

Green Bay, Chicago Keep Pace In National Grid Loop

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers are taking a bit of a break from their regular season play, but they're doing it again with Bart Starr on the sidelines. The supporting cast puts on its finest performance when the star is missing, he did it last season when Al Hornung was injured. And they're doing it again with Bart Starr on the sidelines.

Jim Taylor, Tom Moore, Jerry Kramer and Elijah Pitts all combined to make Roach the national Football League's second-best running back in the Packers' 33-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

It was the Packers' seventh straight win and they needed it to keep pace atop the Western division standings with the Chicago Bears, who defeated the Baltimore Colts, 17-7. Green Bay and Chicago have 7-1 records. They meet in Chicago, Nov. 17.

Browns Beat Eagles
Jimmy Brown had a remarkable 223-yard rushing afternoon in the Cleveland Browns' 20-17 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles. The New York Giants' main one game behind by losing their runnerup battle with the St. Louis Cardinals, 21-17.

In Sunday's other games, the Dallas Cowboys whipped the Washington Redskins, 35-20; the Minnesota Vikings beat the Los Angeles Rams, 21-13, and the Detroit Lions trounced the San Francisco Forty Niners, 45-7.

Roach, playing his second full game for Starr, completed only 7 of 17 passes for a modest 151 yards. But that's all the air power he needed, the way Taylor and Moore ran and Kramer kicked field goals.

Taylor set a Packer record of 30 carries and gained 141 yards; Moore gained 88 yards on the ground and caught passes for 47 more; Kramer kicked field goals of 25, 36, 12 and 37 yards; and Pitts carried over for two touchdowns after replacing Moore.

Steelers Score Early
The Steelers grabbed an early lead after Gary Ballman ran back the opening kickoff 93 yards to the Green Bay 2 and Dick Hoak bucked over for a touchdown. They did not score again until the final period when Green Bay had a 27-7 lead. A crowd of 46,293 watched the game at Milwaukee.

Jimmy Brown raced 62 yards for a first-period touchdown and averaged a fraction less than 8 yards for 28 carries in Cleveland's win before 60,671 at Philadelphia. This was his fourth 200-yard game of the season and boosted his league-leading rushing total to 1,194 yards.

The Eagles took a 10-7 lead in the second period, but this was wiped out by Lou Groza's three field goals of 9, 22 and 34 yards. The last two came within a 16-second period during the final minute of the first half. Both were set up by Philadelphia fumbles.

Y. A. Tittle completed four touchdowns passes and the Giants' alert defense intercepted four passes and recovered three fumbles before 29,842 at St. Louis. Frank Gifford and Aaron Thomas made spectacular catches for scores.

Dick Lynch made an important pass interception in the first period on the Giants' second-yard line. Allen Webb had two interceptions and a fumble recovery; and Erich Barnes contributed one of each. Tittle completed 17 of 28 passes for 295 yards.

Bears Pass Sparingly
The Bears used the pass sparingly. Billy Wade completed only 12 of 22 passes, in the victory before 60,065 at Baltimore. Wade hit on 5-of-5 in the first half, bucking over from the one for Chicago's first touchdown. He later hit on a 16-yard scoring pass to Rick Casares. Lenny M. re carried 25 yards for Baltimore's lone score in the third period.

At Dallas, a crowd of only 18,338 watched Don Meredith complete two touchdowns passes each to Lee Folkins and Frank Clarke. The Cowboys intercepted four Washington passes and recovered three fumbles. The Redskins outgained the Cowboys, 468 yards to 221, but were ruined by their mistakes.

Fran Tarkenton, ordered by Coach Norm Van Brocklin to "produce-or-else," ran four yards for Minnesota's first touchdown and passed for two others in the win over the Rams. He completed 13 of 19 passes for 148 yards, throwing 10 yards to Jerry Reichow and 27 to Paul Flatley for scores. Carver Shann-n of the Rams ran back a kickoff 90 yards to help Los Angeles gain an early 10-7 lead before 33,567 fans at Minnesota.

Earl Morrall had a remarkable afternoon, completing 24 of 33 passes for 330 yards and four touchdowns in the Lions' win at San Francisco before a crowd of 33,511. Morrall threw scoring passes of 10, 22 and 6 yards to Tommy Watkins. The Forty Niners went down to their seventh defeat in eight games and appeared headed for the worst season in their 18-year history.

Crater Reserve Tickets on Sale

CENTRAL POINT—Reserved seat tickets for the Ashland-Crater High football game are now on sale at the Crater activities office.

The teams are scheduled to play on Friday night at Central Point. Blocks of 200 reserved seat and 200 student tickets have been sent to Ashland.

Yanks Gain Challenge Net Round

BOMBAY, India (UPI)—Wimbledon champion Chuck McKinstry beat Indian Ramanathan Krishnan, 10-8, 6-8, 6-2, 6-0, today to complete the 5-0 round of India in the interzone Davis Cup tennis finals.

Earlier in the day Marty Risen, substituting for Dennis Ralston, who has a blistered racket hand, beat Premjit Lall 6-2, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1.

