Beaver Rally Fails; Hoosiers Nab Win By 20 to 15 Score

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI)—Bruising fullback Tom Nowatzke, a 220-pound junior from Michigan City, did about everything here Saturday to lead Indiana to a 20-15 victory over Oregon State before 25,895 homecoming fans.

Nowatzke, also the Hoosiers' big man in their 24-6 conquest of Minnesota last week, picked up 134 yards on 27 carries, kicked two field goals to set a school record for one season with four and booted two extra points. He scored one touch-down and intercepted a pass that stopped a Beaver march at the 11-15.

But it almost was not enough as the Beavers nearly overcame a 20-3 Indiana lead in the final 12 minutes of play. The Beavers scored two touchdowns and had another march to the 11-15 before the Hoosiers smothered Quarterback Gordon Queen on a fourth down play and ran out the clock.

Final Touchdown
The last rally started after Nowatzke had kicked his second field goal to make it 20-3 with 12:27 left. The Beavers moved 69 yards in six plays with a 12-yard pass from Queen to Dan Espalin, giving them their first touchdown.

Six minutes later, with 4:31 left, Queen threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Doug McDougal and closed the gap to 5 points.

A final desperate touchdown bid in the closing seconds moved the ball from the Beavers' 33 to the Indiana 31 before the Hoosiers held on fourth down.

Oregon State led in the first period 3-0 on a 43-yard field goal by Steve Clark, but Indiana tied it in the second period on Nowatzke's 24-yard field goal.

The Hoosiers went ahead with 2:48 seconds in the half when Nowatzke plunged for seven yards to end a 41-yard touchdown drive. A fumble had given Indiana the ball in Oregon State territory.

Scoring Pass
Indiana continued to roll in the third period and took a 17-3 advantage when Quarterback Rick Badar tossed a 10-yard scoring pass to end Rich Wery, with 10:48 seconds remaining in the period.

After stopping another Oregon State march at their 10-yard line on Nowatzke's interception.

College Football Roundup

Texas Edges Baylor, Remains Unbeaten; Michigan Tops Illini

By United Press International
The total of unbeaten-untied teams in major college ranks was reduced to a lone representative from the Lone Star State and several major conference races were clarified, if not settled, in Saturday's action.

The Texas Longhorns ground out a 7-0 victory over Baylor and in the process practically assured themselves of Southwest Conference championship, a Cotton Bowl bid and the national championship.

The Longhorns, the top-ranked team in the country, rolled up 240 yards on the ground to punish the pass-minded Bears. Tailback Tommy Ford accounted for 101 of those yards on 27 rushes but it was Tom Stockton who put the only points on the scoreboard with a 1-yard plunge that capped a 45-yard drive late in the third period.

Don Trull, the Baylor quarterback who leads the country in passing, completed 19 of 39 tosses but was frustrated whenever the Bears reached scoring position. Duke Carlisle, Texas' quarterback and safety, crushed Baylor's last-minute hopes when he intercepted a Trull pass in the end zone with but 22 seconds remaining in the game.

The Southeastern Conference race and a Sugar Bowl bid were settled for all practical purposes when Mississippi State shocked previously unbeaten Auburn, 13-10, on Justin Canale's second field goal of the game in the last 22 seconds of play, Canale booted a 35-yard three-pointer in the second period and took his winner from the 36.

As a result, the fifth-ranked Plainsmen fell out of a first-place tie with Mississippi who laughed their way past overmatched Tampa, 41-0. The Rebels have only to beat Tennessee and Mississippi State to capture the league title.

Fatal Bobble
The muddled Big Ten picture was cleared somewhat when second-ranked Illinois' "Cinderella" team of the year, fell before Michigan, 14-8. Pete Elliott's Illini outgained Brother Bump's Wolverines by a wide margin but lost four fumbles, including a fatal bobble in the last six minutes of play that set up Michigan's winning touchdown.

The loss dropped Illinois out of a three-way conference tie and left only Michigan State and Ohio State at the top. The Spartans crushed Purdue, 23-0, but the Buckeyes dropped a 10-7 verdict to Penn State in a non-league contest.

Washington edged nearer to an inevitable Rose Bowl berth opposite the Big Ten leader, by overrunning California, 39-26, after the Bears had taken two early leads on the passing of Craig Morton. Junior Coffey led the Husky ground assault that ripped for 362 yards rushing.

Washington holds a one-game edge in the Big Six conference over Southern California, which scored a 25-11 victory over Stanford on Willie Brown's two touchdown receptions.

Forced To Rally
Sixth-ranked Oklahoma was forced to rally for a 24-14 victory over Iowa State which left the Sooners in a Big Eight conference tie 10th-ranked with Nebraska. The Huskers pushed over two fourth-period TD's to topple Kansas, 23-9, and remain undefeated in league play.

Two conferences thrown into considerable confusion were the Ivy League and the Atlantic Coast conference. Princeton, undefeated and untied in six previous games, was thoroughly beaten by Harvard, 21-7, in a rain-drenched battle of ground attacks.

