Two Hunters Die Of Gunshot Wounds

By United Press International
Two young hunters died of gunshot wounds Saturday and a Scottsburg man died of a heart attack Sunday bringing the death toll in Oregon's fall hunting season to 21.

Francis H. Cooper, 17, of Beaverton was accidentally shot to death. Lawrence J. Short, 25, also of Beaverton, told State Police he fired at a deer that ran between them.

Dwight Gray, 16, of Sherwood, was killed when his shotgun discharged while he was cleaning it. Gray had returned from a day of bird-hunting.

Marshall Leach, 65, of Scottsburg, suffered a heart attack while hunting near Lone Lake, 20 miles east of Reedsport.

Indianapolis Blast Being Investigated

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Investigators today attempted to reconstruct events leading up to the Halloween explosion in the Indiana Fairgrounds Coliseum that took 68 lives and injured more than 300 others.

"It's like a puzzle," said Fire Prevention Chief Charles P. Hill. He said the five bottle gas tanks thought responsible for the tragic finale to the Holiday on Ice show would be sent to Purdue University for laboratory tests today.

Seventeen persons critically injured fought for their lives early today while 30 Indiana state police troopers were scheduled to conduct an inch-by-inch search of the Coliseum.

The latest victims of the blast, which sent tons of concrete interlaced with the bodies of the victims flying as high as 50 feet then crashing into the ice rink, died Saturday night and Sunday.

They were James Turner, 60, Casey, Ill., and Mrs. Bessie Ginn, 59, Muncie.

Priest Supporting Anti-Warren Drive

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (UPI)—A Roman Catholic priest has disclosed that he is backing a drive for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Rev. Francis E. Fenton, pastor of the Blessed Sacrament Church, said Sunday night that members of the John Birch Society stood outside his church Oct. 27 and circulated a petition calling for the impeachment of Warren.

Father Fenton said the Birchers had "my approval" to circulate the petition.

Last week's parish bulletin said that a total of 674 signatures were received.
