

THE REV. OTTO TOLLEFSON On Furlough From Brazil

Missionary to Speak Sunday

The Rev. Otto C. Tollefson, missionary of the American Lutheran Church, will preach the sermon at Ascension Lutheran Church Sunday at 11 a.m. Mr. Tollefson is home on furlough from mission work on the Brazil mission field. He will also show slides at Sunday School of his work in Brazil. The missionary was born in Fergus Falls, Minn., and received his education at Pacific Lutheran University and Lutheran Theological Seminary. He and his family left for the Brazil field in 1958 and has served as general administrator of the mission schools in the city of Cianorte in the frontier area of Southern Brazil. Mr. and Mrs. Tollefson have four children and will reside in Seattle during their furlough period. During the 11 a.m. service the junior choir will sing under the direction of Mrs. Roy Miller.

Bethel Assembly Dedication Set Sunday Afternoon

A dedication service will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at Bethel Assembly of God, 1225 E. McAndrews road. Guest speaker will be the Rev. N. D. Davidson, Brooks, Ore., district superintendent of the Assemblies of God in Oregon. Building plans were drawn by Albert W. Gandt, local designer and actual church construction was begun in 1957. The first service in the new building was conducted Christmas Sunday, 1958. After moving into their new building, the congregation set a goal to cover the floor with tile and carpet and to provide church pews. This goal has been reached with the recent installation of new church pews seats. Future goals include the construction of an annex for additional Sunday school rooms. The Rev. Lawrence D. Krause pastor of the church will speak at the 11 a.m. worship and 7:30 p.m. evangelistic services Sunday.

LDS Stake Plans Quarterly Session

Three auxiliary organization leaders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Salt Lake City, will attend quarterly conference of the Klamath Stake Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 9 and 10 in Klamath Falls. They are Calvin S. Cook, a member of the Sunday School General Board; R. Paul Thompson and Mrs. Shirley E. Lewis, representing the Young Men's and Young Women's Mutual Improvement Associations of the church. General sessions of the conference will be conducted Sunday at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. by Stake President Ronald Earl Phair, Klamath Falls. Cook has been a Marine chaplain, and missionary. He is now a guide on Temple Square in Salt Lake City, part-time seminary teacher, and successful businessman. Elder Thompson is principal of the Utah School for the Blind. He is now serving on the Music Committee of the Y.M.M.I.A. Board. Mrs. Lewis served as district dance director for eight years. She is now working on the dance committee of the board. Meetings for Sunday School and MIA leaders will be held Saturday.

Servicemen's Day To Be Observed by Nazarenes

National Servicemen's Day will be remembered in the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly St., Sunday since it is the day before Veteran's Day. The congregation will pay tribute to the veterans of past conflicts and will honor men who are now in the armed forces.

Three Churches Slate Sermons Speakers, Events

CENTRAL POINT — "Topsy Turvy World" is the subject chosen by the Rev. Donald Krug, pastor, for the 11 a.m. service, Sunday at the Central Point Presbyterian Church. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Schafroth, will sing "All Creatures of our God and King," arranged by Lorenz. Topic leader for the Youth Fellowship meeting at 7 p.m. is David Christie. Hosts for the fireside at 8 p.m. will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, 55 North 10th St. A church-wide potluck dinner is planned for Friday, Nov. 15, at 6:30 p.m. Sponsored by the Women's Association, the theme is Thanks Giving, and the program will center on the annual thank offering which will be received.

JACKSONVILLE — James McGoodwin, Medford lawyer and member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, returns to the pulpit as guest speaker at the First Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville, Sunday. Assisting Mr. McGoodwin in the service will be two elders, Russell McIntyre and Roy Smith. During the evening service, which is held at 7 p.m. music will include a violin solo by Leitha Young, a vocal solo by John Finkbeiner, a duet by Melvin Johnson and Dean von Stein, and a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Rex Goble, Mrs. Rex Vowell, Walter Vail, and Mr. Delmonte. The pastor's message is on "Fruits of Holy Living".

PHOENIX — Sunday morning sermon at the First Presbyterian Church, Phoenix, will be entitled, "The Gospel," given by the Rev. William Saladin, pastor. Services will begin at 11 a.m. The choir will sing with Mrs. Ruth Sanders, organist. Following the service, coffee and punch will be served in the fireside room with Mrs. L. E. Lull and Mrs. Don Long acting as hostesses. Senior High Youth group will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday with Stuart Vencill leading the devotions.

