

Navy Eleven Appears Cotton Bowl-Bound

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

It looks like Jolly Roger Stauch is going to sail the good ship Navy straight into Dallas for a New Year's engagement against the land forces of Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

What would be one of the most attractive bowl pairings in the college bowl ranks came closer to reality Saturday when Stauch passed the fourth-ranked Middles to a 42-7 trouncing of Maryland and top-ranked Texas kept its perfect record intact by beating Baylor, 7-0.

Navy can insure a bid by disposing of Duke next Saturday and arch-rival Army Nov. 30 while the Longhorns would be in by winning one of their final two games against Texas Christian on Saturday or Texas A&M Thanksgiving Day.

The picture for the granddaddy of all bowl games—the Rose Bowl—was a lot more muddled today although Washington is a good bet to win the host team role after overpowering California, 39-26, Saturday. The Huskies are on top of the Big Six with only weak UCLA and Washington State to come.

Close On Heels

The Big Ten, which traditionally sends its champion to Pasadena, Calif., for the Rose Bowl has produced another close race. Michigan State, a 23-0 victor over Purdue, currently is setting the pace with a 4-0-1 league mark and the eighth-ranked Spartans can clinch at least a tie for the title by beating Illinois Nov. 23.

Close on the heels of the Spartans are Ohio State (3-0-1) and second-ranked Illinois (3-1-1), which dropped its first game of the season Saturday by a 14-8 count to Michigan. The Buckeyes lost to Penn State, 10-7, in a non-league encounter.

Ohio State has two conference games left against Northwestern and Michigan while Illinois must meet Wisconsin and Michigan State and hope for a slip by one of the leaders.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma and 10th-ranked Nebraska are heading for an Oct. 23 climax at Lincoln for the Big Eight crown and a trip to the Orange Bowl, Nebraska, fresh off a 23-9 victory over Kansas, first meet Oklahoma State next week and the Sooners, who toppled Iowa

Peralta Picked Over Thornton

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gregorio Peralta, classy Argentine heavyweight, will try for his 26th victory Friday night in a nationally televised fight with California's Wayne Thornton at Madison Square Garden.

Their 10-round tops the week's schedule although Filipino Flash Elorde defends his junior lightweight (130-pounds) crown against Love Allettey of Ghana at Manila Saturday night.

Also on Saturday former welterweight and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson is listed for another European fight at Brussels, Belgium against Emile Sarens, Belgian middleweight champion.

Former lightweight champion Joe Brown is scheduled for a 10-rounder with second-ranking contender Carlos Hernandez of Venezuela at Maracaibo, Venezuela Monday.

Impressive Debut

For Friday's TV Garden bout, handsome, dark-haired Peralta is favored at 2-1 over blondish Thornton of Fresno, Calif., a body-punching specialist.

Peralta, 28, made an impressive United States debut on Sept. 20 at Miami Beach, where he gave light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano a thorough whipping for the unanimous non-title decision.

That was Gregorio's 25th straight victory and his 40th win in 41 professional bouts, which includes 11 knockouts.

Thornton, 24, also holds a non-title decision over Pastrano in one of their three bouts before Pastrano became champion. In their other two bouts, they fought to a draw and to a Pastrano victory.

Thornton bounced back to take two decisions from Jose Menno, a Peralta countryman. Those wins brought his record to 29-3-1, including 18 knockouts.

Thornton, who has been campaigning as a light heavyweight will move up above the 175-pound class for this bout, although the contract provides that neither scale more than 183 pounds.

