Survey Planned In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE — Urban renewal authorities are to make an on-the-spot survey this month of the proposed Jacksonville project, Jack Sutton told members of the Siskiyou Pioneer Sites Foundation at the meeting of the board, recently held in the U. S. Hotel of the pioneer town.

Front and back bars have been transported to the U. S. Hotel, restoration of which is a part of the rehabilitation of pioneer Jacksonville project.

The bars were donated by Otto's Club and Bob's Frontier Club of Medford. The board members voiced appreciation of the gifts from Bert Bloomfield and Robert Knox, respectively, and a motion to send letters of appreciation to the two men was presented and approved.

The Beekman House committee reported that only scheduled tours will be made of the house during the winter season. To facilitate arrangements for such tours, Dave Allen suggested that a telephone listing under Siskiyou Pioneer Sites Foundation be given consideration.

Doris Brewer reported that the Foundation had realized $102.45 from a rummage sale and suggested that another be held in the spring. She urged
