-some of Doug Olsen to Spike Gordon clicked for two SOC scoring plays. Gordon contributed to another TD play and Mike Hood crossed the goal twice for the Raiders.

Ellis Recovers Kick

Southern Oregon had the games first score three plays after Denny Ellis recovered Olsen's onside kick on the Chico 35. Payoff was a 19-yard Olsen to Gordon throw. Four minutes later after an exchange of fumbles, Carl Nelson grabbed the ball for SOC on the Chico 21. Two plays later Olsen and Gordon clicked a second time for 16-yards and a touchdown.

Chico took advantage when the ball was batted in the Raider backfield. Recovering the pigskin on the SOC 49, the Californians moved in nine plays to the end zone. The TD was on a two-yard Calkins to Rich Miller pass.

In the second quarter SOC marched from its 28 for 72 yards to the goal. With the ball on the 25-yard line, Hood took a pitchout around right end, cut left and rolled nimbly to the goal.

Chico Goes 76 Yards

Chico rambled right back on a 76-yard surge and Calkins pass to Circo was good for 34 yards and a score. Then, Roger Seipert intercepted an Olsen pass, giving the Cats the ball on the SO 36. Jess Castillo got gook blocking around end on the next play and went all the way to tally.

The game was tied at 21-21.

Chico was forced deep into its territory and after a punt SOC had the ball on the Wildcat 40. A seven-yard gain by Hood and a combination of pass interference and personal fouls infractions put the ball on the eight. Hood made four yards. On the next play Dave Nord fumbled at the goal line. Officials ruled the ball had penetrated and SOC had another touchdown for its halfway edge.

Circo Scores

In the second half Chico got the ball on its 48 on a partially blocked Ellis punt. The Cats reached the pay line in seven plays helped by a personal foul penalty on SOC. Circo slanted left for the last five yards.

Following another exchange of fumbles, a pass interception by the Californians and their unsuccessful field goal attempt, the Raiders' Ellis fumbled on a snapback in fourth down punt formation and Chico got the ball on the SO seven. Two plays later Circo slanted over the goal from six yards out and, after the conversion, the 'Cats were ahead for the first time at 35-28.

Chico then widened on a six-yard Calkins to Circo scoring pass and it was 49 to 28 after Calkins hit Ray Myers on a 32-yard scoring play. The score that gave Chico a two-touchdown margin came after the 'Cat's got the ball on fourth down on the Raider 20. A high snapback prevented an Ellis punt.

The Raiders goaled again on a pass-lateral, Bill Bailey to Gordon to Hood for 33 yards but it was too little and too late.

Gerald Circo, brother of Jerome kicked seven extra points and Olsen thumped all five for SOC.

Hood was the day's top gainer with 135 yards on 18 packs. Jerome Circo had the same number of totes for 79 yards.

Calkins had five pass completions for 102 yards.

The Raiders had a slight overall net scrimmage yard edge on the strength of 25 more passing yards.

SOC lost the ball on fumbles five times and Chico on four occasions. Chico intercepted five Raider passes while SOC snagged two Wildcat throws.

Grants Pass Gives Canadian Team Welcome

GRANTS PASS—Grants Pass rolled out the red carpet Friday afternoon to welcome the "Fighting Irish" Vancouver College football team on their arrival here from British Columbia.

The team's chartered bus was met at the Grants Pass city limits by city and state police and escorted to the Josephine County Courthouse, where the red carpet was rolled out and some 200 citizens were waiting to welcome them.

The welcomers included city, county and school officials, members of the Caveman Bench booster organization, the Grants Pass High School Pep Band and cheerleaders.

The Canadian high school football players spent Friday night with members of the Grants Pass High School football team, their opponents for the Saturday night game.

They were also honored at a Saturday noon luncheon sponsored by the Grants Pass Rotary Club. They boarded their bus for the return trip to Vancouver immediately following the game.

Medford-GP Game Tickets To Go On Sale

Ducklings Beat Pups

EUGENE (UPI) —The unbeaten Oregon Ducklings exploded for three touchdowns in the second period and went on to post a 30-6 football win over the Washington Pups Friday afternoon.

The decision gave the Ducklings a 3-0 record and the Pups an 0-2 mark.

Fullback Doug Giles ran 5 yards, halfback Phil Johnson went 11 yards and quarterback Tom Jernstedt ran 5 yards for Oregon touchdowns in the second period.

End Bill Payne's 33-yard field goal in the first period and halfback Tim Temple's 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the third period gave the Ducklings their other points.

Washington scored in the final period on a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tom Greenlee to end Dave Williams.

Oregon rolled up a 15-7 edge in first downs and a 242-164 margin in total yardage.

Jernstedt completed 8 of 16 passes for 93 yards and ran 28 yards in seven carries. End Steve Bunker caught five passes for 49 yards for the winners.

Poor Paupers Clash At San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A pair of teams going nowhere except to the hospital — the Detroit Lions and San Francisco Forty Niners — meet Sunday in a National Football League convention of Western Division poor paupers.

The Lions, 3-4 for the season, have lost such backfield names as Ollie Matson, Nick Pietrosante, Larry Ferguson and star linebacker Joe Schmidt to injuries.

The Forty Niners, losers of six out of seven, saw two key defense-men undergo surgery during the week for knee injuries. They are Charley Krueger, the team's best play-buster, and rookie Walter Rock. Both are deemed through for the year.
