

Crater Entertains Ashland In Final 1963 Grid Ruckus

CENTRAL POINT (Special)—Crater High Comets complete their football season here on Friday night with the determination that "we wanta win" and with the knowledge that Ashland will be tough.

The Fireballs of Central Point and the Grizzlies of the Lithia City clash at the Crater Stadium. Kickoff is at the usual 8 p.m.

It will be a fall finale in the Southern Oregon Conference. This game will have no bearing on top spot in the circuit. But third place is an issue. Crater can gain that spot alone. Ashland with a victory can share third with Crater and Klamath Falls. Crater is 1-2 in the circuit and Ashland 0-3.

The scrape has its own significance in matching the two small school members of a league recognized as one of the toughest in the state. And, the rivalry has been a spirited one over the years of action in all sports.

AT FULLBACK — Vern Swanson, above, is fullback for the Crater High Comet football team which takes on Ashland on Friday night at Central Point in a Southern Oregon conference wrap up tilt.

er, who'll miss his third game because of a knee injury, and without fullback Don Scholer, who hurt his ankle in the Yreka game.

Back at Crater Coach Johnson reported that linebacker Jim Pitts has missed drills this week because of flu and that halfback John Hall was sent home yesterday because of illness.

Johnson seemed set on an offensive combination for Friday but was not certain who all would start on defense. He said that lineman Don Gail has been looking good in workouts and may get a starting assignment. He reported that Lineman Denny Ryerson may play both ways on defense.

Ashland defense — Bill Jucy and Joe Raynes, tackles; Ken Preston and John Yagle, guards; Wayne Cullop and Condon, linebackers; Tim Voth and Roger Atherton, halfbacks; and Tade Farmer, safety.

Crater's defense — Bill Jucy and Joe Raynes, tackles; Ken Preston and John Yagle, guards; Wayne Cullop and Condon, linebackers; Tim Voth and Roger Atherton, halfbacks; and Tade Farmer, safety.

NCAA Approves Televising 58 Gridiron Tiffs

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Member colleges of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) have approved a plan for televising 58 football games during the 1964-65 season, it was announced today.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said the plan was approved by a 226-21 vote.

The plan provides for 29 broadcasts on 13 Saturday's and Thanksgiving Day of each season. During the current season the NCAA authorized 24 telecasts.

Byers said of the 14 dates, nine will consist of a single telecast and the remaining five dates are to be composed of four regional telecasts.

Bids on the 1964-65 televising rights will be received at a meeting of the NCAA television committee in New York Dec. 17, Byers said.

Among the changes from the current program, the new plan called for:

—The possible televising of college division playoff games on a Saturday in December following the close of the televising series.

—Complete freedom of college division teams to televising their own games.

—The requirement that at least 47 different colleges appear each of the two years.

Elk Hunting Slows In Southwest

PORTLAND (UPI) — Here is the weekly hunting report from the Oregon State Game Commission.

Southwest: Elk hunting has slowed in this area due to the animals hoing up in the deep timber. Access on back roads is becoming more difficult as rain soaks the area. Pheasant and duck hunting is also slow.

Central: Generally poor for both elk and waterfowl. Only small flights of ducks and geese have been observed and elk are feeding at highest elevations. Deer permit holders are having only fair success.

LINEUP UNCHANGED SEATTLE (UPI) — Big Six

coach of the week Jim Owens of Washington said today his starting lineup was unchanged for Saturday's clash at Berkeley, Calif., with California.

The Huskies scrimmaged for almost two hours Wednesday against mock Bear pass plays.

Sport Parade

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frayley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — with no guarantee concerning co-signers.

Game Of The Week — Texas over Baylor — The Longhorns are seven point favorites and, after a series of cliff hangers, on their home lot should finally make it with something to spare.

The East — Navy over Maryland — Jolly Rovers by more than the 14 quoted.

Army over Utah — Should beat the 17-point spread.

Syracuse over West Virginia — 14-12 is too much.

Princeton over Harvard — Give the seven happily.

Also: Columbia over Dartmouth, Yale over Penn. Cornell over Brown, Connecticut over Boston U., Delaware over Temple, Boston College over Buffalo, VMI over Holy Cross, Colgate over Bucknell and Rutgers over Lafayette.

The Midwest — Illinois over Michigan — Don't like those nine points.

Ohio State over Penn State — Should go to state penn if they don't beat the 6 1/2 point odds.

Michigan State over Purdue — Giving the three.

Notre Dame over Pitt — Taking the four because it's your money.

Also: Wisconsin over Northwestern, Iowa over Minnesota, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Oklahoma State over Tulsa, Detroit over Villanova, Nebraska over Kansas, Oregon State over Indiana, Miami, Ohio, over Toledo, Missouri over Colorado, Wichita over Dayton, Cincinnati over North Texas State and Ohio U. over Western Michigan.

Washington over California — But not by eight.

USC over Stanford — Not by the quoted 11.

Air Force over UCLA — Ten plus with rare air.

Oregon over Washington State — The 9 1/2 is risky.

Also: Utah State over Colorado State, San Jose State over Arizona State and Montana State College over Montana.

The South — Mississippi State over Auburn — Taking the 3 1/2.

Mike Hood OCC Pick

PORTLAND (UPI) — Mike Hood of Southern Oregon was named Back of the Week and Jim Dent of Oregon College lineman of the week by Oregon Collegiate Conference coaches today.

Hood carried the ball 18 times for 135 yards in SOC's Saturday loss to Chico State. Dent helped hold champion Portland State to 82 yards on the ground, the latter's lowest total of the year. Bob Battle of Oregon Tech led in rushing with 583 yards in 149 carries. Bill Bailey of Southern Oregon topped the passers with 74 of 144 for 780 yards and six touchdowns, although Mike Schruock of Portland State had a higher percentage and more yardage with 58 for 106 for 897 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Doug Olsen of SOC led the scoring with 65 points on 7 touchdowns and 23 extra points. Jim Hollingsworth of Portland State, Steve Jackson of OCE and Vic Ventura of OTI each had 25 pass receptions with Hollingsworth's 451 yards in front.

HOPE FOR WORKOUT BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) —

The Washington Huskies arrive Friday for their clash Saturday with the California Bears and if weather permits they'll get in a workout before the game.

Coach Mary Levy said the visitors will drill at Memorial Stadium and his troops will practice at E d w a r d s Field which was so soggy Wednesday the Bears used Haas soccer field for a light workout.

Red Raiders Bill Coyotes Saturday

ASHLAND — Southern Oregon College's last home football game of the season is scheduled on Saturday, Nov. 9.

SOC's Red Raiders will host the College of Idaho Coyotes. Game time will be 1:30 p.m.

This will be C of I's first venture into the Rogue Valley to play the Raiders.

The Coyotes are members of the Northwest Conference. They have not fared well in their isop this fall. C of I Coach J. A. Brown reportedly has a good first crew but lacks the depth to be a contender in the NWC.

Players Injured

Chico State's verdict over SOC last week end has given Coach Akins of the Raiders a sort of worried look. A big problem is to get injured first stringers back into the lineup.

Tackle Glen Moses, Guard Don Gott, and Linebacker Dean Tibbets missed the Chico tangle because of injuries. Akins is hopeful they'll be able to go this Saturday.

A Nov. 16 game against University of Santa Clara in the California town will close the season for the Redmen.