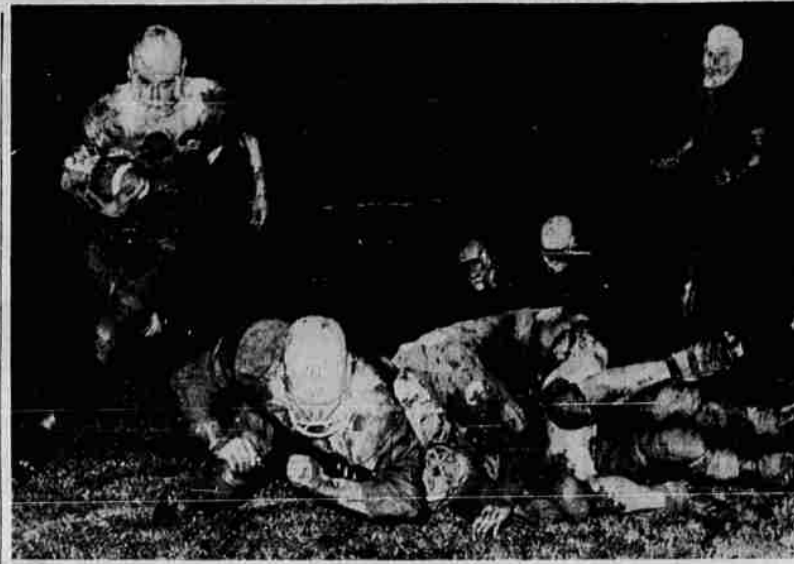

The week's boxing schedule: Monday: Maracaibo, Venezuela—Joe Brown vs. Carlos Hernandez. San Jose, Calif.—Bobby Scanlon vs. Pancho Castaneda. Manchester, Eng.—Billy Pickett vs. Harry Scott.

Tuesday: New York (Sunnyside)—Henry Walittsch vs. Byron Stolmenides. London (Wembley)—Billy Walker vs. Johnny Prescott.

Wednesday: Stockton, Calif.—Roy Asis vs. Luis Leija. Union City, N.J.—Frank Depaula vs. Bob Avna.

Thursday: Los Angeles (Olympic)—Al Chabot vs. Gabe Hernandez. Worcester, Mass.—King David vs. Jimmy Blair and Duke Sabedon vs. Ollie Wilson. Friday: New York (Garden)—Gregorio Peralta vs. Wayne Thornton (TV).

Saturday: Manila—Flash Elorde vs. Love Allettey (junior lightweight title). Brussels—Sugar Ray Robinson vs. Emile Sarens. Rome—Nino Benvenuti vs. Lou Gutierrez. Don Warner vs. Sante Amonti. Freddie Mack vs. Piero Thomason.

ROLLS TO FIRST DOWN—Bob Corliss (23), on a roll out, runs seven yards for first down for Eagle Point High in Saturday night football game here with St. Mary's. The Eagles reached the one-yard line on this series of plays but St. Mary's held and won the game 13-0.

East Unit Of Clowns Billed Here

The eastern unit of the Harlem Clowns basketball team will start on its way toward a season of playing along the East Coast with a stop in Medford on Tuesday, Nov. 19, to oppose the John Wheeler Loggers. The game will be at Hedrick Junior High school gym, starting at 8 o'clock.

The eastern unit is said to be much stronger and a more colorful outfit than the western unit which defeated the Loggers at Eagle Point on Oct. 30.

This will be the first appearance of the Clowns in Medford in a number of years. Several of the players were formerly with the Harlem Globetrotters and are helping their new club to become established as second only to the world-famous Trotters.

Tickets for the Medford appearance are available at Lamport's Sporting Goods store and Bud's Tire Exchange.

St. Mary's Downs Eagle Point 13-0

St. Mary's High's Crusaders made their 1963 football season history Saturday night by battling to their fourth straight triumph and claiming third place in the Rogue league final standings.

The Medford parochial school gridders, touchdowning in the second and fourth quarters and making one sturdy goal line stand, defeated Eagle Point 13-0 at the Medford stadium.

A 19-yard pass play, John Batzer and Anthony Mete, was the second period scoring play. Eric Jensen capped a 73-yard drive by poking the last inches early in the fourth. A Batzer to Randy Corliss pass play followed the first touchdown for an extra point.

