College Aid Bill Approval Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A compromise $1.2 billion "bricks and mortar" college aid construction bill appeared today to be headed toward relatively easy House approval.

The measure, expected to have a somewhat rougher time in the Senate, would authorize a three-year program of federal grants and loans for construction of college classrooms, libraries and laboratories.

As the college bill started through its last legislative obstacles, House-Senate conferees began work on the tougher problem of reconciling differences in vocational education aid bills.

The House passed a five-year bill quadrupling the present $87 million yearly aid payment for job training schools.

But the Senate provided a five-fold boost and also added the authority to extend the 1958 National Defense Education Act and increase its college student loan program and to carry on the politically popular "impacted areas" aid program for schools crowded by the children of federal workers and servicemen.

AMOROUS WOMAN. NEW LONDON, Conn. (UPI) — John Brown Jr. complained to police Sunday that a middle-aged woman followed him out of a local store, tugged him into an alley and then threw her arms around him.

Brown said that he "resisted her advances" and pushed her away. When she was gone, he found that his wallet, containing $83, was missing.