The American team qualified Sunday for a challenge round meeting with Australia which has won the cup 11 times in the past 13 years. It will be the Yanks' 42nd appearance in the challenge round.

McKinley and Ralston each won a singles match Saturday and they teamed to win the doubles Sunday.

Klamath JV Wins 47-20

CENTRAL POINT—Klamath Union High junior varsity defeated Crater 47-20 in a football game at Klamath Falls on Saturday.

The Pelicans sewed up the tussle with three touchdowns in the fourth quarter after the Comets missed a tying chance. With KF leading 27-20, Crater had the ball on the 1 yard line with fourth down coming up. The Comets were penalized to the six because a player did not have a mouthpiece. The Pels just previously had been penalized for the same reason. Klamath led at the quarters 21-0, 27-6 and 27-20.

Crater scored on a three-yard run by Darrell Kiger and on two Bill Buckholz passes to Larry Giger for 67 and 35 yards. Kiger ran two extra points.

Geiberger Wins In Almaden Golf

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—Necessity is the mother of invention — and also causes beanpole Al Geiberger to play better.

Geiberger headed for the $50,000 Frank Sinatra Golf Tournament at Palm Springs today, with his bank account swelled by $3,500 after winning the Almaden Open Sunday.

"I'm married now and we have a seven-week-old baby," said Geiberger. "So I have to win the money to buy the baby new shoes."

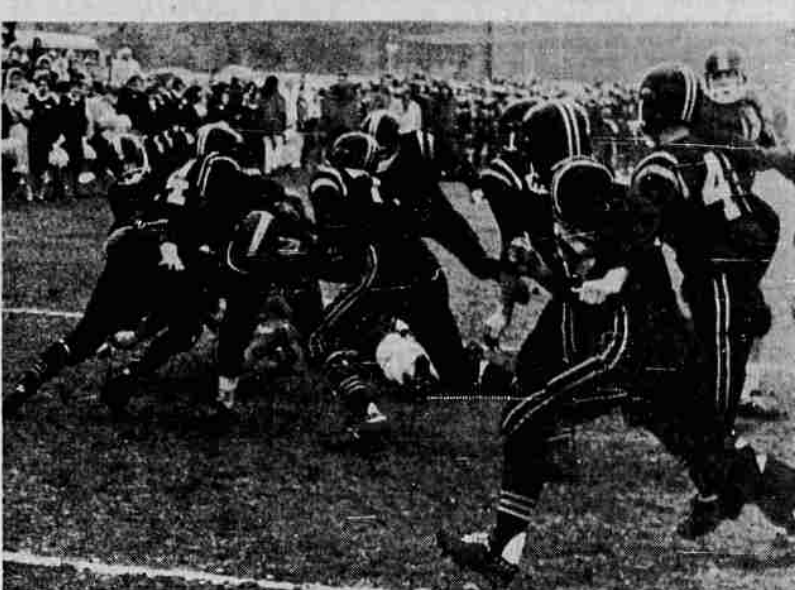

The lanky shotmaker, leading the pack by four strokes going into the final 18 holes, faded to a last round of 74, for a 277, that gave him his second straight Almaden title by one stroke over veteran E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, at 52, the oldest man in the field; and amateur Dick Lotz of Hayward.

C. K. Yang Receives All-California Award

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—C. K. Yang of Nationalist China was honored over the weekend as the "all-university athlete" of the University of California educational system.

Yang, decathlon world record holder and all-around track and field star at UCLA, was presented with the award during halftime ceremonies of the UCLA-California football game Saturday night.

Yang, who is the only athlete in history to score more than 9,000 points in the decathlon, was presented the award by Clark Kerr, president of the University of California. The athlete was co-captain of the UCLA track team last year.

GOAL LINE EFFORT — McLoughlin Junior High ninth grade gridders, backs to camera, were successful in this effort to stop cross-town rival Hedrick at their goal. But, on the next play, the Hornets got their fourth TD. Hedrick won the game 35-7 to claim the Southern Oregon conference trophy with an unblemished season.

DEFENSE Aids OSU

CORVALLIS (UPI)—"Maybe it was the first time we've played defense this year."

That's the way Coach Tommy Prothro described the Oregon State Beavers' 10-7 football victory over Stanford here Saturday.

"Our kids hit real good," Prothro said.

The Beavers, who met Indiana at Bloomington next Saturday improved their season's record to 5-2.

"Oregon State is a very good team," Stanford Coach John Ralston said. "They're quick and react well on defense."

Sig Recovers
Stanford lost the ball on Oregon State's 36, 26, 33 and 28-yard lines in the third period—three on fumbles and once on a pass interception.

Halfback Danny Sig recovered two of the fumbles and tackle Tom Holley made the other recovery. Center Dick Ruhl intercepted the pass.

"There's really no excuse for a fumble but hard hitting does encourage fumbling," Prothro explained.

Portland State owned its first Oregon Collegiate Conference football championship and Lewis and Clark had a tie for the Northwest Conference grid title today.