Miss Sekiguchi To Speak at Two Valley Churches

Two valley churches will hear Miss Rachel Sekiguchi, a Japanese national, next week. She will speak for the Alliance youth fellowship of Christian and Alliance Church, 1505 E. Jackson St., Sunday at 6 p.m. and at a missionary meeting of the Community Bible Church, Fourth and Alder Sts., Central Point, Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 7:45 p.m. Also speaking at the Central Point meeting will be the Rev. John Newman, who is serving with Orient Crusades in Viet Nam. Miss Sekiguchi is a missionary candidate after attending a Japanese Bible College and Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta. She will minister to her people in Brazil. Mr. Newman is en route back to Viet Nam for his second term.

Study Program Set by St. Peter's

A renewed emphasis on Bible study is part of the program of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 1020 E. Main St. This emphasis is particularly on week-day study involving as many of the members and friends of the church as possible. Study groups have been organized, or are being organized, in various parts of the parish, including Central Point and Eagle Point, according to the Rev. John E. Simon, pastor. Studies now under way include discussions on "Christian Discipleship," "I Corinthians," and "The Gospel of Mark." The study groups are open to the public. Services at St. Peter's continue to be conducted both at 8:15 and 11 a.m. The church school begins at 9:30 a.m., with Robert D. Johnson, superintendent.

CONTEST UNDER WAY PROSPECT — An attendance contest among classes of the Sunday School of Cascade Gorge Christian Church is under way and will continue until the first of the year. An award will be given for perfect attendance and the class which has the highest number of new members.

GROUNDBREAKING—The Rev. Thomas McCamant, Hubbard, founding minister of the Medford Congregational Church, turned the first shovel of dirt last Sunday afternoon during groundbreaking ceremonies for the new church building. With him are Gate-

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Westminster Church to Hear Dr. Alvin Roberts; First Church Lists Events

Dr. Alvin Roberts will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian Church Sunday. Westminster Church is located on Oakwood Drive between Barnburg and Groveland Aves. First Church "You Are Beggers Begging to Give" will be the sermon subject by Dr. P. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday. "You Are Beggers Begging to Give" will be the sermon subject by Dr. P. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday. Mrs. Henry DeVoss will sing, "The Penitent" by Van de Water. At the 9:30 a.m. service the senior high choir will sing, "Benedictus Es, Domine" by Purvis and the chancel choir will sing for the second service. Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday at 4 p.m. for choir practice, Bible study and dinner. Senior High Fellowship meets at the church each Wednesday with choir practice at 5 p.m. followed by dinner. The College Age group will meet Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Nancy Housel, 547 Oakdale Drive. Seventeen new members will be welcomed at both morning services Sunday and will be greeted by the congregation during the coffee hours. These members have been attending membership classes for the last five weeks.

Week of Prayer Planned By Valley Adventists

Members of the Medford Seventh-day Adventist Church will join with those of sister churches throughout the world in observance of their annual Week of Prayer from Nov. 9 to 16. The week, which is dedicated to bringing the entire church together in sessions of prayer and Christian fellowship, provides an opportunity for every church member to unite in the study of selected subjects. An issue of the official church organ, the Review and Herald, is published, containing a study for each day of the prayer week, and is made available to each church family. R. R. Figuhr, now serving his tenth year as president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists has written the opening message in which he appeals to the membership to claim Christ's power for victorious living. This will be the subject of the 11 a.m. worship hour in the Medford church Saturday. Meetings will be held in the church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday. The week's studies will be climaxed by an offering for world-wide missions. Pastors from all churches in the Oregon Conference will meet in a two day session Nov. 11 and 12 at the Mount

Kerby to Host Church Fellowship

Assemblies of God in the Rogue Valley Section will hold fellowship services in Kerby at the Assembly of God church on Monday, Nov. 11, the Rev. R. E. Cull, sectional presbyter, has announced. The 3 p.m. service will be followed by a sectional business meeting for ministers at 6 p.m. The Rev. N. D. Davidson, Salem, superintendent of the Oregon District, will be chairman of the business session which will include election of four sectional officers to serve for the ensuing year. Mr. Davidson will also speak at the 7:30 p.m. meeting. The Rev. Andrew Slack is host pastor. Groups from various churches in the section are planning to attend.

Willamette University Chaplain To Speak Here

Willamette Sunday will be observed at First Methodist Church with Dr. Calvin McConnell, chaplain of Willamette University, as guest speaker. Dr. McConnell is a native of Colorado. He attended the University of Denver, Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif., and Iliff School of Theology, Denver. He has been chaplain to Willamette University and assistant professor of religion for the past three years.

