Valley Doctor Tells Of Mission Fields

"A person cannot be a successful missionary if he is not a successful Christian in his home environment," according to Dr. Alvin Roberts, who spent one year at the Presbyterian Hospital in Hamadan, Iran. He spoke recently at the meeting of the Medford Ministerial Association.

Dr. Roberts was one of two American doctors on the staff of the 56-bed general hospital. The staff of more than 40 included one American nurse.

The valley doctor stressed that many missionary fields are closing, commenting that it may go back to "tent-making missionaries" similar to Paul, where the missionary makes himself a part of the community. Dr. Roberts said that these could include the government worker, commercial men, et cetera.

The doctor explained that it isn't what the individual says that impresses others the most, but one's personal life is their greatest single testimony.

Basic Requirements

Dr. Roberts cited the basic requirements for missionary work as having a personal relationship with Christ; sincerity, believing what we are talking about; and love.

He urged continuing organized mission efforts as long as possible before a generation of tent makers becomes necessary.

He noted that the days of the mission hospital in Iran are limited due to the increased number of medical schools there.

Gospel Mission

Also speaking at the meeting was Mrs. L. G. Case, member of the board of directors of the Medford Gospel Mission. She reviewed plans of the Mission to pay for the property at the corner of Third and Front Sts. so that a building could be built there. Persons wishing to donate money, material or labor to assist in the structure may write to the Medford Gospel Mission, Post Office Box 762, Medford.

College Day Set At Central Church

Sunday will be San Jose Bible College Day at Central Church of Christ, 1440 S. Oakdale Ave. Students from the college located in San Jose, Calif., will speak in Churches of Christ and Christian Churches of Oregon and Northern California.

The speaker at Central Church at 11 a. m. will be Joel Stith, who served here as assistant minister last summer. His message will be entitled "Be Ye Reconciled to God." Mr. Stith will speak to the Church of Christ, Second and B Sts., Ashland, at the evening services.

John V. Heberling, minister of the church, will speak at the 7 p. m. service. His topic will be "Are You A Spectator or a Participant?"

Practice time for the newly formed choir will be at 7 p. m. Wednesday.

First Baptist Activities Noted

Pastor Bernard E. Andrews of the First Baptist Church will speak Sunday on the subject, "The Abundant Life." The service is held at 11 a.m. and the church is at Crater Lake Ave. and Stevens St. The chapel choir will sing and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Thielen will sing a duet.

The youth of the church will conduct the 3 p.m. service at the County Farm Home Sunday.

Sunday at 7 p.m. Pastor Andrews will speak on, "You Are Hereby Warned." The men's quartet of the church will sing and Ron McUne and Jim Andrews will play a trumpet duet.

Two Events To Be Observed in Ashland

ASHLAND—Mrs. Everett Faber, Medford, will speak Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist Church, N. Main and Laurel Sts., Ashland. Since the occasion is Thank Offering Sunday she will represent the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister, will preach on "Was He Mocking Them?" The service will also observe Willamette University Day.

Christian Science Lesson Announced

The verse Psalm 37:23 will be read Sunday during the 11 a.m. service at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor Ave. The Bible lesson is entitled "Adam and Fallen Man."

Related readings will also be included from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures."

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday School. All are invited to the services.