The two teams tallied only six yards gained in the air but the Harvard line proved superior. In other Ivy contests, Dartmouth routed Columbia, 47-6; Yale crushed Pennsylvania, 28-7; and Cornell topped Brown, 28-25.

Underdog Clemson dumped North Carolina into a three-way tie with Duke and North Carolina State in the A.C.C. The Tigers ripped the Tar Heels for 216 yards rushing and quarterback Jim Parker plunged one yard for the winning touchdown in the final period.

Among the independents, Navy's Roger Staubach shredded Maryland's defenses to hand the fourth-ranked Middies a stunning 42-7 rout of the Terrapins. Staubach ran for two scores and passed for another

Race Track Riot Causes One Death, $50,000 Damages

WESTBURY, N.Y. (UPI)—Hundreds of angry racing fans rioted at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night when only two horses finished the sixth race because of a massive pile-up on the backstretch.

The riot resulted in one death and $50,000 in damages.

Rioters kicked in the lights on the tote board, hurled rocks through windows in the clubhouse section, set fire to grandstand seats, ripped down the enclosure around the winner's circle and set fire to a sulky at the finish line.

Robert A. Glasser, chairman of the New York State Harness Commission, said tracks should be given the power to automatically declare "no contest" races in which half the field fails to finish.

Glasser's suggestion came after he was a witness to a riot at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night, touched off after six of the eight horses in the sixth race — the first race in the lucrative twin double that enabled a Waterbury, Conn., bartender to win $79,600 Wednesday night — were involved in a pileup on the backstretch.

Crowd Roars Disapproval
Roars of disapproval came from the crowd of 23,127 when the result of the race was posted on the tote board with only the two finishers included. That meant that thousands in the crowd were automatically disqualified from winning the twin double, the main attraction at the track since it was instituted this year.

Crowds estimated at between 500 and 2,000 persons milled around on the infield and then suddenly burst through the rail protecting the track. The rioting fans poured onto the track and engulfed special police before attacking the tote board. Eventually the track cancelled the three remaining races on the program.

Berry Hits Schwab For 2 TDs, Ducks Beat WSU, 21 to 7

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—Junior quarterback Bob Berry passed twice to senior end Rich Schwab for touchdowns Saturday as the University of Oregon overpowered Washington State, 21-7, in the 42nd football game between the Northwest rivals.

The Ducks spoiled Washington State's homecoming and left the Cougars with one of the worst records in Jim Sutherland's eight years as head coach — one win, five losses and a tie.

For Oregon it was the fifth win against three losses — two suffered with Berry either out of the lineup or hampered by injuries.

Washington State scored first taking the ball from its own 20 to the Oregon end zone in four plays. Quarterback Dave Mathieson, with the ball on the Ducks' 33, passed to Tom Kelley who ran down the left sideline to score.

Oregon took the kickoff after the score and, starting on its own 46, scored in six plays with senior halfback H. D. Murphy taking it in from the four.

Berry passed to Schwab for TD's in the second and fourth periods, the first on a play good for 17 yards and the second on a 30-yard play.

Berry, who saw only limited action last week, was in for the distance Saturday and passed to four receivers for big gains in every drive.

On the ground, fullback Lu Bain rarely was stopped at less than three yards.

Washington State, which outgained the Ducks both on the ground and in the air in the first half, was unable to move in the second.

Three Cougar drives were halted by pass interceptions and one by a fumble.

Oregon's final score, in the fourth period, came after center Oliver McKinney recovered fullback John Browne's fumble on the WSU 35. Halfback Dennis Keller took the ball to the 30 and Berry passed to Schwab for the score.

Mathieson outpassed Berry 198 yards to 147 but had four passes intercepted while Berry lost one to the Cougars. Both quarterbacks made all the aerial yardage for their teams.

TV Fight Ruled Draw

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—The Miami Beach boxing commission tossed out Referee Cy Gottfried's scorecard in a special meeting Saturday and called Friday night's nationally-televised bout between Tony Alonti and George Chuvalo a draw.

Eddie Trotter, Chuvalo's hefty manager, went before the commission Saturday to protest Alonti's split decision victory. Chuvalo was warned five times during the fight for fouls.

The commission said Gottfried's card was "incorrectly scored."

Gottfried and Judge Jim Ruby both scored the fight 95-93 in Alonti's favor after the light-hitting Miami man got up from a third-round knockdown and boxed the rest of the 10 rounds on his feet. Judge Bunny Lovitt scored it 99-93 Chuvalo.

Wolves Outlast EOC By 12-7

LA GRANDE, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon College of Education scored two touchdowns in the first half and held on for a 12-7 football win over Eastern Oregon Saturday.

The Wolves scored in the first quarter on an 8-yard pass from Dave Laney to Steve Jackson and tallied in the second quarter on a 51-yard pass from Laney to Don Sheldon.

Rich Barton ran 7 yards for the Mountaineers' touchdown in the last quarter.

Bolt Leads Open; Fires Two Eagles

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Tommy Bolt, who fired two eagles in a four-under-par 67 round, and Frank Beard, a young Kentuckian, became locked in a tie for the leadership Saturday after 54 holes of the $50,000 Frank Sinatra open.