Southern Baptist Activities Listed; Association Meets

"A Childlike Faith" will be the topic for the Sunday morning message at First Southern Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. Gilbert Skaar. For the Sunday evening service his topic will be "Stewardship of Influence." Robert Klusman will direct the song services. Saturday the Siskiyou Baptist Association will hold its monthly meeting at the Prospect Community hall, which is being used by the Prospect Baptist Church as a meeting place. The meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. Emphasis will be on Sunday School work. The Rev. Tom Baird of First Southern Baptist Church, Grants Pass, will be in charge of the program which will include conferences for age group workers, a report by the area missionary, the Rev. Austin Lovin, and a film on Sunday School improvement. Lunch will be served at noon by the host church after which the execution board meeting will be held. Stewardship Observance The balance of the month of November will be devoted to a Christian Stewardship observance in the local church, 794 Lozier Lane. Emphasis will include testimonies concerning tithing each week during the worship services by various members of the congregation, team visiting the homes, Sunday School lessons on Christian Stewardship, an all-church fellowship dinner and finally a dedication day on the Sunday following Thanksgiving Day. Local chairman for the emphasis month is Harvey Hunt, who will highlight the efforts during Sunday morning's service. Church stewardship visitors will attend a training period at the church Sunday at 5 p.m.

Men, Missions Is Sunday Theme

"Men and Missions" will be the theme Sunday in Free Methodist Churches around the world. A program depicting the work of 210 Free Methodist missionaries on 23 fields will be presented by the laymen of the church. Highlight of the year for the mission work of the church was the opening of a new field in the Republic of Congo. Laymen participating will be Samuel Oetinger, chairman; Ralph Harger, prayer; Loyd Smith, report from Southern Rhodesia; LeRoy Calkins, Brazil; and the Rev. Melvin Lee, Africa. Harger and the Rev. Roland Stewart, will sing a duet. The youth group of the church will travel to Grants Pass Saturday for an area Youth Rally at 2 p.m. Three of the youth of the local church, Royal, Ruth, and Alice Mae Harger will sing in a trio at the rally. The Light and Life Men's Fellowship is sponsoring a dinner for the men and their wives at the church Saturday at 7 p.m. Samuel Oetinger, president of the group, has scheduled the film "Angel in Ebony" following the dinner.

Friends Stress Stewardship Theme

Medford Friends Church Pastor Jack L. Wilcutes, will speak Sunday morning on the subject of stewardship. The church is stressing stewardship during November to be climaxed with a church loyalty dinner Nov. 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the church fellowship hall. Speaker for the dinner meeting will be former Pastor Clynton Crisman, now assistant general superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends Churches. The meal will be served by the church social committee. Five fellowship and study groups meet simultaneously at the church each Sunday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. They include four Friends youth meetings for those of primary, junior, and high school ages and an adult discussion group led by the pastor in the fireplace room. The topic for Sunday evening will be, "The Influence of Tongues Today." The evening service will feature another "Bible Quizzing" demonstration by the church teen-agers and a vocal solo from Mrs. Wayne Antrim, Eugene. The pastor will speak on the topic: "Jesus and the Individual."

Eastwood Baptists Announce Activities

Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Eastwood Baptist Church, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on: "The Reward of Steadfastness." The chancel choir will sing, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," by O'Hara. The Children's Message is entitled, "Our Thoughts." At the 7:30 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on: "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"

Building Fund Campaign to Start At 1st Christian

There have been four weeks of preparation on the current Building Fund Campaign at the First Christian Church. The actual fund raising will start Friday, Nov. 15, with an all-church dinner to be held at the Wilson School at 6 p.m. William Percy, president of the board of church extension, Indianapolis, Ind., will be the guest speaker. This board is the agency of the Christian Churches which assists financially in the building programs of their churches throughout the world. Nursery care during the dinner will be provided at the church. Movies will be shown to the younger children. Wayne Wakefield, chairman of the building committee, will preside at the dinner. Sunday morning the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans will preach on the subject "First Things First." At each service there will be a consecration service for all participating in the building fund program. Bill Brooks will speak at the first service and Ray Leeson at the second concerning the building fund campaign. At the first service the carillon choir will sing "Our Best." The chancel choir will sing "My God How Wonderful" at the second service. An offertory anthem "Let Songs of Praise Arise" will be sung by the junior choir at the 11 a.m. service. Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mrs. Rose Hermanson and Mrs. Anna McCormack will be hostesses at the coffee hour. Jim Perry and Gail White will lead the Ch Rho study on prayer at 6 p.m. Kay Robertson has the devotions. Ron Pierce will have charge of the Middlers Fellowship study on "What Part Does Evolution Play in Life Today." The Christian Youth Fellowship are having a series of lessons on faith. Sunday Linda Johnson will lead the discussion and Sarah Matthews will have charge of the devotional period.