The Vikings gained the OCC championship by defeating Oregon College of Education 32-13 at Monmouth Saturday.

The Pioneers rolled over Whitman 40-0 at Walla Walla, to clinch a tie for the NWC title. Lewis & Clark is now one of 29 unbeaten-untied college football teams in the country.

Tech Victor
Oregon Tech won over Eastern Oregon 27-7 at La Grande in the other OCC game, and Southern Oregon dropped a 49-35 decision to Chico State at Ashland in a nonconference contest.

In other NWC games, Linfield defeated Pacific 27-14 at Forest Grove and Willamette topped College of Idaho at Caldwell 20-13.

Lewis and Clark can clinch the NWC crown next Saturday when it closes its season against Pacific at Portland.

Buffalo's Bills Putting On Another Stretch Run in AFL

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer

The Buffalo Bills are staging another of their patented stretch runs in the American Football League.

Last season, the Bills dropped their first five games, then turned around and lost only one of their final nine. That had started was too much to overcome, however, and they had to settle for third place in the Eastern Division race.

Lou Saban's men are following the same script this year—but it could produce a more successful climax. After going winless in their first four games, the Bills now are challenging the Boston Patriots and the Houston Oilers for the division lead.

Led by rookie quarterback Daryle Lamonica and veteran fullback Cookie Gilchrist, Buffalo rallied to edge the Denver Broncos, 30-28, Sunday at Denver. It was the Bills' fourth victory in their last five games and left them only a half game back of Boston and Houston, the deadlocked Eastern leaders.

Patriots Wallop Houston
The Patriots walloped Houston, 45-3, in their showdown meeting at Boston Friday night. The San Diego Chargers, Western Division pacesetters, rolled to a 53-7 triumph over the Jets at New York Saturday night, and the Oakland Raiders defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 10-7, at Oakland in Sunday's other game.

The Bills got another crack at Denver on their home field next Saturday night while the Pats entertain San Diego Sunday. Oakland visits Kansas City Friday night and New York is at Houston Sunday.

Lamonica got a chance to strut his stuff at Denver when Jack Kemp, the league's No. 1 passer, left the game late in the first half with a pinched nerve in his shoulder. Buffalo was trailing at the time, 14-7.

Mack Yoho launched the Bills' rally by booting a 22-yard field goal early in the third quarter, then Lamonica tossed a touchdown pass to Glenn Bass that covered 74 yards and put Buffalo ahead. Gilchrist later entered the act, plunging two yards for a touchdown and adding the decisive score on a 35-yard pass from Lamonica. Don Breau passed for all four Denver touchdowns, including two of 45 and 27 yards to Bill Groman.

Claude (Hoot) Gibson scored on an 85-yard punt return in the final quarter to earn the resurgent Raiders their victory over Kansas City. The Chiefs had gained a 7-3 lead in the second quarter when Abner Haynes plunged over from the one. Dave Grayson set up the score by intercepting a Cot Davidson pass.

Tobin Rote passed for three touchdowns and sneaked across for another in San Diego's easy win over New York Saturday night.

Huskies Prep For California
SEATTLE (UPI)—The University of Washington Huskies, a huge step closer to the Rose Bowl after their 22-7 football victory over Southern Cal, today began preparing to meet California at Berkeley Saturday.

Washington coach Jim Owens said he doesn't believe his team will let down after beating the powerful Trojans in their crucial Big Six conference game here.

"We've got momentum now," Owens said. "After losing those first three ball games, there isn't much danger of not knowing what can happen to you out there."

Owens said he considers California a "dangerous outfit with fine personnel."

"We will have to play them the way we played Oregon and USC to win it," he said.

Washington became the front runner in the Rose Bowl derby as quarterback Bill Douglas turned in a brilliant afternoon against the Trojans, passing for one touchdown and setting up another with a 53-yard pass-run play.

3 Big College Clubs Unmarried

By United Press International
Texas, Auburn and Princeton remained unbeaten and untied among the nation's major college football teams today, but Bowling Green dropped from the list following a 21-12 loss to Miami (Ohio).

Seven smaller schools remained among the elite with eight victories in as many games.

Twelve teams, including Texas and Auburn, have won seven times and eight games, including Princeton, have won six straight. John Carroll is the only team with a 5-0 record.

Emporia (Kan.) continued to lead the unbeaten and untied in scoring with 327 points in eight games. Southwest Missouri is the top defensive team, having allowed just 22 points in seven games.

DO YOU SUSPECT YOUR CAR IS LOSING POWER?

ADD

your motor oil and drive on full power again!

When an engine gets dirty it loses power. Acids, dust and other deposits accumulate in the crankcase causing needless engine wear. To keep your car engine clean and powerful, add Alemite CD-2 to your motor oil regularly. CD-2's concentrated detergent action dissolves engine sludge and other gummy deposits... frees sticky valves, too. You'll notice the extra power!

Have your oil checked today. If it's about a half-quart low, ask for Alemite CD-2. Your satisfaction is guaranteed by Stewart-Warner Corporation.
