

GRAND FINALE — As time ran out on the clock in the fourth quarter Darryl Summerfield of Crater fired a pass toward teammate Chuck Taylor (45). Eluding Taylor's outstretched arms, the ball nestled neatly in the hands of Bob Turner (82) in the end zone. The touchdown was the Comets' fourth against Klamath Union High School. Defender Randy Smith (12) of the Pelicans is in the picture but out of the action. Crater won 27-0.

Crater High Comets Whip Klamath Falls Pels 27-0

CENTRAL POINT — When the Klamath Union High School Pelicans smelled smoke here Friday night, it was only the Crater Comets celebrating.

The Comets bashed the Pelicans 27-0 for their first Southern Conference victory of the season. And, true to Coach

Keith Johnson's promise, the movies of a disastrous loss to Klamath were destroyed by means of burning.

The verdict, which gave the Comets a 1-2 standing in the conference, was the first grid victory for Crater over Klamath in four years. For the White-birds it marked the end of a dismal 1963 campaign in which they lost seven of eight games. KF finished 1-3 in the circuit.

Fumbles hampered the Comets in the game. A second quarter marker touchdown was the only tabulation until the final stanza. But, the Fireballs overran the Pels in the second half and got three markers in the closing canto, plus a safety, to make their win decisive.

Cards Face Giants in Showdown

Charley Johnson, the St. Louis Cardinals' bright young engineer, tests his football know-how against the experienced old New York Giants today in something of a "truth or consequences" showdown.

It's a "must-win" contest for both clubs, determining which will go on to challenge the Cleveland Browns for the Eastern Division leadership in the National Football League.

The champion Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, tied for Western Division lead with 6-1 records, each take on a toughie this weekend. The Packers play the Pittsburgh Steelers (4-2-1) at Milwaukee while the Bears travel to Baltimore to meet the Colts (3-4).

Cleveland (6-1) faces the softest touch of the five leading contenders, playing the Eagles (2-4-1) at Philadelphia. In today's three other games, the Minnesota Vikings (2-5) are at home against the Los Angeles Rams (2-5); the Detroit Lions (3-4) meet the San Francisco Forty Niners (1-6) on the West Coast, and the Dallas Cowboys entertain the Washington Redskins (2-5).

Swanson Scores

First TD for Crater was on a one-yard plunge by Vern Swanson.

In the fourth quarter the Comets dumped Chuck Mills of KF in the Pel end zone for a safety. Summerfield went two yards for the second Crater touchdown. Third counter was on a Summerfield to Bob Turner pass for 41 yards. The same combination for 25 yards got the fourth TD and Jim Pitts collected the only conversion of the evening.

Last touchdown play was a thriller for the Fireballs, and a heartbreaker for the Pels. It came as the game ending signal sounded. The ball went through the arms of one receiver, Chuck Taylor, before being snared by Turner.

Crater was outtrushed in the first half by 45 yards but came back in the second half to roll up 205 yards on the ground while holding Klamath to 16.

Swanson Packs 103

Swanson and Summerfield led the Fireball assault. Swanson ran for 103 yards on 18 carries. Summerfield packed 19 times for 49 and completed eight of 12 passes for 170 yards.

Early bids of the Comets to reach the KP end zone were ruined by fumbles on the 26 and seven-yard lines. The Central Pointers were helped by a Taylor interception of a pass on the Pel 30. He ran to the 12 before being bumped out of bounds. Three plays later Swanson crossed the goal.

Klamath Falls was unable to come up with a scoring play although traveling to the 17 and nine-yard lines of the Comets. Quarterback Bob Williams of the Pels brought the crowd to its feet several times on passes to John Jendrzewski, Bob Moore and Tom Day for sizeable chunks of yardage.

Summerfield, exercising a pass-run option, monopolized most of the second half. His pass to Turner put the Crater crew in scoring range at the 18-yard line. The Comets battled to the one-yard line and lost the ball on a fumble. The safety came on the next play.

Pass For 32

Second Crater TD was set up by Summerfield's pass to Sherm Kiger good for 32 yards. That put the ball on the two-yard line and Summerfield scored from there.

Next time the Comets got their hands on the ball, Summerfield found Turner in the open again. This resulted in the 41-yard scoring play.

Johnson was inclined after the triumph to credit a great team effort and couldn't point out any one player in the victory. Terry Christianson and Day turned in fine defensive games for KF and Mills contributed all-around fine work.

Crater led in first downs 16-7 and had net scrimmage yardage totaling 337 to Klamath's 158.

The Fireballs, in prepping for the Klamath tangle, were shown films of the 1961 game here in which the Pels stomped Crater 58-7. Johnson told his charges that, if they beat the Whitebirds this time, that the film would be burned.

When the Pelicans smelled the smoke, a perfect evening was wrapped for the Comets.

Illinois Thumps Purdue; Huskies Whip Trojans; Alabama Squeaks

By United Press International

Quarterback spells college football 1963.

Navy's sensational Roger Staubach and versatile Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech set records Saturday and a half dozen other quarterbacks performed heroics in key victories.

Illinois, the nation's second-ranked team which snapped a 15-game losing streak just one year ago by beating Purdue, clobbered the Boilermakers, 41-21, to maintain its unbeaten record this season.