Zion Lutheran Activities Listed

"Now It's Our Turn" is the Sunday sermon topic of the Rev. Harvey C. Covert for the 11 a.m. worship hour at Zion Lutheran Church, Fourth St. and Oakdale Ave. The senior choir will present the anthem "Go Not Far From Me, O God," by Zingarelli. The School of Religion Class will meet Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Fireside room. The Senior Luther League will meet at the church Sunday at 6:30 p.m. for a scavenger hunt. They will return to the church for devotions and the study for the evening which will be led by Steven Gordenier. Sandra Myers, Kathleen Thompson, Ellen Sherman and Kay Teeters will present a report from the Willamette District Luther League Rally which they attended in Salem recently. The harvest buffet dinner, for members and friends affiliated with the church, will be held in the church social hall on Wednesday evening. Serving will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Mrs. Robert Glathar is the dinner chairman.

Revival Planned

The Rev. Edward Jones, Yreka, Calif., will hold evangelistic services at Gibbon Acres Pentecostal Church of God, 139 Gibbon Road, Nov. 14, 15 and 16. The services will begin at 7:30 p.m. REVIVAL PLANNED The Rev. Edward Jones, Yreka, Calif., will hold evangelistic services at Gibbon Acres Pentecostal Church of God, 139 Gibbon Road, Nov. 14, 15 and 16. The services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

DR. CALVIN MCCONNELL Methodist Speaker

Congregational Events Listed For Coming Week

The members and friends of the Congregational Church will meet for worship and study at 11 a.m. Sunday. Hoover Grade School, Siskiyou Blvd., is the temporary meeting place of the church while a new sanctuary and educational unit are under construction at the corner of East Jackson St. and Berkeley Way. Sunday the United Church Youth, 9th through 12th grade young people, will meet from 6 to 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Porter Lombard, 1115 E. Main St. The regular business meetings of the church will be held on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henselman, 2108 "oodlawn Drive. The men who have been invited to participate in the Christian Enlistment Convass on Sunday, Nov. 17, will have an organizational meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Silver, 2824 Howard St. The choir will rehearse at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gatewood Smith, 705 W. 10th St. Thursday a committee to plan holiday observances for the church will meet at 8 p.m. at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert W. Tull, 401 Ardmore Ave.

Valley Witnesses Attend Assembly

Two hundred fifty delegates from the Medford-Central Point area attended the semi-annual circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses last week end at Winston. Sunday afternoon Lester M. Dugan, district minister for the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, was the keynote speaker talking on "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World." Some 1,250 persons from 16 congregations in Southern Oregon attended. The baptism-ordination service was held Saturday afternoon for 20 ministers. The purpose of the convention, held at Douglas High School, was for advanced training in the ministry. There were more than 20 lectures given on improving the ministry of each individual present.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental On The Air K-BOY 11:00 12:00 B. E. Andrews, Pastor Byron Evans, Youth Dir. NOW Meeting In The Beautiful New Church, 649 Crater Lake Avenue SUNDAY, NOV. 10 9:40 A.M. Sunday School for All 11:00 A.M. "The Abundant Life" 7:00 P.M. "You Are Hereby Warned" Wednesday, 7:30 Bible Study Hour

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU Sunday, 9:00 a.m. K-SHA — 860 kc This week's Christian Science program "Does Modern Man Need God?"

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You Hedrick Junior High Auditorium 1505 E. Jackson SERVICES: Sunday School 9:45 A.M. Morning Worship 11:00 A.M. Youth Service 6:00 P.M. Evening Service 7:00 P.M. Mid-week Service — 7:30 P.M. Wednesday (Place announced each week) "There is a real and positive help for your every problem" Pastor ZWIGART Ph. 779-1067

UNITY Corner Holly and Haven Streets Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo. REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m. "Thanksgiving and Healing" Psalm 103:3 Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m. Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. 3777 Jacksonville Hwy. — Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

First Presbyterian Church Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711 Worship Services 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Sermon: "You Are Beggers Begging to Give." Dr. D. Kirkland West Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

First Church of Christ, Scientist 100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main Subject: "Adam and Fallen Man" Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m. You Are Always Welcome Listen to: "The Bible Speaks to You" Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.