The 45-year-old Bolt sank an eight-iron shot for an eagle two on the par-four 15th hole, and then on the 17th sank a 15-foot putt for an eagle three.

Falcons Rip UCLA 48-21

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI)—Air Force, with ace quarterback Terry Isaacson at top form passing and running, smothered UCLA, 48-21, before 31,937 fans at Falcon Stadium Saturday.

Isaacson, ranked ninth in the nation in total offense, scored three touchdowns, passed for another and ran for a two-point conversion and time after time fought off the UCLA line to find pass receivers downfield.

It was an impressive comeback for the Falcons, whose spirits were down after last week's disappointing loss to Army. The win was Air Force's fifth this year and the Cadets will be favored to finish the season with a respectable 7-3 record.

Only games with New Mexico and Colorado remain on the Falcon schedule.

UCLA lost its seventh game in eight starts. The Air Force score was the highest total against a UCLA team since 1930.

Troy Scores Over Indians

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Halfback Willie Brown caught two touchdowns passes Saturday to bring favored University of Southern California to behind in the second half as the Trojans scored a 25-11 uphill victory over Stanford University.

Both teams capitalized on fumbles for their scoring efforts with Stanford getting the breaks in the second period to push over a touchdown and field goal while the Trojans got their opportunities in the second half.

A bad pass from center gave the Trojans the ball on the Stanford 24 in the third period and they worked it down to the six where Mike Garrett passed to Brown for the score.

In the fourth period, Stanford safety Dick Ragsdale fumbled and Garrett recovered on the 15 where the Trojans drove to the two. The Indians took the ball over on downs and quarterback Mike Connerly stepped back into the end zone for an automatic safety.

Garrett returned the ensuing free kick 44 yards to the Stanford 30 and five plays later Craig Fertig passed to Brown for 17 yards and a touchdown.

Huskies Top Bears 39-26

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—The University of Washington's Huskies, riding high on the road to the Rose Bowl, spotted California early leads twice Saturday, then came back to grind down the Golden Bears and win a wild 39-26 ball game.

With Bill Douglas engineering the plays, the hard hitting Huskies rode roughshod over the Bears through the last three quarters and had to punt only once all day.

The Huskies, behind 0-7 and 7-14 in the early going, came back strong to take a 21-14 lead at halftime and maintained ball control completely after that. The Huskies piled up well over 500 yards passing and running.

Fullback Junior Coffey, ripping off tremendous yardage nearly every time he got the ball, scored once on a 12-yard run and another time on a one-yard plunge for the first two Husky touchdowns.

Draft Call Threatens Title Fight

CHICAGO (UPI)—Heavyweight challenger Cassius Clay fears not champion Sonny Liston nor an upcoming appointment for his Army draft board physical examination.

"I'll be there," said Clay in commenting on an announcement from his hometown, Louisville, Ky., that he has been ordered to report for his initial pre-induction Nov. 21.

The call to the colors could deliver a knockout sock to Clay's fabulously rich title fight with Liston in February.

"I ain't worried about nothing till I get the official greetings from the draft board," he said. "I haven't got them yet."

Then, in more typical Clay style he wisecracked: "Looks like Uncle Sam wants to miss out on the tax money from 15 million dollars, don't it? Well, that's his lookout."

Grants Pass JV Gridders Win Over Medford 14-10

Grants Pass High Junior varsity football team, scoring two touchdowns on passes in the second period, overcame a three-point deficit to defeat Medford 14-10 in a game on the Hedrick Junior High field on Saturday.

Medford drew first blood in the fracas on a 28-yard field goal by Bill Collins. This was set up by a fumble recovery credited to John Pruitt. GP bounced back with Don Summers, Rick Howe and Tom Blanchard running well for the Cavenham offense. Grants Pass marched 35 yards for its first score. The TD play was Blanchard to Jim Steimer good for 12 yards. Bill Bigelow kicked the extra point.

It was then Medford's turn to retaliate and once again take over the lead. Bruce Bertrand threw a 50 yard touchdown pass to Bob Dames to put Medford ahead 10-7 as Collins extra point kick was good.

Defense Tough
The Tornado defense was very tough throughout the game with Dave Sanford, Bill Scofield, Dane Smith and Ron Hale doing a fine job of individual and game tackling. Although the defense was rugged the Cavenham were able to gain yardage through the air. For their second TD Blanchard threw to Summers who was immediately off on a spectacular 68 yard touchdown play. Bigelow added the PAT.

Although there was no scoring in the second half, both clubs threatened. GP in the fourth period moved to the Medford 10 yard line. There was a fumble on the next play and Medford recovered the ball.

The Tornadoes marched 85 yards to the GP 15 yard line where they were in range for another score. The Tornado then had a taste of bad luck when a fumble in the backfield was recovered by GP with

The old mark was 3,811 held by Charley Alvaro of College of Idaho.

Hergert scored touchdowns on runs of 1, 8 and 53 yards.

The game was close until the final period when Lewis and Clark scored three touchdowns. The Pioneers held a 7-0 half-time lead and a 14-7 edge after three quarters.
