Six Sisters of Bride Take Part in Wedding

GOLD HILL — When Miss Lynn Kinney became the bride of Wesley Burl Franks, in a recent ceremony, six of her sisters served as members of the wedding group or assisted at the reception.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Kinney, Sardine Creek Road, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Franks, Palo Cedro, Calif.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the Medford Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The bride's great uncle, Mark Yeoman, evangelist of Portland Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, officiated at the 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony, October 12.

Some 85 relatives and friends attended.

For the ceremony the altar was decorated with baskets of dahlias and chrysanthemums in shades of salmon and yellow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk gown designed with fitted bodice trimmed with hand embroidery, and with scalloped neckline. A detachable train was fitted at the waist to the slim floor length skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a white embroidered crown which matched her gown. The bridal bouquet was white carnations and roses.

Bride Makes Gowns
The bridal gown, veil and crown were sewn by the bride. She also made the dresses and veils worn by all her attendants. The attendants were all sisters of the bride.

Miss Janice Kinney was maid of honor. She wore a shrimp satia sheath and carried one large dahlia with satin streamers. Her mint green veil was held by small yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Her accessories and gloves were white.

Candlelighters were Kathy Kinney and Patty Kinney. Their dresses were of salmon taffeta, and their mint green veils were held by yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Carole Kinney was flower girl. Her dress was mint green with matching veil.

Ringbearers were Maurie Kinney and Danny Fish, Roseburg. Maurie wore a pastel salmon taffeta dress. Miss Rhonda Rosecrans, Gold Hill, was soloist. Mrs. Harry Stintig, Medford, was organist. Calvin Pierce, Redding, Calif., was best man for the bridegroom.

Ushers were Daniel Smith and John Downing, Central Point.

A reception was given by parents of the bride in the reception hall at the church.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Kinney selected a brown wool sheath with bronze accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a grey wool suit with white accessories. Their corsages were white and bronze chrysanthemums.

The guest book was kept by Miss Suzan Kinney and Mrs. Frank Price, Central Point, took charge of the gift table.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ruby Bradshaw, aunt of the bridegroom, Central Point. Miss Michelle LaLonde, Redding, poured coffee and Mrs. Roy Worthington, Central Point, presided at the punch bowl.

Out-of-town guests other than those in the wedding party were Mrs. Mark Yeoman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bryson, and Clifford Bryson, relatives of the bride from Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Franks, and Vernon Franks, relatives of the bridegroom from Palo Cedro, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High School, Central Point, and the bridegroom was graduated from Palo Cedro High School near Redding. He is a carpenter in the Redding area.

The newlyweds are now at home in Pine Grove, Calif., after a honeymoon in San Francisco. For her wedding trip the bride wore an ensemble of winter white and cocoa with white accessories which she had made.

Prior to her marriage the bride had been a resident of Gold Hill three and one-half years.

The group made its first appearance in North America during the 1961-62 season with an 80-city tour of Canada under the sponsorship of Les Jeunes Musicales. It brought its first visit to a climactic close with a performance in New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art where an invited audience greeted the zestful Parisiens with fervor. "The seven men and seven young women play with precision, spirit and skill," reported Ross Parmenter in the New York Times.

Last season the ensemble came back to present a four-week tour in both Canada and the United States, highlighted by a return performance in an exceptional program at the Metropolitan Museum. They so enchanted their listeners that they have been invited to come again this season for an even more extensive tour, it is reported.