St. Mary's established a six-win, two-loss, one-tie season with Saturday's result. The Crusaders ended 4-2 in the Rogue. Eagle Point was 3-6 for the fall campaigning and 3-4 for the loop.

EP to SM One

Major Eagle Point scoring bid came after the Crusaders had their scoring done. The Eagles pecked and winged 70 yards to the St. Mary's one yard line only to be stopped on downs. Then, in the final moments, the Eagles fought to first down on SM seven only to lose successively five and six yards. And 98-pound Pat Latendresse broke up the Eagle pass attempt on the last play of the game.

The Crusaders controlled the ball through the first quarter. Eagle Point had the pigskin for only two scrimmage plays. St. Mary's took the opening kickoff and pushed 63 yards to the Eagle Point four where the Eagles stopped them. EP ran one play and punted and the Medford team fought back to the Eagle 24 before giving up the ball four plays into the second quarter.

Three down exchanges followed before the Crusaders went to their first score. SM took over on the EP 37 after Mete had run back Dave Blair's punt 12

Bears Nip Rams 6-0

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Even after being beaten, the Los Angeles Rams have reason to feel something other than despair today.

The Rams, who have won but two games since the opening of the National Football League season, held the Chicago Bears to two field goals Sunday in a 6-0 loss—and in Chicago's own territory at that.

Observers looked for the Rams to be slaughtered even worse than their 52-13 loss at the hands of the Bears earlier this season at the Coliseum.

The Rams bottled up Bear quarterback Bill Wade until the Chicago crowd was booing him. The Bears took the opening kickoff and proceeded to march to the Ram nine, but there they ran out of gas. After two penalties put the ball back on the Ram 23, Roger LeClere booted the first of his two field goals.

Defense Aggressive

The Rams held on from then until the third quarter. While the Los Angeles offense was smothered time and again by the Bears, the punting of Danny Villanueva and the aggressiveness of the Ram defense kept the Bears from getting too close.

The Bears and LeClere came back in the third quarter. Willie Galimore took a Wade screen pass behind the line of scrimmage, reversed his field and raced 44 yards to the Ram 24.

Three plays later the Bears found themselves on the 16, so they again called on LeClere who booted his second three-pointer.

Forty Niner Footballers Beat Dallas

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners opened preparations today for a road trip that will bring them against the New York Giants and the Green Bay Packers in their next two games in the East.

If they play as well in those games as they did in the second half against Dallas Sunday, they have a chance.

With Lamar McLean tossing three touchdown passes, J. D. Smith ripping up the Dallas defense for another and Tommy Davis booting a 32-yard field goal, San Francisco came from behind to defeat the Cowboys, 31-24, before 29,563 fans in Kezar Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-21 early in the second quarter, and 10-21 at the half.

Hard To Understand

"But the boys just decided they would have to play better football in the second half," said coach Jack Christiansen after the victory—only the second this year for the Forty Niners.

It's hard to understand how Dallas ever lost the game when the statistics are shown: —The C o w b o y s gained 532 yards during the game to 394 for San Francisco.

—Quarterback Don Meredith completed 30 out of 48 passes for 460 yards and three touchdowns.

—Dallas end Frank Clark caught eight passes for 190 yards and two scores; and end Bill Howton caught eight for 107 yards and a touchdown.

But the Forty Niners put the big rush on Meredith in the second half and Dallas was able to score only three points on Sam Baker's 24-yard field goal.

Washington May Coast Into Bowl

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press International

Barring the unlikely possibility that they will drop football this late in the season, the Washington Huskies now can coast into the Rose Bowl on the tag end of a schedule that looks like a "laugher."

Coach Jim Owens' blasters meet floundering UCLA (1-7) this Saturday in one Big Six contest then close out the regular season in a traditional with weak Washington State (2-5-1).