The top 10 teams took another beating for the fourth straight weekend, with sixth-ranked Wisconsin, ninth-rated Southern California and Syracuse, No. 10, all losing.

The quarterback parade started: — Staubach, who led the nation in total offense, setting a new Navy offense record in his junior season, passing for two touchdowns and totaling 114 yards as the fifth-ranked Mid-dies whipped Notre Dame with a 28-point second half, 35-14. Staubach boosted his total offense for the season to 1,420 yards, surpassing the old Navy mark of 1,348 set by George Walsh in 1955.

— Lothridge, who set a national career field goal record of 19 by booting three-pointers of 31, 38 and 33 yards in Georgia Tech's 30-6 route of Duke.

The mark is two more than Auburn's Ed Dyas kicked from 1958 to 1960. Lothridge also threw touchdown passes of 27 and 22 yards and booted three extra points.

— Junior Joe Namath of fourth-rated Alabama, who pulled heavily favored Bama from behind twice to nip Mississippi State, 20-19. Namath hurled a 40-yard pass to Jerry Dill for the first score, completed three passes in setting up the second and plunged one yard for the fourth quarter tally which allowed Tim Davis to kick the game-winning point.

— Jimmy Sidle, who zig-zagged 25 yards for the first touchdown in the third period and passed to set up two first half field goals by Woody Woodall as unbeaten, seventh-ranked Auburn shut out Florida, 19-0. Woodall's field goals were the 16th and 17th of his career, just two behind Lothridge.

— Bill Douglas of Washington, who engineered Washington's 22-7 upset of Southern California, enhancing the Huskies' Rose Bowl hopes. Douglas passed for one touchdown of 21 yards and set up another with a 53-yard pass-run play.

— Fred Mazurek of Pittsburgh who scored the Panthers' only touchdown of the first half when they trailed 21-8 to Syracuse and then led a second half rally to defeat the Orange, 35-27. Mazurek ran 41 yards for a TD the first time the Panthers had the ball in the third period. Then he directed an 85-yard drive for a score and capped a 62-yard march with a 13-yard scoring pass.

— Don Trull, the nation's leading passer, who scored three touchdowns for Baylor and passed for a fourth to lead the Bears to a 32-13 win over Texas Christian. Trull completed 20 passes for 273 yards.

Texas' No. 1 Longhorn scored the first time they got the ball for the sixth straight game and went on to whip stubborn Southern Methodist, 17-12. Shoeless place-kicker Tony Crosby accounted for the winning margin with a 34-yard field goal at the end of the first half and two conversion kicks. Texas' relentless ground attack was led by Tommy Ford who scored once and gained 113 yards in 13 carries.

Jim Grabowski, a sophomore fullback for Illinois, ripped for three touchdowns in the Illini's win over Purdue. The Illini's total was the most scored by the Illini in 10 years. Illinois had five sustained scoring marches of 45 yards or more.

Eighth-ranked Oklahoma churned out 486 yards, 382 of it on the ground, and picked up 29 first downs to outclass Colorado, 35-0. Three fumbles halted other Sooners drives. Slim Jackie Cowan scored twice on 16 - yard runs and gained 121 yards in 10 carries.

Anderson Second in Pin Semis

PORTLAND — Fred Anderson, Medford, placed second Friday night in the Oregon semifinals of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America All-Star tourney at Interstate Lanes here.

Anderson rolled a 2420 score, 23 pins back of Smokey Sylvester's pace - setting 2453. Anderson and the Portlander joined 14 others in Saturday's and today's final action.

Other scores among the top 16 were Lynn Soelberg, Portland, 2426; Jim Smith, Eugene, 2421; Bill Starns, Coos Bay, 2394; Wayne Claffin, Portland, 2394; George Stickle, Portland, 2371; Al Hakenwerth, Klamath Falls, 2352; Les Williams, Eugene, 2345; Al Spada, Portland, 2336; Ralph Barnett, Klamath Falls, 2335; Dave Johnson, Portland, 2334; George Slage, Portland, 2327; John Ward, Portland, 2325; Bob Meuchel, Portland, 2321; Ray Coon, Oregon City, 2318.

Smith, actually, automatically qualified as 1962 champion. Sixteen games were rolled Saturday and 16 more are slated today in the finals.

Top four Oregonians will gain the right to go to the national at Dallas, Tex., in January.

Snowmen Will Meet

A film taken on Mt. Ashland by Whitland Locke will be featured at the next meeting of the Rogue Snowmen, Wednesday, Nov. 6, at the American Red Cross building here.

There will be a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. followed by regular business.

A Skiers' Swap and Sell will conclude the evening. All members are asked to bring any clothing or equipment they wish to swap or sell and have it well marked as to ownership and desired transaction.

Wayne Martell, president, said that dues must be paid by the December meeting for anyone to be included on the mailing list for Ski Scoop and other club communications.

Betty Ramsey, social chairman, has asked that everyone who has pictures, either black and white snapshots or color slides, suitable for exhibit at the Rogue Snowmen 30-Year Reunion party at the Country Club, Nov. 23, to bring them to the meeting or leave them in an envelope at the Rogue Ski Shop.