The Huskies, who lost their first three games of the season, made it five straight triumphs last Saturday with a 39-26 romp through California. This lifted Washington's Big Six record to 3-0.

Runner-up Southern California, well beaten by the Huskies the previous week, stayed a full game behind them in the standings by rallying to down Stanford, 25-11.

UCLA Can Win

And just to show that figures can lie, the Bruins of UCLA still have a mathematical chance to win the Big Six crown. Beaten in seven out of eight games, the UCLA's own a 1-1 mark in the Big Six. They can win the title—providing they upset Washington and Southern California on successive weekends.

However, they held their form last Saturday by taking a 48-21 blitzing from the Air Force.

The rest of next weekend's slate finds Oregon State at Southern California for a Friday night game followed by Saturday tilts featuring California at Utah, Washington State at Stanford, Indiana at Oregon, Fresno State at San Jose State and Brigham Young at the University of the Pacific.

Gorky, Vachon Will Leave Nothing Unturned in Bout

Soldat Gorky and "Mad Dog" Vachon will leave nothing unturned in an effort to defeat Haystack Calhoun and Abe Jacobs when they meet in a tag team match headlining the professional wrestling card at Medford armory Thursday night.

Gorky and Vachon have their sights set on the northwest tag team championship and they figure a win over the Calhoun-Jacobs combination will improve their chances of a shot at the tandem crown.

Teaming in a tag match will be nothing new for Calhoun, who at 601 pounds is the world's biggest wrestler, and Jacobs. They have joined together in most of the largest arenas in the country and with Calhoun's agility and heft and Jacobs' speed and cleverness they have become formidable opposition.

Wild Bill Savage mixes with Nick Bockwinkel in the semi-windup and popular Nick Kozak goes against Gil Ane in the opener, starting at 8:30 p.m.

Ringside reserved seat tickets are at Lamport's Sporting Goods store.

SCHRAUB HONORED
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Jack Schraub, California's ace pass receiver, was named the Big Six "lineman of the week" today as the result of his fine efforts in a losing game against Washington.

While the Huskies were pounding out a 39-26 triumph over the Bears last Saturday, Schraub gave them a headache by hauling in nine passes long and short.

Baylor Hobbled By Knee Injury

By United Press International

Elgin Baylor, saddled with an unpredictable knee, may only see limited action this week as the Los Angeles Lakers engage six opponents in seven nights.

Baylor, on the court only 35 minutes, scored a team high of 21 points in a 104-79 romp over the New York Knickerbockers, the only National Basketball Association game played Sunday night.

Laker Coach Fred Schaus said "I hope to play Elgin an average of 40 minutes a game. His knee is a lot better, however."

Perfect Record Teams Now 20

By United Press International

The list of perfect-record college football teams has been reduced to 20 Sunday, including Texas alone among major colleges.

Eight teams had their unbeaten and untied status blemished over the weekend and among the fallen were Auburn and Princeton, thus leaving Texas as the lone representative of the major schools with an 8-0 record.

Six of the perfect-record teams have completed their season. They include Northern Illinois, Luther and Kearney with nine victories each, St. John's (Minn.) and Ripon with eight triumphs each, and Eau Claire (Wis.) with seven wins.

Emporia (Kan.) is the only other school to register nine victories. Joining Texas with eight are Northeast Oklahoma, Lewis & Clark, Northeastern, Southwest Missouri and Southwest Texas. Schools boasting 7-0 marks are Prairie View, Seawance, Coast Guard, Delaware, McNeese and North Carolina College. John Carroll is alone at 6-0.

SOC Wins OCC Cross Country

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Southern Oregon won the Oregon Collegiate conference cross country title Saturday. The Red Raiders collected 19 points.

Oregon College of Education was second with 60 points.

Portland State was third with 70 and Oregon Tech fourth with 80.

Southern Oregon's Norm Oyer took the individual crown by covering the four-mile course in 23:38.
